GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren,

Good morning. Thank you for attending this the 147th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. I trust that our deliberations will be informative, meaningful, worthy of your attendance and conducted in a manner that fairly and accurately serve the best interests of our Grand Jurisdiction and you, the Masons of Ontario.

Welcome

It is with great pleasure that I welcome our distinguished guests from sister jurisdictions and those representatives from associated bodies. Many have travelled great distances from throughout North America and beyond to share in our Annual Communication. We sincerely thank you for your presence. We trust that your visit will be one of profit and much pleasure. It is comforting to know that the Masonic hand of friendship extends well beyond the boundaries of our Province and Nation.

As I conclude my first year in office, I do so with many happy memories of friendship and kindness, extended to my dear wife Lyn and myself, as we travelled extensively throughout this vast and great Province of ours. We have been greeted with the utmost of courtesy and respect. You have provided us with much joy that will be indelibly etched in our memories for many years to come. I thank you, Brethren, for the great honour and privilege to serve as your Grand Master.

This traditional address is intended to provide an overview of the happenings this past year. To identify with the present, then look toward and prepare for the future, in a manner that best serves the interests of our membership.

It is not, nor must it ever be one person's agenda, no matter how well intentioned, rather a concerted effort by each of us to promote unity and to establish consensus by our entire membership, in order to realize our goals as they relate to our Strategic Plan for the future.

Necrology

It is with much sadness, sincere regret, together with great adoration that we recognize the passing of so many faithful servants of this Grand Lodge.

Eric William Nancekivell

Masonry in this jurisdiction suffered a major loss in the passing of the Dean of our Past Grand Masters, M.W. Bro. Eric William Nancekivell, on July 1, 2002. His loss will be severely felt, as he had a broad knowledge of Masonry and could offer sound advice and assistance.

He was born in Hamilton on August 15, 1916; was initiated into Hillcrest Lodge No. 594 on October 14, 1947; also a charter member of Composite Lodge No. 667, having been installed as Master on January 21, 1953. He later served: as District Deputy Grand Master of Hamilton B District in 1960-61; as a member of the Board of General Purposes from 1962 to 1973; as Deputy Grand Master 1973-1975; and as Grand Master for the years 1975 to 1977.

Bro. Nancekivell was the Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Scotland; served as chairman of the Conference of Grand Masters of North America in 1977; and in 1981 was the chairman of the Commission on Information and Recognition for North America.

He was active in many branches of Masonry, including Scottish Rite, York Rite, and the Royal Order of Scotland, where he served a five-year term as Grand Master.

Dr. Nancekivell practised medicine on the Hamilton Mountain for over forty years. M.W. Bro. Eric William Nancekivell will be truly missed by all who knew him; he enriched the lives of so many.

William Thompson Anderson

M.W. Bro. William T. Anderson was born in Simcoe County, where he received his early education. He became a member of the Institute of Municipal Assessors and retired from government employment in 1990. Over the years, Bro. Anderson has been a dedicated worker and supporter of his church and his community.

Our Past Grand Master was initiated into Karnak Lodge No. 492 on April 5, 1962, and served as Master in 1967. He was also a charter member of Innisfil Lodge No. 737. After serving as District Deputy Grand Master in Georgian District in 1987, he was elected to the Board of General Purposes in 1989, elected Deputy Grand Master in 1995, and became Grand Master in 1997.

He was an active member and officer in Scottish Rite Masonry, Royal Arch Masonry and the Order of the Eastern Star. Bro. Anderson was the Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Newfoundland and Labrador.

M.W. Bro. Anderson passed away suddenly on July 2, 2002. His many talents and willing assistance will be greatly missed throughout the Masonic community

T. John Arthur

M.W. Bro. Arthur passed away on June 5, 2002, after having served Freemasonry with great distinction over the past fifty-seven years. He had been an ardent supporter and a dedicated servant of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario. Bro. Arthur was initiated in Caledonia Lodge No. 637 in 1945; served his lodge as Master in 1955; was District Deputy Grand Master of his district in 1959; appointed to the Board of General Purposes in 1975, and given the Honorary Rank of Past Grand Master in 1987. His many talents will be sorely missed.

Herbert N. Simpson

V.W. Bro. Simpson was appointed Grand Steward in July of 2001 in recognition of his service as District Secretary the previous year. Unfortunately, he passed away in August of 2001, having enjoyed but a month of the honour that he had been given at Grand Lodge this past year.

John Leonard Brumpton

R.W. Bro. Brumpton enjoyed a lengthy, useful lifespan ere passing away in his 103rd year, on December 21, 2001. He had been a member of all lodges in St. Thomas District; had served his Mother Lodge as Master in 1924 and 1925; his district as Grand Steward, and in 1958 as District Deputy Grand Master of St. Thomas District.

William George Poy

W. Bro. Poy affiliated with Ashlar Lodge No. 247, in Toronto, following a lengthy Masonic career in St. John's Lodge No. 618, U.G.L.E., in Hong Kong. Bro. Poy was a true humanitarian and his heroic efforts expended on behalf of his fellow man during the Second World War will long be remembered. His passing in early February was mourned by his many friends and relatives.

Past Rank

I recommend that the rank of Past Master be conferred posthumously on W. Bro. Robert Toon, King Solomon's Lodge No. 43, Woodstock, whose untimely passing occurred whilst in office. Also, I recommend that past rank be granted to W. Bro. Andrew Barr of Dominion Lodge No. 598, Windsor, and W. Bro. Robert Stanley Bolt of St. David's Lodge No. 302, St. Thomas, both of whom did not serve a full twelve months as Master of their respective lodges; one due to illness and the other due to a change in the date of installation.

Pursuant to Section 73 of the Book of Constitution, inasmuch as V.W. Bro. John K. Baskey, Centennial Lodge No. 684, and V.W. Bro. Donald W. Lewis, Richardson Lodge No. 136, while acting in their respective capacity as Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, were both called upon to undertake the duties and responsibilities of Grand Director of Ceremonies, I therefore recommend they receive the rank of Right Worshipful Brother, Past Grand Senior Warden.

William Mercer Wilson Medal

A distinct few of our members, who without courting applause, have gone beyond the call of duty to serve our Craft and the community with diligence, loyalty, much dedication and great honour, each has been recommended to receive what has come to be known as the Victoria Cross of Freemasonry. We extend sincere thanks and best wishes to the following William Mercer Wilson Medal recipients:

Bro. Lyle Franklin James, Liberty Lodge No. 419, Sarnia
Bro. Stewart Emerson Lumsden, Mimosa Lodge No. 576

I was also privileged to attend at Sarnia and Toronto for presentation of the William Mercer Wilson Medal to Bro. Lyle Franklin James and to Bro. Stewart Emerson Lumsden, both worthy recipients of this prestigious award.

Certificates of Commendation

The highly successful millennium project involved commitment above and beyond the call of duty by the seven regional representatives. Each travelled a significant distance, at their own expense, to attend regular meetings at Toronto and undertook further travel within their respective regions and beyond in describing the programme. In recognition of their commitment to excellence, Certificates of Commendation for outstanding service are awarded to the following:

R.W. Bro. Thomas Hogeboom, Napanee
R.W. Bro. Barry Hutton, Pickering
R.W. Bro. Donald Jagger, Hamilton
R.W. Bro. Samuel Kalinowsky, Ottawa
R.W. Bro. Peter Matijek, Kirkland Lake
R.W. Bro. Alf Messenger, London
R.W. Bro. James Sutherland, London

Many others, throughout our entire jurisdiction, served in the area at which they resided and are also deserving of our appreciation and praise.

Meritorious Service Award

This prestigious award is presented to the Mason who has made contributions above and beyond that of normal performance. One who has given unselfishly of his time, talent and energy for the betterment of his community and the Craft. It is my privilege and pleasure to announce the following two recipients:

R.W. Bro. Frederic R. Branscombe
R.W. Bro. James Heffel

Golden Jubilee

A message of congratulations and support was forwarded to Buckingham Palace in recognition of the Fiftieth Anniversary Celebrations of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Special Thanks

This past year I have been fortunate indeed to have been blessed with an outstanding Director of Ceremonies in the person of R.W. Bro. Terrence V. Horner. No Grand Master could wish for a more dedicated aide de camp. He (with supportive wife, Lily) has gone far beyond the responsibilities of his office in attending to the every need of your Grand Master. We have travelled many thousands of kilometres, shared in many memorable events that will serve to enhance an almost thirty year friendship we have enjoyed together.

New Lodges

Masonic growth is always welcome. I am pleased to report that a warrant has been issued for New Light Daylight Lodge, under dispensation, Waterloo District. Consecration ceremonies are to take place Tuesday, October 29, 2002.

Dispensation has been granted to a delegation from Niagara Districts 'A' and 'B' to form Brock Daylight Lodge, St Catharines.

It is intended that the two daylight lodges will better serve the needs of our membership who, for a variety of reasons, are desirous of meeting during the daytime.

Special Events

In a genuine spirit of furthering friendly relations and in support of the Family of Freemasonry concept, I was privileged to attend several events during this past year to bring fraternal greetings from our Craft.

August	– Highland Games, Maxville
	– Sovereign Great Priory, Chatham
September	– Supreme Council Sessions, London
	– International Plowing Match, Navan
January	– District Grand Lodge of Jamaica and Cayman Islands, Kingston
April	– Ladies of the Oriental Shrine, Installation, Downsview
	– Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, Convocation, St Catharines
May	– Order of the Amaranth, Annual Sessions, Markham
June	– Imperial Sessions A.A.O.N.M.S., Vancouver
July	– Canada Day Parade, Windsor

Attendance at these events create an environment in which to discuss matters of interest for our mutual benefit and to provide for a better understanding of our organizations. In every instance, Lyn and I were warmly received and graciously hosted with the utmost of courtesies. Our respective Orders serve humanity and are deserving of each other's respect and support in being identified as part of the family of Freemasonry within the communities at which we reside.

In addition, the Ontario Masonic Leaders of Craft, Scottish Rite and Royal Arch Masonry, together with Mocha, Rameses, Tunis Shrine and Sovereign Great Priory have reaffirmed our amity and unity statement. We continue to meet on a regular basis to discuss matters of mutual interest and benefit to all. A generic pamphlet has been developed by the joint effort of the 2001 Public Relations Chairman of each body and is entitled the 'Family of Freemasonry in Ontario'. The pamphlet describes each organization under a single umbrella and is now available for distribution.

In October, I was privileged to attend the 50 year pin presentation of R.W. Bro. James Cassie at Antiquity Lodge No. 571. In April, a similar celebration was held in Belleville to honour R.W. Bro. Neil Britton, and Vivian, by Eureka Lodge No. 283. Their respective devoted service as members of the Board of General Purposes these many years is greatly appreciated, as is their professionalism and sage advice at our Management Committee meetings.

What a distinct pleasure it was, in April, to attend the home of R.W. Bro. Charles Sankey, St. Catharines, to recognize his 75 years of service. M.W. Bros. Robert E. Davies and Norman E. Byrne, several brethren, family and friends, listened intently as this worthy and distinguished brother, an icon in Masonic terms, delighted us throughout the afternoon with his recollection of past Masonic happenings.

Congratulations to all long service pin recipients – your dedication to our Craft serves as an inspiration to us all.

Lodge Consecrations and Dedications

October 25, 2001 – Consecration of Royal City Daylight Lodge No. 742, Guelph

March 23, 2002 – Dedication of Orillia Masonic Temple, Orillia

April 6, 2002 – Dedication of Havelock Lodge No. 238 Temple, Watford

April 27, 2002 – Dedication of Cochrane Lodge No. 530 Temple, Cochrane

We congratulate the members of these lodges for their zeal in perpetuating Masonry in their respective communities.

Masonic Conferences

The Conference of Grand Masters of North America was held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in February, 2002. The Deputy Grand Master and I were able to attend seminars and exchange dialogue for our mutual benefit and to strengthen our Masonic ties throughout North America.

The Conference of Grand and District Grand Lodges of Canada was held at Winnipeg, Manitoba, in March, 2002. All provinces are represented and numerous discussion papers presented, including ones from the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Secretary and myself. The minutes of this and past conferences are published and available for your perusal at the Grand Lodge library. I encourage you to seek them out and broaden your Masonic horizons.

Grand Lodges Annual Communications

It was a distinct pleasure for Lyn and I to represent you at several Grand Lodge Communications from many parts of our continent and beyond. In every instance we were treated most kindly and with great respect as we reaffirmed the cordial relations that exists between our respective Grand Lodges. A complete list of visitations is listed in Appendix 'A'.

Anniversaries

I was privileged to attend in celebration of the 200th Anniversary of St. John's Lodge No. 17, Cobourg, on October 6, 2001. Then, the 100th Anniversaries of Hawksbury Lodge No. 450 and Avonmore Lodge No. 452, Maxville, on October 27, 2001; Corona Lodge No. 454, Burks Falls, on May 4, 2002; and Elma Lodge No. 456, Atwood, on May 24, 2002.

Recognition of 100 Years of Active Service

In accordance with Section 394 of the Book of Constitution of Grand Lodge, I am pleased to grant permission to the following lodges to wear gold braid, effective the dates indicated:

Century Lodge No. 457, Merlin, as of July 30, 2002

Cobden Lodge No. 459, Cobden, as of August 19, 2003

King Edward Lodge No. 464, Sunderland, as of October 19, 2003

Tottenham Lodge No. 467, Tottenham, as of April 29, 2004

Grand Representatives

I was pleased to accept the recommendations of the respective Grand Masters, and to confirm the following brethren as our Grand Representatives near the Grand Lodges of:

State G.L. of Maranhao	– R.W. Bro. Fernando Matos Marques
Croatia	– V.W. Bro. Zvonimir Zepic

I was pleased to recommend to the Grand Masters of the respective Grand Lodges, the appointment of the following Grand Representatives of their Grand Lodges near our Grand Lodge.

West Virginia	– R.W. Bro. Scott R. Drummond
Nationale Madagascar	– R.W. Bro. Norman G. Stacey

Past Grand Masters

Our jurisdiction is blessed with several Past Grand Masters who continue to support and serve us in a variety of ways. I thank each of them for availing themselves as the need arises and for their ongoing interest in the affairs of Masonry.

Our congratulations are particularly extended to M.W. Bro. Rick Richards, P.G.M., who, on June 9, 2002, was inducted into the Hall of Fame Gallery of the Ontario Hall of Fame Association. Assisted by wife Mary, his stellar support of agricultural and food programmes in developing countries brought recognition and honour to the Ontario Agricultural College and the University of Guelph for programmes related to Rural Development Outreach. Well done! Most Worshipful Sir.

Grand Lodge Officers

The Grand Lodge Officers elected and appointed to serve this past year have done so with great zeal and attachment. They have travelled throughout our Province, giving unstintingly of their time and talents in the service of our Craft.

An expression of gratitude is extended to the District Deputy Grand Masters and District Secretaries for their tireless service as my representative and for the courtesies provided whenever I was received in their presence.

To the members of the Board of General Purposes, committee chairmen and team members alike. You are outstanding Masons worthy of our admiration, respect and gratitude, all of which I extend to each of you.

The Grand Senior Warden, R.W. Bro. Ronald Stinson, and Carol, the Grand Junior Warden, R.W. Bro. Murray Dow, and Kaye, have been an inseparable foursome as they conscientiously went about their duties.

The Grand Registrar, R.W. Bro. Michael Diamond, attended with camera in hand and a friendly smile for those candid Kodak moments.

The Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Paul Kett, and Kathleen, served as an inspiration to us all. Several Grand Lodge officers sojourned with him throughout our jurisdiction and have benefited from his good company and keen sense of humour. He has served us all with dignity and respect.

The Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, V.W. Bro. John Wylie, aided by Fran, has attended to the responsibilities of office with great vigour and keen attention to detail. Whenever called upon they have been eager to respond and assist in a most complimentary fashion.

It has been my observation, of the many appointed officers that travelled extensively, all have conducted themselves in an exemplary, energetic and enthusiastic manner; at the same time, each has appeared to have had a great deal of fun doing so.

Youth Groups

It is often said, "the youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow." The future of our gentle Craft is also dependent on our young people. We, in turn, must endeavour to ensure that our Masonic related youth groups, such as the Order of DeMolay, Order of Job's Daughters and Order of Rainbow for Girls, receive our personal and financial support. Not just lip service, rather, a determined effort to become involved, especially when they are resident in your community. With that thought in mind, I have requested that our Board of General Purposes authorize some financial assistance to each of the aforementioned groups as an expression of encouragement. I would ask that you consider a similar action at the lodge and/or district level.

Special Thanks

The tenure of our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies, has come to a close. He has served our Grand Lodge, these many years, with the utmost of loyalty and devotion. He has displayed a quiet and helpful manner in the execution of his duties. I, and many of my predecessors, benefited from his wise counsel and sage advice. He is well recognized and highly respected throughout North America and beyond for his service to Freemasonry, and is most deserving of our admiration and esteem. I recommend that M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies be elected Grand Secretary Emeritus by this Grand Lodge.

Dispensations

During the past year, a number of dispensations have been granted for a variety of situations. There has, however, been a disproportionate number of requests by several lodges for dispensation to allow a single member to hold multiple offices in an individual lodge and/or to hold a single office in two or more lodges. Several I have reluctantly given; however, I trust that all such requests are only made after an exhaustive enquiry amongst the membership to equitably share the workload of a lodge. Those who serve in the capacity of Worshipful Master, however, should consider it a full time position, one that does not provide for service in a second office at the same time.

Ad Hoc Committees

I have authorized R.W. Bro. Brian Bond to proceed with a pilot project of e-mail summonses in a number of lodges within three districts throughout the Province. I request that you assist in every way possible to ensure the project has a thorough trial, in order to receive an accurate analysis for future planning.

I have asked R.W. Bro. Robert Runciman to investigate and report on a proposal to make Ontario one single jurisdiction for the purposes of receiving applications by a lodge. His recommendations will be forthcoming to me, then presented to the Board of General Purposes for approval at Grand Lodge.

Last July, I requested M.W. Bros. David C. Bradley and William T. Anderson, to co-chair a committee dealing with amalgamations and the surrender of charters. Their report, submitted in April, 2002, contains several recommendations that I will forward to the next level for the appropriate action.

In May, 2002, I convened a Management Committee meeting to discuss the Office of Grand Secretary and its relationship to that of Office Administrator at the Grand Lodge Office.

As a result of the recommendations received, I have initiated an ad hoc committee, chaired by R.W. Bro. Robert T. Runciman, and composed of R.W. Bros. T. Richard Davies and Neil Britton, to investigate and report on the following:

- the constitutional duties and qualifications of the office of Grand Secretary,
- recommendations regarding the relationship between the office of Grand Secretary and that of the remunerated position of Office Manager/ Administrator,
- recommendations regarding the duties, responsibilities and qualifications of each position.

Grand Master's Banquet

I am pleased to report that our keynote speaker for this evening's banquet is Dr Robert V. Harrison, Senior Scientist, Hospital for Sick Children. A distinguished and respected associate of our Masonic Foundation these many years, he is a strong advocate of our Masonic charitable endeavours in the area of Auditory research.

Acknowledgments

R.W. Bro. Albert Barker and R.W. Bro. James Jackson are retiring from active participation on the Board of General Purposes. They have served both Masonry and our Grand Lodge with dedication and distinction. We thank them for their devotion to service and wish for each of them continued good health and much success in all their future endeavours.

M.W. Bro. C. Edwin Drew, Custodian of the Work, continues to travel throughout the province with a zealous and knowledgeable team of diligent Masons, providing information and instruction. His readiness to respond to questions regarding our ritual, via the District Deputy Grand Masters, is notable and we thank him for his tireless attention to the responsibilities of his office.

R.W. Bro. Donald Mumby. No Grand Master could effectively serve office without a loyal and trusted Deputy Grand Master at his side. I truly appreciate that loyalty and trust and most sincerely thank you for your friendship, cooperation and service to our Craft. I am confident that Masonry in Ontario will move forward and progress with you at the helm of our Board of General Purposes.

To serve as Grand Master without the participation of one's partner, of forty-one years, would create a definite void. I extend my heartfelt thanks to my wife Lyn and to our family for their love, understanding and unquestioning support of my activities these past years. Lyn has, at every turn, promoted the value derived from family life influenced by the principles of Freemasonry.

Conclusion

With the privilege of serving as Grand Master comes the responsibility of reporting events of the past year in a forthright, fair, unbiased manner, without prejudice and devoid of personalities. It is with that thought in mind that I derive no solace in my following comments.

While the process, and I emphasize the word process, by which the selection to replace our Grand Secretary met constitutional requirements, the selection procedure to do so was, in my view, wrong. It is a course of action of which I had no prior knowledge nor one that I endorse.

Even when acting in good faith or in the perceived best interests of our Craft, no one person and/or persons should take any action that tends to circumvent the democratic elective process. It is my most earnest conviction that to do so undermines the very fabric of our Masonic democracy.

Brethren,

I envision a resurgence of Masonry in Ontario. Many lodges throughout our jurisdiction are enjoying an increase of applications to our fraternity. Some, who have not enjoyed a single applicant for a considerable time, have young men knocking at the door. Those lodges that are using the many programmes offered are reaping the benefits of their efforts. I encourage those who have not, to seek the programmes out.

As I have travelled throughout this vast Province of ours I have hammered away at the 'Back to Basics' theme. I do so now and will continue to for the remainder of my term in office:

Let's re-focus, concentrate on; why we join our fraternity, what its philosophy teaches (a life of exemplary moral conduct, kindness at home, honesty at work, courtesy in society, integrity, community service, concern for absent members, caring for infirm members and for our members' widows).

Promoting a better quality of ritual and its portrayal at lodge by eliminating the reading of text at lodge openings, degrees and installations. In other words; Pride of membership, Pride in the ability to memorize our Work, Pride in the precision of the mechanics of a degree, Pride in the 'esprit de corps' of the officer line at lodge by not missing a meeting or practice, and Pride in the ability to be part of a team that makes an evening at lodge one not to be missed.

While I am truly optimistic about the future of Masonry in Ontario, I am also fully cognizant that optimism alone will not stop the bleeding, so-to-say. Retention (by way of participation) of those we initiate would go a long way to alleviating part of the problem.

I close in a manner similar to that as I opened. I am ever mindful that this is not one person's agenda, it requires the concerted effort of a dedicated pro-active team of 'DOER'S' and I believe that your Grand Lodge has just that. I look forward to the challenge of next year and am genuinely grateful for the opportunity to serve our jurisdiction as Grand Master.

Sincerely and fraternally yours

Terence Shand

Auditors' Report

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master,
Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

We have audited the statements of financial position of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario as at April 30, 2002, and the statements of operations and fund balances for the general and segregated funds for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the organization as at April 30, 2002 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

REPORT OF THE GRAND TREASURER

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

In our report of one year ago we remarked upon the turmoil which then existed in the financial markets. Little could we have imagined the events which lay ahead; the September 11th tragedy, the related Afghanistan war, followed by the Middle Eastern crisis, the Enron scandal and accompanying audit investigations involving long established household names. The past year has been one of considerable anxiety and uncertainty. Interest rates have drifted to unbelievable lows and equity markets have been in the doldrums waiting for any evidence of promising news.

In this scenario, it should not surprise us that our investment portfolio has shown no growth – the good news is that we have more or less held our own with a year-end market value of $4.5 million even after withdrawals of nearly $350,000 during the year to support our overall operating requirements.

Last year we had forecast an investment return of more than 7%. A wildly optimistic forecast given the benefit of hindsight. So at present we are inclined to avoid any prediction of investment returns until some evidence of normality is restored. We can assure everyone of the quality of our overall investments and of our confidence in the prudent management of same going forward. Our investments are substantially in high-grade bonds and blue chip equities and are reviewed regularly by ourselves with the Audit and Finance Committee and our investment manager, Scotia Cassels Investment Counsel Limited.

Our general expectation is that equity markets have more or less bottomed, that interest rates will rise slowly and that we should see a reasonable recovery in the value of our investments during the year ahead. We are keenly aware of the importance of our investment qualities and returns as these represent a major portion of our operating revenues. And, as well, we are quite determined to avoid any need for an increase in the level of per capita assessment. We have had no increase in this area for many years and we undertake to continue to manage our budgetary requirements with this objective in mind.

We have regularly remarked upon the responsibility undertaken when caring for other people's money. The events of the past couple of years provide ample evidence of that responsibility and of the importance of having an approved and documented Investment Policy. That Policy, approved by Grand Lodge two years ago (a portion of which is appended hereto) continues to be appropriate in our opinion and your approval of this report will be taken as ratification of that Policy and will be reviewed further during the coming year with the Audit and Finance Committee and with Scotia Cassels Investment Counsel.

Given the present uncertainty as to our revenues from our investment portfolio, we have cut back sharply on our budgeted revenues and have accordingly had to accept cutbacks wherever possible in our expenditures. Details of the financial results for the past year, and for the budgetary expectation for the year ahead are printed in your Preliminary Proceedings and will be dealt with in the report of Audit and Finance. The bottom line is that our consolidated operations saw a deficit this past year of $255,000. For the year ahead we anticipate a deficit of $27,000. Needless to say, we hope for a return to more prosperous times in the years to come.

I have valued the privilege of serving as the Grand Treasurer of this Grand Lodge and of the relationships that office enjoys with so many, especially the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Audit and Finance Committee and the Grand Secretary. We will work closely in the year ahead to assist whenever appropriate with the incoming Grand Secretary and his considerable responsibilities.

The retirement of our esteemed M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies, after twenty plus years of distinguished service, leaves a pair of very large shoes to fill and all of us must give our new Grand Secretary every assistance in his taking over.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

T. RICHARD DAVIES

Addendum:

The investment objective of the fund is to provide a high level of income consistent with an emphasis on preservation of capital plus an exposure to growth type investments providing potential for capital gain sufficient to protect the purchasing power of the fund and to meet a gradually increasing need for income.

The role of the bonds in the fund is to provide an adequate level of stable income.

The role of the equities in the fund is to provide the growth potential necessary to protect the purchasing power of the income.

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Treasurer, the Report was adopted.

Lodge Secretaries

The Lodge Secretary is a very important office in a lodge. It can be said he is the link that binds the past, the present and the future. He must keep accurate records, submit reports, look after correspondence and record the minutes of each meeting. Not only is the Lodge Secretary responsible to the members of the lodge, Grand Lodge is most dependent on his accuracy, timely submission of reports and for a myriad of small chores. Congratulations to the many who so capably are filling the role of Secretary. Your efforts are needed and appreciated and we at the Grand Lodge Office offer a great big thank you!

Printing and Publications

The Ontario Directory for 2002/2003 is scheduled for printing this fall and again we must draw to your attention that the contents can only reflect the most recent information available in our files. Routine reprinting of Grand Lodge publications has been ongoing during the past year. A limited amount of Masonic books have been kept available on our shelves and serve as a source for District Librarians or individual Masons alike to supplement their reading materials.

Computerization

To the several volunteers who continue to assist your Grand Lodge in keeping our network operating smoothly, we acknowledge their support and tender our thanks.

Warrants

Craig Lodge No. 401, Garden Lodge No. 641, Progress Lodge No. 711 and Millennium Lodge No. 743 have ceased operations and surrendered their Warrants during the past year.

Marmora Lodge No. 222 and Tweed Lodge No. 239 have amalgamated with Madoc Lodge No. 48; Victory Lodge No. 563 has amalgamated with Wellington Lodge No. 46; and Stevenson Lodge No. 218 has amalgamated with Caledonia Lodge No. 637.

A new lodge named Brock Daylight U.D. has been instituted at St. Catharines in Niagara District A.

A request for a charter has been received from New Light Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Waterloo District which was instituted one year ago. The petition, books, records and the recommendation of the District Deputy Grand Master have been reviewed and I am now pleased to recommend as per Section 113 (m) of the Constitution of Grand Lodge that a warrant be granted to New Light Lodge U.D.

Conferences

Once again it was my privilege to attend the Conference of Grand Secretaries of North America which was held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this past February. As your Representative, I was afforded the opportunity to present the Canadian flag, introduce the new Grand Secretary of Manitoba, present a paper on "Masonic Ownership of Real Estate" and participate in discussions with my fellow Grand Secretaries.

The annual Conference of Canadian Grand and District Grand Lodges of Canada was held in Winnipeg, in March. This year's agenda included many topics of current interest to all Canadian Jurisdictions and hence lively discussion and debate ensued.

The Masonic Information Center

As your Representative on the Steering Committee of the Masonic Information Center, I have attended meetings in both spring and fall. Much effort and discussion was given to the preparation of both written and video responses for use in refuting the devious and erroneous submissions circulated by our detractors who continue to surface from time to time. Public relations is most important and the Masonic Information Center remains ever vigilant in producing excellent tools to assist our beloved Craft in better educating the populous.

Closing

My Brethren, ere closing this report, I extend a heartfelt thank you to the membership at large for your continued assistance and cooperation. Genuine appreciation must also be expressed to the office staff at 363 King Street West in Hamilton where, each day, Dorothy, Ilene, Gail, Cindy and Rose go the second mile to attend to the needs of the Craft. To our genial and dedicated volunteer, Ken Schweitzer, a genuine thank you is expressed for his continued donation of his time and talent.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

R. E. DAVIES, Grand Secretary

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, the Report was adopted by Grand Lodge.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

The forty-six reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters were presented by the Grand Secretary, and, on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, they were referred to the Board of General Purposes.

REPORT OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. H. Mumby, Chairman, and on motion of R.W. Bro. Mumby, seconded by R.W. Bro. J. T. Cassie, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my pleasure to report on behalf of the Management Committee and its several members who have served our Grand Lodge with dedication in the provision of wise counsel and expert advice when considering items placed before them. The in-depth and unbiased examination of all issues placed before this committee ensures that the best interests of our Grand Lodge are maintained.

The Management Committee met on six occasions throughout this past year and also participated in spring and fall meetings of the Advisory Group. A significant number of proposals were considered by the committee with the following major recommendations being presented for your consideration.

It has been recommended that:

- ▶ The Guidelines for the Examination of the Master-Elect be approved and that copies be distributed to all districts. These guidelines are intended to assist, not only the Examining Board, but also the Master-Elect in preparing himself for his term of office.
- ▶ The Strategic Plan 2001-2006 be approved. Dissemination to all Members of the Board of General Purposes, be effected forthwith. This is a living document that will be updated on a regular and continuing basis.
- ▶ Polling be authorized on an occasional basis on the Grand Lodge Web site. If this is deemed successful and useful it may be extended in future years.
- ▶ Portions of the "Ontario Mason" be placed on the Grand Lodge Web site. This would be on two issue, trial basis, only.
- ▶ We proceed, in conjunction with the Province of Ontario, in making License Plates bearing the Masonic Logo available for purchase by members. As things now stand negotiations are still under way with the Ministry of Transportation and no firm decision has, as yet, been reached.
- ▶ Five year Objectives for External Relations be approved. These objectives outline the course of action External Relations hope to pursue and will be updated and revised as necessary.
- ▶ Guidelines for a Financial Audit be approved. Copies have been forwarded to all districts.
- ▶ Life Member Actuary Tables, which were subject to extensive review, be approved and sent to all lodges who still issue Life Memberships.
- ▶ Approval be granted to hire a professional Public Relations Consultant to maximize favorable publicity surrounding the presentation of grants from the Masonic Foundation of Ontario to three research doctors who would be working on hearing related problems in London, Toronto and Ottawa.
- ▶ Approval be granted to purchase additional cabinets for the Grand Lodge Library.
- ▶ Approval be granted to expend up to $500 for the repair of a book authored by the late M.W. Bro. John Ross Robertson.
- ▶ Section 281 of the Constitution be amended so that suitably safeguarded C.D. ROM copies of the Ritual can be cut for use in a secure digitized format, by members who are visually challenged.
- ▶ New and updated Blood Donor pamphlets be approved and disseminated.
- ▶ Suitable Certificates for Blood Donations beginning at 50 donations be approved.
- ▶ Approval be given to hiring the services of a Newspaper Clipping Service for a one year trial period.

The Management Committee was also asked to examine a number of issues attendant to the office of the Grand Secretary, including, but not limited to, succession planning, the duties of the office of Grand Secretary, the relationship of the elected office of Grand Secretary and the remunerated position of the administrator of the Grand Lodge office, travel and remuneration. Following due deliberation, the Grand Master asked that an ad hoc committee chaired by R.W. Bro. R. T. Runciman, with R.W.

Bro. T. R. Davies and one member selected by the chairman as members, be tasked with examining these issues. This ad hoc committee will tender their findings as soon as possible.

The committee was pleased to welcome R.W. Bro. R. T. Runciman as an elected member of the committee. He will serve the remainder of the term left vacant with the election of the Deputy Grand Master. We regret that R.W. Bro. A. A. Barker, who has served this committee so capably since 1998, has decided to step down from his duties as a member of the Board of General Purposes. We thank him for his diligence and devotion to duty for the past number of years.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the following committee members: M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, Grand Master; M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, Grand Secretary; R.W. Bros. J. Cassie, Vice-Chairman; H. N. Britton, G. L. Atkinson, A. A. Barker, R. T. Runciman and T. E. Lewis.

DONALD MUMBY, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

R.W. Bro. G. Wayne Nelson presented this Report and read the Foreword to the Reviews. The Deputy Grand Master then moved, seconded by R.W. Bro. Nelson, that the Report be received. (See page 196)

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY, MUSEUM and ARCHIVES COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. B. K. Schweitzer, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Schweitzer, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Library, Museum and Archives Committee, consisting of R.W. Bros. M. Duke, J. Hough (Vice-Chairman, Library), D. Jagger, B. King, E. J. Ramsbottom, R. G. Wands, G. H. T. Jones (Vice-Chairman, Museum), V.W. Bro. D. Washer, W. Bros. G. Lotz, B. Palmer, and the undersigned as chairman, it is my pleasure to submit this report.

The Grand Lodge Library will mark its seventy-first year of operation in the year 2002. Since its inception, the role of this library, like most libraries, has been to provide access to information to further increase one's knowledge. Reading may be a valuable way to pass time, a means of getting information on some current or past topic or incident in our daily lives, or a path to true knowledge. Reading infers educating and education leads to making a better man, a better brother and a better person.

The 2001 – 2002 Masonic year began with this statement: Given that our Mission Statement is "To be the world's foremost fraternal organization by reaffirming the traditional Masonic values with brethren acting on the Square" and our Mission identified as "being the encouragement of a way of life, promoting fellowship, leadership, charity, positive family values and the practice of one's faith for the cause of good," the Library and Museum Committees proposed to encourage education in our Masonic past, present and future through the provision of library materials and Masonic artifacts, both contained on the second floor of the Grand Lodge Memorial Building.

The lives of those who have already traveled this great Masonic journey are the very lives that have paved our Masonic future. This was evident during videotaped interviews with seven of our Past Grand Masters in May 2001. The Library Committee was pleased to share in their reflections on the past paths, the present roads and the future highways of Masonry, with the assistance of R.W. Bro. Wayne Elgie as fraternal host. Copies of these videos were placed in the library for circulation at the start of this Masonic year.

This year the Web page was updated and now contains the complete book and resource list, together with new material acquired for the library and book reviews.

The Museum Committee has also brought our Masonic past to the present. Restoration of a number of artifacts, including an original J. R. Robertson book titled Ink Sketches, has taken place, and additional display cases have been purchased.

A number of lodges have been contacted and asked if they would like to loan the museum artifacts for display. Three to date have replied favourably and these displays should be ready for viewing in the near future.

As displays come available we will make it known on the web page which lodges or districts have their artifacts on display. The committee continues to improve the museum content in an attempt that it may be more appealing for the brethren.

This past year some 95 members have passed through the doors to view the museum and select reading material from the library. Some have been new faces, others old friends, however all were greatly appreciated and warmly received. Of these 95 brethren (.1% of our membership) some came just to do research and left with a wealth of knowledge on different topics; others wanted material to read and/or view. Some 140 books and 45 audio/video cassettes were borrowed. Our "mail-out" service has served a number of other brethren (16) throughout the province, requesting 45 books and 15 video cassettes.

To request a book, videotape, audio cassette or information about the library please write, fax, or e-mail the Grand Lodge office (office@grandlodge.on.ca). Materials are shipped free of charge and all that is asked is that return postage be paid by the borrower.

For a complete listing of library materials, please access the Grand Lodge Website or contact the office.

The Library and Museum Committees have worked consistently to achieve their mission.

A sincere thank you is extended to those brethren who volunteer faithfully to be our librarians: R.W. Bros. R. Borland, D. Jagger, J. Manisto, K. Schweitzer, R. Daniels; W. Bros. H. Ogilvie, P. Selnes and R. Todd. We thank M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies and the Grand Lodge office staff for all of their assistance.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

B. K. SCHWEITZER, Chairman

REPORT OF THE DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. S. Whitmore, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Whitmore, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The role of the Discipline Committee is very carefully and specifically described in our Constitution. Essentially we are to oversee the administration of Masonic discipline so that complaints of masonic offences as defined in our Constitution are dealt with appropriately. Such situations thankfully are rare and, in keeping with our masonic qualifications and principles, it should come as no surprise that matters requiring formal Masonic discipline arise infrequently. Nevertheless, when they do occur, our Constitution provides a detailed and comprehensive code to deal with such situations.

This past year, we did not have any Masonic trials. During the year we issued one Certificate of Severance pursuant to our Constitution. This avoided the necessity of a Masonic trial that surely would have been required and, in this regard, I wish to thank the brethren of that lodge for their patience and cooperation in this matter. Although not of that particular lodge, I also wish to express our thanks to a brother who was extremely helpful in facilitating this particular application.

Most of you will remember that last year, extensive amendments were made to our Constitution. Although one purpose of these amendments was to provide wider latitude to our Grand Master in dealing with various types of complaints, we wish to stress to the brethren that the Constitutional discipline process is not designed for nor is it intended to resolve all purely personal matters, that may exist among brethren. The discipline process is extremely serious and is not to be invoked except in appropriate situations. In spite of this, we continue to receive complaints which are not Masonic discipline matters but which are very unpleasant, personal issues between or among the brethren. The new provisions permitting mediation and reconciliation do afford some means to attempt to address some of these matters; however, it is not the role of your committee nor even of the Grand Master to enter into each and every personal dispute. Accordingly, we urge the brethren, when confronted with such a situation, to pause and to exercise common sense and Masonic principles to bring such instances to a happy and practical resolution on their own. Such an approach by the brethren will permit your committee, the Grand Master and the Grand Secretary to focus on the rare but more serious matters that truly merit Masonic discipline.

Before closing, I wish to acknowledge the tremendous contribution that has been made over many years to our committee and to Masonic discipline by our late M.W. Bro. Eric W. Nancekivell. He was a friend to us all and his quiet, steady manner and wisdom will be missed greatly.

On a much happier note, I personally and on behalf of the committee thank our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies, for his advice, support and knowledge. It is only by working closely together with him that one really gets to know and appreciate the competence and ability that M.W. Bro. Davies brought to our Grand Lodge, and now as he moves into retirement from office, I am expressing the gratitude of the Discipline Committee, of myself personally as Chairman, and on behalf of all of the past members and chairs who he so ably assisted over the years.

Finally, I acknowledge and give thanks for the guidance, wisdom and generous assistance provided to me by our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, the Grand Lodge staff, and all other members of the committee, namely: M.W. Bros. D. C. Bradley, N. E. Byrne; R.W. Bros. R. T. Runciman, T. V. Horner, J. W. Lidstone, and V.W. Bro. F. Halpern. Their contribution has been invaluable and I extend my sincere personal thanks to each of them.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ROBERT S. WHITMORE, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. M. L. Shea, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Shea, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am privileged to present the report of the Advisory Committee on Seminars and Workshops on behalf of its members: R.W. Bros. Lloyd Hammell, Peter Irwin; V.W. Bros. David Bell, Dale Hunter, and W. Bro. Pat McGrenere.

The committee met on nine occasions between August 2001, and May 2002, in the Wellington Lodge Building in Erin. Our appreciation is extended to Wellington Lodge No. 271 for permitting us to hold our meetings there.

Our primary focus this year has been to generate topics and find presenters for the seminars, which will be reinstated this year and held during the afternoon on Tuesday, July 16, 2002, prior to the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

In addition, the committee recommends that "Orientation Sessions" be presented on the road, in several areas, possibly in early spring prior to the July changeover of District Officers for those brethren aspiring to become District Secretaries.

The following is a list of the seminars that will be offered at Grand Lodge on Tuesday, July 16, 2002, along with their respective presenters:

Office of District Secretary: (V.W. Bro. Jim Hall) to familiarize oneself with the greater responsibility one will be assuming in his district.

Officer Progression: (R.W. Bro. Barry Hutton and R.W. Bro. Allan Dunsmore) a must for all officers of a lodge.

Daylight Lodges: (R.W. Bro. Raymond Daniels, R.W. Bro. Sam Kalinowsky, and Bro. Sheldon Kofsky) an informative presentation of the different roles played by these lodges.

Masonic Family: (Scottish Rite, R.W. Bro. Don Thornton; O.E.S., R.W. Bro. Don Thornton; Royal Arch, R.W. Bro. Bruce Edwards; Shrine, Bro. Raymond A. Causton) a brief overview of the roles played by each of these Masonic families.

Lodge Secretary: (R.W. Bro. Garry Dowling) a look at the role of the lodge secretary in reporting to his District Deputy Grand Master meaningful information on the Condition of Masonry.

Seminars are scheduled to begin at 1:30, 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. sharp, and will be 50 minutes in duration. Each seminar will be offered twice, except for the Lodge

Secretary, which will be presented once for a period of approximately 1 hour and 50 minutes. This should allow most brethren the opportunity of attending any three of the seminars.

The committee extends sincere appreciation to the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies, and members of his staff for arranging accommodation at the Royal York Hotel for these seminars. Also, it is great to see that so many knowledgeable Masons are willing to take time from their busy schedules to prepare and present these seminars for other members of our fraternity. A heartfelt thanks is extended to each and every one of them.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. C. Thompson, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Thompson, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings, I am pleased to present this report on the status of this committee.

There are several outstanding issues regarding renovations to existing buildings and the construction of new buildings. They are as follows:

1. Cochrane Lodge No. 530, Cochrane, has completed their new lodge building. The Dedication Ceremony took place on April 27, 2002.
2. Manito Lodge No. 90, Collingwood, has completed rebuilding their lodge building and dispensation has been granted to hold their meetings in the new lodge room. The Ceremony of Dedication is scheduled to take place on September 28, 2002.
3. Orillia Masonic Temple completed their new building this past winter and the Ceremony of Dedication took place on March 30, 2002.
4. Havelock Lodge No. 238, Watford, has completed their new lodge building. The Dedication Ceremony took place on April 6, 2002.
5. Elk Lake No. 507 has entered into an agreement with the town of Elk Lake in regard to having a new lodge room in the town library. They are waiting for construction to begin.
6. The lodge building in Kingston has now been sold and they have received the funds from the sale of the building. The Temple Board has three building plans that they are looking at and they also are looking at three properties in the Kingston area. Cataragui Lodge No. 92 is meeting by dispensation in the Odd Fellows Hall in Kingston while the other lodges are now meeting in Harrowsmith until plans for their new building is completed.
7. Lorne Lodge No. 377, Shelburne, has sold their building and are now looking for a new location. They are currently meeting in Dundalk.

We congratulate those lodges and building corporations that have undertaken the task of providing new and improved homes for the members of our great fraternity. Your time and effort are greatly appreciated.

Fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

WILLIAM THOMPSON, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. D. Jackson, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Jackson, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Fraternal Relations met in the Board Room of the Nilestown Masonic Temple on Saturday, April 6, 2002. A comprehensive review of all correspondence on hand was undertaken and as a result we now recommend Recognition be extended to the Grand Lodge of Andorra which was consecrated on September 9, 2000, by the National Grand Lodge of France. This lodge is recognized as being Regular in all respects and is headquartered in Andorra, a small country located in the Pyrenees Mountains, bordering France and Spain.

Request for Recognition has also been received from the Grand Lodge of Cameroun. This lodge is also considered Regular in all respects and has been operational since September 15, 2001. The Grand Lodge of Cameroun was consecrated by the National Grand Lodge of France and consists of lodges previously created by the G.L.N.F. We are now pleased to recommend that Recognition be extended to the Grand Lodge of Cameroun, headquartered in Yaounde, Republic of Cameroun.

Again, we note the increasing activities of splinter groups forming themselves into Grand Lodges and purporting to be Regular. We also note the expansion of irregular Masonry even unto North American soil. Hence, once again, the committee is compelled to recommend that any brother who contemplates Masonic visitation beyond the confines of our Grand Lodge should contact the Grand Lodge office for updated information prior to departure.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee on Fraternal Relations.

JAMES D. JACKSON, Chairman

REPORT OF THE MEMBERSHIP RESOURCES COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. A. Campbell, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Campbell, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

An important facet of the recent restructuring of several Grand Lodge committees was the alignment of a number of membership directed programmes under the umbrella of the Membership Resources Committee (M.R.C.). The M.R.C. is responsible for:

- |                     |                        |                         |
|---------------------|------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Friend to Friend | 3. Brother to Brother  | 5. D.D.G.M. Orientation |
| 2. The Mentor       | 4. Officer Progression |                         |

This restructuring has now created a team of Masons forming a link of programmes to better enable us to safeguard the basic strength of our order – MEMBERSHIP. Your M.R.C. offers a variety of programmes aimed at all aspects of the Craft; aiding a man in becoming a Mason, guiding him to learn more about our Craft, strengthening and informing his membership, assisting a line officer to become the Worshipful Master and preparing a Past Master to be the representative of our Grand Master as the D.D.G.M.

Our objective was to implement many of the initiatives listed in the Grand Lodge Strategic Plan (2001–2006) that related to the mandate of the M.R.C. Within our first year, we have accomplished many of our goals by following this plan.

Friend to Friend and the Mentor Programme

The committee, under the direction of R.W. Bro. Norman (Bud) Funnell, met three times in central Ontario resulting in a planned approach to meeting their objectives. They established a list of district chairmen, contacting them to offer our services and encouraged them to use the programmes where possible, updated the resources material and promoting each lodge to appoint a mentor to each new member and remain with him for at least 12 to 18 months.

Three training sessions were arranged to explain and train designated and interested Masons to implement these programmes with their own lodge and district. Waterloo, Frontenac and Muskoka-Parry Sound Districts hosted them. Masons from Wellington, Wilson North and South, Prince Edward, St. Lawrence and surrounding districts participated.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- District and lodge committees should mirror Grand Lodge committees in order to provide better understanding and ready acceptance of programmes available.
- The name "Brother to Brother Tool Kit" should be changed to the "Membership Resources Tool Kit" so it can be used by all teams to further enhance a better understanding of the Grand Lodge programmes available.
- The need for the M.R.C. to communicate to all brethren the mandate and structure of the committee, its various teams, and when utilized, how it can assist each lodge so there is a better understanding of the Craft, both within the lodge, and in the community. Many of our members do not have an understanding of just what excellent programmes have been developed and the training that is available when requested.

Brother to Brother Programme

The Brother to Brother (B.T.B.) committee, under the direction of R.W. Bro. Doug Swann, is an important programme that Masonry has at its disposal because it is a generic "Tool Kit" that can be tailored by each individual lodge to retain, revitalize and renew their membership. There has been much discussion this past year on how B.T.B. integrates with other programmes of Grand Lodge such as Circle of Friends, Friend to Friend, Mentor Programme, Masonic Education, et cetera.

It is clear that from the 24 feedback sessions held this year, lodges using the B.T.B. tools are having great success, while lodges that are not using the programme are having significant challenges. Momentum is continuing but we are seeing a polarization of lodges to either end of the scale.

The focus this past year has been to transition the committee's mandate from that of "rollout" to "ongoing maintenance." B.T.B. was first rolled out across the province in 1999. The purpose then was to distribute the Tool Kits and train the initial regional coordinators and lodge facilitators. Today, those initial participants in the programme are now looking for additional challenges after three plus years of unwavering commitment to the programme and a new team is stepping up to the plate. Thank you, brethren, for your commitment to the programme these past years.

In the spring of 2000 the first B.T.B. survey was completed as a measurement tool to baseline performance. The same survey was again repeated this year in the spring of 2002. Although results were not yet known, the data will be used to plot a trend analysis and to act as a mechanism to channel input back into B.T.B. for programme improvement. It is expected this survey will be completed every two years.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Moving Forward!

- Programme Measurement: Summarize and channel the feedback from the 2002 survey back into B.T.B. for programme improvement.
- Train the Trainer: Deliver a training session early in the year to train/retrain regional coordinators so that they can go back to their respective districts to train/retrain lodge facilitators.
- Computerization: Continue to investigate ways of how technology can be used to distribute B.T.B. information efficiently to the 35 regional coordinators and 550 plus lodge facilitators.
- Back to Basics: Encourage lodges to use B.T.B. to focus on the fundamentals of Masonry. Use the tools in B.T.B. to focus on making lodge meetings attractive enough so brethren will prioritize Masonry as their first extra-curricular activity after their public and private avocations.

Officer Progression Programme

The committee, under the direction of R.W. Bro. Barry Hutton, continued with a similar format to the two pilot programmes (Hanover and Peterborough) offered in the spring of 2001 by the M.R.C. The concept offered a half-day workshop specifically targeted to Wardens and Deacons to help prepare them for the management of their lodge. A lodge was asked to host the workshop and provided coffee and lunch for the attendees.

The workshops were broken into three lecture sections: Leadership, Office of the W.M., Protocol and Etiquette. One breakout session provided an opportunity for the participants to discuss situations and prepare responses. Questions for those sessions were derived from the "Guidelines for the Examination of the Master Elect." The committee had a supply of Grand Lodge publications available for purchase and for use in answering/confirming the questions during the breakout sessions.

The first workshop was scheduled for Saturday, March 23, 2002, hosted by Mountain Lodge No. 221, at the Seymour Temple in Port Dalhousie, and close to 60 members attended. The committee agreed, on request from the Seminars and Workshops Committee, to present a shortened package (twice) on the Tuesday morning at the Grand Lodge Communication in July.

RECOMMENDATION:

- Subject to the approval of the Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master, we are recommending to continue with the workshops next year, hopefully in the London, Eastern and the North Bay/Sudbury areas.

D.D.G.M. Orientation

The committee was under the direction of R.W. Bro. Scott Drummond. On July 31, 2001, enrollment forms were mailed to 44 of the 46 D.D.G.M.s, asking them to identify and submit the name(s) of any aspiring D.D.G.M. in their district who would be seeking office in July 2002. This year, letters were not mailed to the D.D.G.M.s of Algoma or Western Districts due to the geographical challenge. From the enrollment forms that were returned, 70 aspirants were identified. Each aspirant was mailed a personal invitation to attend a pre-assigned orientation session in his region.

Last November, orientation sessions were held at Hamilton, Mount Forest, Newmarket, Oshawa, Ridgetown, Smiths Falls and Sturgeon Falls. One team member was assigned to each location and accepted the responsibilities of handling the presentation as well as arranging for panelists, a co-presenter and a light lunch for the attendees. Of the 70 aspirants registered, 52 attended at one of the seven locations. The number of aspirants attending each session was as follows; Hamilton – 12, Mount Forest – 5, Newmarket – 10, Oshawa – 8, Ridgetown – 8, Smiths Falls – 6, and Sturg Falls – 3.

Supplies of books and reference material were available for the aspirants. Book sales totalled $1,340. Expenses incurred for photocopies, postage, one hall rental, and lunch at the sessions and refreshments totalled $499.19.

At the conclusion of each session, feedback from the aspirants, the D.D.G.M.s and P.D.D.G.M. was positive and rewarding to the presenters. All seven sessions were considered successful.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- That the D.D.G.M. Orientation programme be continued. Interest in the D.D.G.M. Orientation sessions continues to be high and those who have attended previous sessions endorse the necessity of this programme.
- That the same process, action plan, time line and objectives be used again in 2002. To help organize the team and develop conformity at each session, the enrollment process and team member roles were more clearly defined this year. The method used to identify aspirants and invite them to their respective sessions produced 70 aspirants. The location of the sessions, and the material presented made for 7 successful events and except where changes have been recommended, this format should be repeated next year.
- That the session in Sturgeon Falls be held in early October. Attendance at the Sturgeon Falls session on November 27 was hampered by severe snowstorms throughout the northern region. Because of the poor weather, there were several last minute cancellations, not only by the aspirants but also the panelists and the D.D.G.M.s. The snowstorm made the driving conditions hazardous for the team members that travelled north from Toronto.
- That each aspirant receives a copy of the Grand Lodge Strategic Plan. The Grand Lodge Strategic Plan has been approved and is now printed in pamphlet form.
- That the "Information Booklet for the Prospective District Deputy Grand Master" be updated. The booklet has proven to be a useful resource for those aspiring to the office. Although most of the information is relevant, some of the information is dated since it has been twelve years since its last printing. The team would like to repeat R.W. Bro. Neil Britton's recommendation from the previous year.
- That the D.D.G.M. Correspondence Course be actively and vigorously promoted. The Team has been receiving positive feedback on the D.D.G.M. Correspondence Course and encourages its continued use.

- That the Group Study Exercises be reviewed and updated. During the orientation session, the aspirants are required to complete a study exercise that requires them to reference their answers to one of the many Grand Lodge publications. The Team suggests that these questions and answers be updated to ensure they are relevant and can be accurately referenced.
- The proposed educational programme for District Secretaries should not be run in conjunction with the D.D.G.M. Orientation Programme. It has been proposed that an educational programme for District Secretaries be conducted in concert with the D.D.G.M. Orientation Sessions. At first view, the suggestion has merit and the logistics look sensible. However, now that the team members have experienced the demands and time restraints of conducting these orientation sessions, we have concluded that a joint session would detract from the effectiveness of the D.D.G.M. Orientation Presentation. These sessions start promptly at 6:00 p.m. and conclude at 10:00 p.m. The entire presentation fills four hours and includes a working lunch, leaving little time for breaks or distractions. The attendees consist of D.D.G.M.s, P.D.D.G.M.s, and aspiring D.D.G.M.s, which promotes good discussion on all aspects of the Office of D.D.G.M. In addition, the Sturgeon Falls building does not have adequate space to hold a joint session. We suggest that an educational programme for District Secretaries be offered in a similar environment, but as a stand-alone event. In particular, this recommendation I made because of timing – the District Secretary Seminar will probably not take four hours to run, therefore losing any benefit of them travelling to the same location at the same time as their D.D.G.M. and in several districts, the District Secretary is not picked until spring or even closer to the election at the Annual Communication. For this reason, the committee recommends that the District Secretary Seminar be held in the late spring or early summer.

The final task assigned to this team is to arrange for the Awareness Message to be broadcast at every District Meeting later this spring. Various members of the Board of General Purposes who are also P.D.D.G.M.s, will be asked, based on their proximity, to attend certain District Meetings to read the Awareness Message. A covering letter with a copy of the "Awareness Message" will be mailed to those concerned in the coming weeks.

In conclusion, a very special thanks to the brethren who made all the M.R.C. programmes a success by promoting Masonry across Ontario, especially to the Regional Coordinators, Mentors and Friend to Friend Chairmen and the 550 plus Lodge Facilitators across the province.

It has been an honour to be the chairman for these important programmes. On behalf of the four Team Leaders, R.W. Bros. Bud Funnell, Doug Swann, Barry Hutton and Scott Drummond, our sincere thanks to ALL the members of the committee for their dedication and assistance throughout the year: R.W. Bros. George E. Hinds (Vice-Chairman), Bob Collins, David Dainard, Raymond Daniels, Raymond Dobbs, Al Dunsmore, John Green, Paul Farrell, Jeff Froud, John Harrison, Len Harrison, Tom Hogeboom, Peter Irwin, Alf Messenger, Bruce McLennan, Rick Roberts, William Sanders, Robert South, Lee Shea, Doug Madill, Michael Woolley; V.W. Bros. Arthur Berry, Donald Banks, Tom Lloyd; and W. Bro. William Moore (Secretary).

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

DONALD CAMPBELL, Chairman

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE FINANCES

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. W. Hogeboom, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hogeboom, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances, it is my pleasure to submit the following report.

While many of the lodges in our jurisdiction are well managed financially and have the luxury of being in a good financial position, we do have a number of lodges that are in financial difficulty. We have lodges that are not operating on a budget plan; not using proper accounting techniques; using capital dollars to support their operating fund; are under funding their Life Membership Programmes; have different levels of dues structure; have many members in arrears; that do not have separate Lodge and Building Accounts; and those that are paying more Municipal Tax Assessment than they should.

Over the years, this committee has developed a simple method of recording the finances of the lodge, which is available from our Grand Lodge office. Some of the principles which have been developed are as follows:

- 1) The operation of the lodge and building should be independent of each other
- 2) Operate your lodge/building on a long range budget plan
- 3) The use of proper accounting techniques
- 4) Operating the lodge from the Operating Fund
- 5) Properly funded Life Membership Programmes
- 6) One dues rate structure

In addition to the promotion of these principles, the Grand Lodge Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances has been working on the following initiatives over the past year:

- Preparing materials for seminars and presentations throughout the jurisdiction – The committee has offered its services to each District Deputy Grand Master to present a seminar on Lodge Finances or provide advice to any lodge desiring input on their financial management system. Two such presentations were held this year. The members of this committee continue to make themselves available to provide advice for the management of lodge finances and to assist lodges in financial difficulties. We trust that the advice we offered this year has been of assistance.
- Improved communications – A letter was sent to each current District Deputy Grand Master identifying the committee mandate with an offer of our assistance and the same is posted on the Grand Lodge Web site.
- "Guidelines for a Lodge Financial Audit" for the Lodge Auditor – Not only is it important to choose brethren who have some basic business background with more senior status to be the auditors of the lodge financial records, but it is equally important that they have a set of guidelines detailing their responsibilities and duties. Such a set of guidelines has been distributed to every District Deputy Grand Master with the request that the same be forwarded to each of the lodges in their respective districts.

- Review of the Life Membership Programmes – The importance of a properly funded Life Membership Fund has been stressed in a letter that has gone out with the general mailing from the Grand Lodge office to each lodge encouraging them to review their fund with respect to the guidelines in our Constitution.
- Individual offers of assistance – The committee has responded to fourteen lodges, four districts and one Temple Corporation inquiry through either the Office of the Grand Secretary, a District Deputy Grand Master or the lodge itself regarding financial advice in either Life Membership Programmes/By-laws, lodge finances and accounting principles, amalgamation finances, investment strategies and dues structuring.

Generally speaking, notice that a lodge may be experiencing financial difficulties with their operating plan comes from the District Deputy Grand Master's report to the Grand Master. However, by the time the Committee on the Condition of Masonry has compiled their report in this regard and forwarded their comments to the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances, too much valuable time is lost.

Recommendation:

To speed the process of identifying those lodges in need of such help and to assure consistency in reporting the essential financial items, this committee is recommending a pro forma "Financial Statement for the District Deputy Grand Master's Official Visit" be added to said package. After the official visit, a copy of the statement would be sent directly to this committee so that the offer of assistance can be made in a more timely fashion to the lodges in need.

The current projects being investigated by this committee are to define the roles and responsibilities of a –

- Trustee.
- Temple Corporation Director including a review of the Corporations Act, regulations for lotteries, raffles and alcohol and liability insurance.

The first drafts of these items are currently under review by the committee, with a recommendation to the Management Committee to follow.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of committee members: M.W. Bro. W. T. Anderson; R.W. Bros. R. E. Collins, T. G. Janes, T. E. Lewis, H. E. Standish; V.W. Bro. M. N. Woodcock; and W. Bros. J. A. Noseworthy and H. Jones. The chairman thanks them for their support of sound financial Masonry in Ontario.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

T. W. HOGEBROOM, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC RELATIONS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. A. Petrisor, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Petrisor, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

During the year 2001–2002 the Committee on Public Relations worked as three separate subcommittees under the leadership of three capable Team Leaders in the persons of R.W. Bro. David Sheen (External Communications), R.W. Bro. Carl Miller (Special Events, Information and Publication), and R.W. Bro. Lorne Weaver (Internal Communications), with the Mandate being:

"To seek out all media and public relations opportunities and activities at Grand Lodge and district levels with a view to creating a better informed public on the aims and activities of the Masonic Order within our jurisdiction.

To co-ordinate all internal and external communications of a public relations nature.

To co-ordinate and promote the use of Masonic information booths and displays throughout Ontario. To develop and provide Masonic publications and paraphernalia for use and purchase by the membership."

External Communications

The goal of this subcommittee is to make Masonry more visible, seek out media opportunities, and inform the general public by encouraging lodges to play a more active communication role.

Long Range Prospectus

In aligning with the Grand Lodge Strategic Framework 2001–2006, this committee developed, presented to the Management Committee and had approved a Long Range Prospectus. Being a living document, it should provide a strong, co-ordinated public relations thrust for Grand Lodge and continuity to the future work of the committee in helping meet the goals of the aforementioned Strategic Framework.

Grand Lodge Incentive Programme

Initiated last year, the Display Incentive Programme has allowed several districts to take advantage of the one-time offer of up to $1000 on a dollar-for-dollar basis from Grand Lodge for Masonic Information Booths and paraphernalia requirements. Each D.D.G.M., from the programme's inception, has received a package of information indicating what items may be considered for their district, but they are by no means limited to just those items. It is recommended that a district obtain pre-approval for any items considered using the pre-approval form.

It may be advantageous for two or more adjacent districts, with a past history of working together, to participate together. As each district is entitled to $1000, it would allow a greater purchase than perhaps one district could manage on its own.

It is important to know that the Grand Lodge Public Relations Committee is ready and willing to aid you in developing a potential inventory, helping organize a Masonic Information Booth, and/or training those brethren who may be participating in the Masonic Information Booth.

Recommendation: All districts should take advantage of this one-time opportunity.

Press Releases

An aggressive media campaign, with the help of W. Bro. Gordon Cross of Renfrew Lodge No. 122, was orchestrated around the rededication of the cornerstone of St. Paul's Anglican Church and the lodge room mosaic pavement. Local cable television interviews were conducted with the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master and the President of the Masonic Foundation. The rededication was covered extensively by all media, including local cable T.V., C.T.V. affiliate stations and local press.

A media resources firm was engaged to formulate press releases surrounding donations by the Masonic Foundation to three research centres in Ontario with respect to the successful Help-to-Hear campaign. Districts were also offered the opportunity of inserting press releases in local weekly newspapers indicating their part in the Help-to-Hear millennium project on behalf of the many lodges in their districts based on the successful insert in the Huntsville Forester in Muskoka-Parry Sound District.

Recommendation: All D.D.G.M.s should appoint a District Public Relations coordinator as an invaluable resource in future media efforts in their districts.

Media Guide

A Media Guide and Programme to further train District/Regional Public Relations personnel is in the development stage.

Open Houses

The booklet "Masonic Information Booth Staffing Guidelines" was updated and circulated to all D.D.G.M.s along with the Display Incentive programme materials. Many copies of dispensations were received indicating planned open houses and friend-to-friend nights. These were acted upon by a member of the committee in offering whatever assistance was requested. Remember, there is no fee for this type of dispensation. Further information on open houses and friend-to-friend nights is available from the Membership Resources Brother to Brother 'Tool Kit' and from this committee at any time.

The team conducted an information booth in a 'Community Organization's' fair at Ryerson College, which was a first attempt at reaching out to students to send a message to these students, who belong to a generation that has been overshadowed by the baby boomers, that they are needed by their community and their country. This event is being considered for other college and university venues.

Use of Masonic Logo

The Ontario Funeral Directors Association has been approached with a thank you for their cooperation in the past and a request to ask their members to please use the standardized Masonic logo when publishing obituaries and also to encourage families of Masons to have the logo as a part of their loved one's obituary. They were supplied with camera-ready artwork in an electronic format.

Masonic Logo on License Plate

A business plan is now in the hands of the Ministry of Transport for their consideration and pending their approval graphic license plates with the Masonic logo will be produced and become available for purchase by interested Masons.

Postage Stamp

Canada Post has been approached with regard to the possibility of having a stamp produced to commemorate the upcoming 150th Anniversary of Grand Lodge. Canada Post has taken the proposal under advisement but will not make a decision until 2004.

Other areas being investigated are, a news clipping service to allow a compilation of Masonic news stories from across the jurisdiction, updating of the Masonic Scrapbook in a chronological sequence and giving it a more professional appearance, expansion of Grand Lodge participation in a wider range of venues.

Internal Communications

To review and improve the quality of communication instruments within the Craft as determined by Grand Lodge continues to be the team's direction.

Special Events Calendar

The usual printed Special Events calendar was dropped in favour of using the Grand Lodge website. Approximately five events were entered from each district's Trestle Board with the exception of Nipissing East District, which was not received in time. All entries appeared under the "What's Happening" subsection on the Grand Lodge web site home page. Many thanks go to V.W. Bro. George Napper for his diligence in recording all entries and forwarding to the Web Master.

A special form called "Application for Inclusion in the Event Calendar on the Web Site" was developed and sent to each D.D.G.M. for their use in passing on the information.

Recommendation: D.D.G.M.s should use this avenue to publicize visits to Home Lodges. Grand Master Receptions, Divine Services, Ladies' Nights, district events such as Golf or Curling, Barbecues, Fish and Steak Fries, Walkathons, Sunrise Services, etc.

Questionnaire

A questionnaire was provided to all D.D.G.M.s attending the annual Grand Lodge Communication asking for their comments on:

- The usefulness of the Events Calendar.
- Their use of the D.D.G.M.s Communique.
- The role of the Immediate Past D.D.G.M. in the district.
- Their involvement in the decision on the three best lodge summonses in their district.
- Their comments or ideas that might help lodges in their district to improve their summonses.

The idea behind the questionnaire was to gain important feedback and the committee was pleased with the results.

At recent seminars, the Communications Committee distributed "Guidelines for Lodge Summonses" and these are readily available from the Team Leader of Internal Communications.

Summons and Newsletter Competition

For the first time, members of the committee presented awards in the winning lodges and winning districts. Admittedly, these presentations required some travel on the part of the presenters, but the overall experience was very positive and well received by the brethren. On this basis, awards will continue to be presented in the winning lodges and districts rather than at Grand Lodge.

Congratulations go to the following winners of the competition for this Masonic year:

The committee is available to any lodge to discuss the summons and assist in improving the content and presentation of the material in creating a lively and interesting summons. All lodges have members who are unable to attend due to health, distance, hearing, etc., and the summons may provide the only means by which they can keep in touch and know what is happening in their lodge.

Special Events, Information and Publication

Ongoing activities continue to be coordinating the use of Masonic Booths and distribution of publications and materials.

Plowing Match and Fairs

The International Plowing Match held at Navan, near Ottawa, September 18 to 22, 2001, provided the opportunity to use the new larger marquee (approximately 50 ft by 30 ft in size) to give Masonry more of an inviting presence. The usual Meet and Greet with the Grand Master, held on Thursday afternoon of the Plowing Match, offered an opportunity for Masons attending to personally acquaint themselves with the Grand Master.

Recommendation: When attending the Plowing Match seek out the marquee and come in with your friends to view the many displays, have a cup of tea or coffee and visit with the Masons who are manning the booth.

Again, this committee was involved in several fairs in the following locations: Beeton, Elmvale, Beaverton, Markham, Sutton, and the Western Fair in London, and also the Elvis Tribute and Variety Show. Masons had a presence in several Santa Claus parades, such as in Beeton (First Prize), Sutton, Mount Albert and Keswick, and Blood Donor clinics in Mount Albert and Sutton.

The booklet "Masonic Information Booth Staffing Guidelines" is provided with every request from Grand Lodge for a display booth. This booklet includes extensive information on the organization of the booth, conduct, dress code and a series of typical questions that might be asked by a non-Mason along with proposed answers.

Lodges of Instruction

The committee was asked to participate at all Lodges of Instruction by making available for sale all Grand Lodge publications, books, and other miscellaneous items such as the new audio tape "What is Freemasonry" and the Friend to Friend video "Freemasonry in Ontario." In addition, some districts this year invited the team in for a similar purpose at Installations and Official Visits.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee members: R.W. Bros. David Sheen (Team Leader), D. Conway, T. Cook, B. DeLisle, D. Hawman; V. W. Bros. D. Bell, T. Morris, G. ## REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. H. Hazlitt, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hazlitt, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is a privilege to present this report on behalf of the following members of the Education Committee: M.W. Bro. David C. Bradley; R.W. Bros. Raymond S. J. Daniels, Michael J. Diamond (Secretary), Gordon T. Grieve, Alred L. Morrow, Paul Todd (Sub-Chairman, The Newsletter), Colin Webster, Bruce N. Whitmore (Vice-Chairman); V.W. Bros. Donald J. Banks, Don Fick (Sub-Chairman, Publications), Sydney S. Lowe (Sub-Chairman, Correspondence Courses); W. Bros. Iain Mackenzie and Gordon Walker.

"The roots of education are sometimes bitter, but the fruits are sweet."

The committee's focus this Masonic year was to 'tidy-up' outstanding loose ends and to bring previous projects to fruition. These initiatives have been accomplished with the capable assistance of committee members and the cooperative efforts of other committee chairmen, i.e. Computer Resources and Discipline.

A pleasing balance existed among the members of the committee: those who returned to the table in order to continue their journey and those who came on board with fresh ideas and enthusiasm, as we endeavored to place Masonic knowledge into the hands of the brethren.

As well, it is the express desire of this committee to maintain a proactive line of communication with each D.D.G.M. and the District and Lodge Chairmen of Education. Accordingly, contact was made with all District Chairmen, either directly or via their respective D.D.G.M.s, informing them of existing programmes, sources of information, and offers of assistance by request.

Guidelines for the Examination of the Master Elect

This document was prepared to assist the Senior Warden in his preparation for the office of Worshipful Master, and also to guide the Examining Committee prior to his installation. The guidelines were printed at the Grand Lodge Office and forwarded to this chairman for distribution: one copy to each of the D.D.G.M.s with instructions to forward copies to each of his lodges. This document is an expert compilation of Masonic knowledge intended to have 'no shelf life.' When queried by one of the D.D.G.M.s as to availing this guideline as part of a lodge's education programme, the response was an emphatic 'Yes, by all means.'

The Newsletter

First and foremost, the committee wishes to recognize its previous chairman, R.W. Bro. Garry Dowling, for his role in initiating the revitalization of this publication. This was not accomplished without a great deal of personal sacrifice on his behalf.

Past difficulties appear to have been overcome and "The Newsletter" is now running smoothly under the guidance of its Publisher, R.W. Bro. Paul Todd; the Editor, W. Bro. Michael Jenkyns; and an Editorial Board consisting of R.W. Bros. Raymond S.J. Daniels and Michael Woolley, and W. Bro. Iain Mackenzie. Presently, R.W. Bro. Garry Dowling continues to handle subscriptions, production, and mailings.

The challenge of "The Newsletter" is to provide knowledge about Freemasonry in Ontario and the team relies on articles from all Masons in the jurisdiction, regardless of whether they are subscribing members to the publication. Two visions are evident:

- (a) To produce – quarterly and on time – an exciting, well-written and informative newsletter of Canadian content.
- (b) To insure readership and to expand the contributor base.

Contacts in 18 of the 46 districts have been developed and used to encourage subscriptions and articles. Many districts have their own 'newsletters' published under a variety of names and many are using material directly from "The Newsletter" – an activity that is being encouraged.

The published material is there for the Masons of Ontario, and non-Masons for that matter. This publication, too, is intended to have little or 'no shelf life.'

The College of Freemasonry Correspondence Course

During the period April 2001 to April 2002, forty-three new students enrolled in the four-part course and there were ten continuing students. We congratulate and applaud the following five brethren who have been admitted as Fellows of the College of Freemasonry:

Anderson, Wayne D.	Prince Arthur Lodge No. 228	Frontenac District
Arnold, David	Prince Arthur Lodge No. 334	Grey District
Braeuel, Christopher	Doric Lodge No. 58	Ottawa District 1
Mitchell, Jean Guy	St. John's Lodge No. 63	Ottawa District 1
Robertson, Kenneth B.	Caledonian Lodge No. 249	Georgian North District

The rewriting of Sections 409-425 of the Book of Constitution (2001) relating to "Rules Respecting Trials for Masonic Offences," necessitated a complete overhaul of the Student Question section, as well as the Mentor's Answer Guide as it related to the 'Masonry At Work' section of the course. Both of these have been approved by the Discipline Committee and course content has been adjusted accordingly.

The District Deputy Grand Master's Course

During the period April 2001 to April 2002, fifty-one new students enrolled in the course, with two continuing students. As well, thirty-three certificates of completion have been issued. There is no question as to the value and benefits reaped from this course by its participants. As these brethren increase their Masonic awareness, so, too, will their respective districts receive the benefit of their newly acquired skills and knowledge.

Both of these courses offer a quality learning experience for the brethren under expert mentors. Laurels go to those brethren who tirelessly work in the background on our behalf. Also, our thanks are extended to V.W. Bro. Syd Lowe and W. Bro. Gord Walker for their continuing dedication and commitment to the administration of these courses.

Grand Lodge Book Sales

The committee extends sincere appreciation to V.W. Bro. Don Fick and his assistants who manage the Education Committee's booth at the Annual Communication. Sales netted approximately $3,000 in 2001.

Technological Assistance for the Visually Impaired

Because of a combined effort with the Computer Resources Committee, this project has been brought to light again, with encouraging results in view. We offer an appreciation to R.W. Bro. Brian Bond for his comprehensive report to the Management Committee, on our behalf, seeking approval to produce audio tapes of the Book of the Work to assist our visually impaired brethren. Approval was given to produce ten CD's containing the Book of the Work and the Constitution, password protected, pending approval by Grand Lodge of the necessary Constitutional change. These CD's are to be made available on signed and sealed application by the Master of the lodge through the D.D.G.M. We thank R.W. Bro. Ian Nichols, Past Grand Senior Warden, and Bro. Northcott, CNIB, for consenting to assist with technical support for a properly formatted product.

Summary

When a man knocks at the door of Masonry and is admitted, it is only natural that his thirst for knowledge is quenched. He has a right to expect that his lodge will teach him the forms and ceremonies. He has a right to expect, at the very least, that he will be provided with sources to find answers to his many questions. But, then, this is a right of ALL Masons. The adage that 'a well informed Mason is a better Mason' could not be closer to the truth. We have a wealth of Masonic knowledge before us, but are probably only 'skimming the surface' when it comes to actually consuming and digesting that information. Your Masonic Education Committee will address ways of becoming more pro-actively involved in district and lodge education programmes. We must find ways to get 'most of the information into the hands of most of the brethren, most of the time.'

Appreciation

During the course of the year, your Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education responded to several queries and requests for information. It is always gratifying to hear from the D.D.G.M.s and district and lodge chairmen and provide assistance where possible. The committee wishes to extend an appreciation to the Waterloo and Scarborough Temple Boards for allowing this Grand Lodge committee to meet in their facility. We also appreciate the services and support offered by the Grand Secretary and his staff. And, finally, as chairman of this committee and on behalf of its members, I thank the Grand Master for the opportunity of being able to assist in 'brightening the Light of Masonry' for the brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

GREG. H. HAZLITT, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND JURISPRUDENCE

This Report was presented by V.W. Bro. F. Halpern, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by V.W. Bro. Halpern, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your committee has received five Notices of Motion for consideration and begs leave to report thereon.

1. Section 390 of the Book of Constitution was amended in 1986 to clearly define the emblems on the apron of the Master. (These emblems are not "levels" but consist of perpendicular lines upon horizontal lines, thereby forming three sets of two right angles.)

Section 395(a)(iv), Section 397(a)(iv), Section 399(a)(iv), and Section 401(a)(v) were never corrected at that time and still call the emblems "levels".

To be consistent with Section 390 of the Book of Constitution: Section 395(a)(iv), Section 397(a)(iv), Section 399(a)(iv) and Section 401(a)(v) should be amended to remove the word "levels" and in its stead should be the word "emblems". This will make all applicable sections dealing with the Apron of Masters, present and past Very Worshipful Grand Lodge Officers and present and past Right Worshipful Grand Lodge Officers consistent.

It is therefore proposed that Section 395(a)(iv), Section 397(a)(iv), Section 399(a)(iv) and Section 401(a)(v) be amended to read as follows:

Section 395(a)(iv) Three metallic gold-finished emblems (as described in Section 390) shall be attached, and the two emblems on the lambskin shall be mounted on a garter blue background, the edges of which background shall show very slightly beyond the edges of the emblems. Embroidered emblems of gold metallics may be used, if desired, in which case no garter blue background is required.

Section 397(a)(iv) Three metallic gold-finished emblems (as described in Section 390) shall be attached, and the two emblems on the lambskin shall be mounted on a garter blue background, the edges of which background shall show very slightly beyond the edges of the emblems.

Section 399(a)(iv) Three metallic gold-finished emblems (as described in Section 390) shall be attached, and the two emblems on the lambskin shall be mounted on a garter blue background, the edges of which background shall show very slightly beyond the edges of the emblems. Embroidered emblems of gold metallics may be used, if desired, in which case no garter blue background is required.

Section 401(a)(v) Three metallic gold-finished emblems (as described in Section 390) shall be attached, and the two emblems on the lambskin shall be mounted on a garter blue background, the edges of which background shall show very slightly beyond the edges of the emblems.

Your committee finds this proposal regular.

2. The second proposal is that PART II, Section 223 of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario be amended to become Section 223, subsection (a) and that Section 223, subsection (b) read as follows:

Section 223 (b) Any member nominated for any Officer position mentioned in Section 223(a) will be elected by acclamation if he is the only nominee for that position thereby making a written ballot unnecessary.

Your committee finds this proposal contrary to Section 222 of the Book of Constitution and therefore finds this proposal irregular.

3. The third proposal relates to the wearing of jewels (Section 384) and reads as follows:

Amend the current Section 384 to become Section 384(a) and add Section 384(b) to read: At any lodge which holds an annual Remembrance Service before, during, or after their November meeting, all brethren may wear military, or civil orders, decorations, or medals to which they are entitled, and the traditional poppy, in memoriam of those who have paid the supreme sacrifice and in recognition of honourable and valuable service to the Crown and Canada.

Your committee finds this proposal regular.

4. The fourth proposal relates to Section 4 and reads as follows:

THAT: Section 4 of the Constitution be amended by adding the words "and the Province is divided into several Masonic districts."

The revised section would read:

4. Grand Lodge has Masonic jurisdiction throughout the territorial limits of the Province of Ontario and the Province is divided into several Masonic districts.

Your committee finds this proposal regular.

5. The fifth and final proposed amendment is to Section 281 which currently reads:

No recording of any Masonic ceremony may be made or used except the musical accompaniment thereof.

The proposed amendment would delete the section in its entirety and substitute the following:

281. No Masonic ritual or part thereof, except its musical accompaniment shall be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, recording or otherwise without the express consent of the Grand Master on the recommendation of the Ritual Committee.

Your committee finds this proposal regular.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

FREDERICK HALPERN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE BLOOD DONORS' COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. P. W. Hooper, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hooper, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers, and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present this report on behalf of the Members of the Blood Donors Committee. This committee is comprised of the following members: R.W. Bro. Roy Harrison (Vice-Chairman), V.W. Bro. ### Total Donations

1995	14,106	1997	14,684	1999	21,564	2001	24,205

CONGRATULATIONS TO EVERYONE INVOLVED! The great news is that we have once again exceeded our highest total and set a new record for donations from this Grand Lodge with a total of 29,300 units. This is due to the efforts of a great many people, especially at the district and lodge level. A recent report from the Canadian Blood Services indicated that the need for blood increases on the average of 8% per year and the donations increase an average of 4% per year. Our donations this year went up 21%.

Congratulations are extended to all of the districts for their hard work. Again this year Ontario District has made the most donations and a special thank you goes to R.W. Bro. Ron Wallace (D.D.G.M.), R.W. Bro. William Henshall (District Chairman) and all the Masons of Ontario District. Their total for the year was 3,316 donations. This is also a new district donation record. Algoma District (under the Chairmanship of R.W. Bro. Gary Bloomfield with R.W. Bro. James Kingston as the D.D.G.M.) also exceeded the previous district record and totaled 3,231 donations.

These two districts were very close in totals and the interesting part of it is that they obtained their totals by two different methods. Ontario District gets their numbers by sponsoring many Blood Donor Clinics. Algoma District gets theirs by participating in a Community Plasma Challenge. These methods are two examples of different ways other districts can get involved in promoting the giving of "The Gift of Life."

There are other shining examples of the results of hard work. Wellington and Hamilton "B" Districts both exceeded 2,000 donations this year and are to be congratulated. The greatest district increase was in Temiskaming District, where they went from 199 donations last year to 1,271 this year.

Blood Donor Certificates

This committee has always recognized outstanding Masons who have donated in excess of 100 units of whole blood or plasma. The Canadian Blood Services currently recognizes donors with many fewer donations. It was felt that we should do the same. We received permission to recognize Masonic Donors who have exceeded 50 donations and are proud this year to do so.

Each year every D.D.G.M. and District Chairman submit their yearly reports to the Grand Lodge committee. Included on those reports is an area for Outstanding Donors. That is the only place this committee can get this information. If it is not listed on the district report, we cannot find out about it. Certificates will be made in the names of all those whose names have been included in the District Reports and will be given to the D.D.G.M.s at Grand Lodge for presentation to the recipients.

I am proud to present the following list of Outstanding Masonic Donors, as submitted to this committee.

Canadian Blood Services

A few years ago, the responsibility for collecting blood and blood by-products in Canada was removed from the Red Cross and taken over by the Canadian Blood Services. Relations were immediately commenced between the Canadian Blood Services and this committee, thanks mostly to the efforts of our late Vice-Chairman, R.W. Bro. Paul McNeil. The C.B.S. has experienced some growing pains, but our relations continue to improve. They have been extremely generous with their supplies and assistance over the years. This year, representatives from the C.B.S. have been invited to all of our committee meetings and several have attended and participated and we have been very appreciative of their attention and support. This has greatly assisted our members in getting the proper information and has also assisted the C.B.S. in understanding our organization and helping us. There are two members of the C.B.S. who deserve our most heartfelt thanks and appreciation. Sue Harris and Janine Armstrong (who are both recruitment coordinators) have attended all of our meetings. They have been the ones who have been responsible for the great relations between this committee and the Canadian Blood Services and I hope and anticipate that this support will continue in the future.

This year, we ran out of our Blood Donor pamphlets and budgeted for more. At one of our meetings the C.B.S. representatives volunteered to design, manufacture and pay for new Grand Lodge Blood Donor pamphlets. This has saved our Grand Lodge over $1,700. The pamphlets have been produced and are now in the possession of this committee and are being distributed. On April 9, 2002, the C.B.S. held a Media Day in Toronto and the theme was "Journey of Blood." We were asked if we would like to attend. The "Ontario Mason" magazine was contacted and the editor (R.W. Bro. David Dainard) attended along with members of this committee to do a story and take photos. They followed a first-time Masonic donor through the donation process. I would like to thank R.W. Bro. William Thompson (P.G.S.W. – Member of the Board of General Purposes) for volunteering to be that first-time Masonic Donor.

Overview

This committee has continued to move its meetings around the province as far as possible. This has enabled the local representatives to attend and participate in our discussions. The input of the local District Chairmen, as well as the D.D.G.M.s, has been very valuable to our deliberations.

There is a great discrepancy in donation numbers between the districts who are doing very well and those who are not. This year, this committee decided at the beginning of the year, to concentrate on giving assistance to those districts that had low donation numbers last year. Several districts were identified as needing assistance and members of this committee were assigned to communicate with the D.D.G.M.s of those districts and with the District Chairmen and attempt to assist them. There was a particular push put on in Toronto Districts 1 – 5. R.W. Bro. Roy Harrison was assigned to help them out in any way he could. With the willing help of all of the D.D.G.M.s and District Chairmen of the Toronto Districts, great strides were made. Districts 3 – 7 all showed increases in numbers. Districts 1 and 2 organized Blood Donor Clinics that did not occur until after the March 31st deadline, so their increase in numbers will show up next year. This is truly one of the success stories of the year.

There are a number of districts who change their District Blood Donor Chairmen each year in July. This makes it difficult, as the donation year is already half over by then. The new chairman takes some time to get fully involved in the job and has a hard time collecting numbers at the end of the year. Lodges that continually change their chairmen, or have a chairman in name only, just exacerbate this problem. This inevitably results in lower donation numbers. I don't believe that these lower numbers can be attributed totally to fewer donations, but to incomplete accounting of our numbers. We still have a major problem in counting all our donations in certain districts, and it is not coincidental that these districts are usually the ones who continually change their chairmen. Another problem reported by several D.D.G.M.s was the difficulty in obtaining donation numbers from some of the lodges. It is imperative that the lodges also appoint qualified, eager men as Lodge Blood Donor Chairmen.

Conclusion and Recommendation

Due to our aging membership, it is becoming more and more important for our members to assist the C.B.S. by having friends and family donate on their behalf and by hosting Blood Donor Clinics. Our ever-increasing donation numbers are evidence of the importance of hosting clinics and it is imperative that we continue to do so.

In order to assist those districts that are low in donation numbers, it is very important to have consistency in the chairmanships of the Blood Donor Committees at the district level and at the lodge level. Being a District Chairman is a very important job and shouldn't be given out just to be a name on the Trestle Board. This committee recommends to the D.D.G.M.s that once they get a hard working Blood Donor Chairman, they should consider keeping him on for a few years to develop a system within their districts. It is also essential to have lodge chairmen who are interested in doing the job properly. With all these pieces in place, the districts will start to increase their numbers, as many have in the past few years. It is not something that comes all at once. In the words of the Blood Donor Chairman of our most successful District, R.W. Bro. Bill Henshall, "You can't expect to get the big numbers right away. You must start with baby steps and continue from there and (most importantly) don't get discouraged. Work hard and the numbers will come."

Submitted on behalf of the Blood Donors' Committee.

REPORT OF THE MASONIC FOUNDATION OF ONTARIO

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It was my privilege yesterday morning, July 16, 2002, to report on behalf of the Board of Directors to the Thirty-ninth Annual Meeting of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario, held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, Ontario.

Highlights of activities in the various programs last year form a part of the Foundation's Annual Report. I encourage you to read each section to gain a full appreciation of the charitable work undertaken by the Foundation in our communities on your behalf.

The Foundation's continuing success is the direct result of the combined efforts and willing participation of the members of the Board of Directors and the Committee Chairmen. These gentlemen personify the true meaning of Masonic charity. Two such Masons retired at the end of yesterday's meeting. Wayne Nelson served as a Director from 1990; and Dr. Alan Newell, who was first elected a Director in 1982, served the Foundation in various capacities for the past twenty years, including Secretary and President. The Foundation thanks both for their many years of service and devotion.

Regretfully, the Foundation lost three other stalwarts this past year with the deaths of

T. John Arthur, William T. Anderson and Clarence A. Bell. Jack served as Secretary-Treasurer during the Foundation's formative years and period of steady growth; he also served as President during a crucial time in the Foundation's evolution into the organization that we respect today. Bill served as a Director both prior to and following his tenure as Grand Master. Bert served five years as a Director and liaison officer with Parents Against Drugs. The Foundation was very important to these three eminent Masons, and their commitment to, and efforts on behalf of, the Masonic Foundation will be greatly missed.

The close working relationship between Grand Lodge and the Masonic Foundation was bonded even tighter this past year by the support given to the Foundation by M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, Grand Master. His promotion of the Foundation's programs and his message that Districts get involved in charitable activities at the local level in partnership with the Foundation blend well with the Foundation's long-standing initiative to take Masonic charity to the grassroots.

I am pleased to inform you that the total raised for "HELP-2-HEAR" was $2,127,025. Many persons, both within and outside the Craft, made this achievement possible – too many to be thanked personally, so I do so collectively. Several, however, must be singled out, because it was the untiring efforts of M.W. Bros. Robert J. McKibbin and C. Edwin Drew and his HELP-2-HEAR Committee that ensured the Campaign's success.

With the Campaign ended, the next step was even more important to the cause we undertook – supporting worthy research to assist hearing-impaired infants. In March, commitments of a minimum of three years and contributions totaling $105,000 annually were given to support research being undertaken at the following centres: National Centre for Audiology, University of Western Ontario, to establish objective measures of hearing sensitivity in infants that will provide valid estimates of real-speech output and enable the proper fitting of fully-digital hearing aids; the University of Ottawa and the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario to identify individual, instructional, social, demographic and cultural variances which influence the development of language and literacy in children with hearing impairment; and the University of Toronto and the Hospital for Sick Children, to undertake a neuro-imaging study to identify how the auditory processing pathways in the cortex are affected by hearing loss and by hearing prostheses, such as hearing aids and cochlear implants.

A major challenge faced by the Masonic Foundation this past year has been to retain the aura experienced over the two previous years of the HELP-2-HEAR Campaign. This challenge was met by concentrating on the various other on-going programs and by emphasizing the need to portray Masonic charity in our local communities through support of worthy District projects. The Foundation supported these other programs in the amount of $295,000. Several are aimed at youth who require assistance to cope with financial stress, or an affliction, such as a hearing impairment or Autism, or combating peer pressure to experiment with drugs. Bursaries totaling $80,400 were granted to 100 qualifying university and college students, an increase of 20% over the previous year; $50,000 went to Project H.E.L.P. hearing research; $95,000 to peer education drug awareness programs; $25,000 to VOICE for Hearing Impaired Children; $20,000 to Kerry's Place Homes for Autistic youth; and $11,000 to individual cases of special need. Other support went to groups of youth who do not face similar daily trials in life, but who, by their interest in mankind, will be in the forefront in making the world better for future generations – not citizens of "tomorrow," but rather citizens of today, actively working for a better tomorrow for everyone. Youth organizations such as Scouts Canada, Canadian 4-H and DeMolay received $13,000 for special projects undertaken within Ontario. In addition, the Foundation partnered with eight Districts in projects having a total combined target of $76,500. Two support Prostate Cancer Research; others include support for a kidney dialysis unit and a neonatal unit, and assistance to cancer survivors, children with cancer, visually impaired children and families affected by Autism.

Unrestricted net assets at March 31, 2002, totaled $7,218,075, an increase of $809,000 from a year earlier, reflecting to a large extent the wrap-up of the Millennium Project. It is pleasing to note that donations continued to come in following conclusion of HELP-2-HEAR. Yellow Envelopes contributed $24,000 and another $14,000 came from other member and lodge donations. Memorial donations contributed a further $10,500. Interest earned last year on capital investment was approximately $431,000 and bequests from nine estates totaled $102,129.

The Masonic Foundation has grown much in substance and stature since its founding 38 years ago. Continued success, however, cannot be taken for granted. Over the past year, the Directors developed a Strategic Framework focusing on three key areas: Charitable Programs, and the satisfaction of our "clients"; Supplier Satisfaction, and the satisfaction of our donors and supporters; and Operating Efficiency, and satisfaction with the administration of the Foundation. This plan provides the alignment, focus and operating strategies the Foundation wishes to achieve, as well as the projects and goals necessary to accomplish those results.

Annual "Yellow Envelope" campaigns, other individual contributions and special province-wide and local campaigns have brought the Foundation to the level where it can distribute nearly half a million dollars annually to support those who need special help not otherwise available. To meet the growing need for such assistance, however, the Foundation must promote modern methods of fund raising. The Foundation will soon be distributing a revised pamphlet on "Planned Giving," explaining the advantages to the members of including the Masonic Foundation in their estate planning.

Your Foundation is developing a program to help celebrate the 150th Anniversary of Grand Lodge and promote the principles of Freemasonry. More details will be coming soon – stay tuned!

Charity is a cornerstone of Freemasonry. Your Masonic Foundation is the vehicle to carry charity to those in the community who need a helping hand from someone they might never know – the good act given without thought of personal benefit, but given solely for the cause of good.

It is my privilege to preside over the Foundation as its custodian on your behalf, as it is . . .

Your Masonic Foundation of Ontario . . .

Your legacy for the betterment of future generations.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Directors and Officers of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario.

Ronald K. Campbell, President

by M.W. Bro. George Cull, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Newfoundland and Labrador (wording transcribed above).

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. G. Dowling, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Dowling, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The committee has reviewed the reports of all District Deputy Grand Masters for 2000–2001 and presents the following observations and recommendations:

Membership

Overall membership is still declining and there remains a significant number of Past Masters in progressive chairs. However, many lodges are reporting an increase in new members. Leadership is being addressed in our five-year plan, but it remains incumbent on lodges to identify and nurture prospective candidates.

Point-in-time membership related data is not necessarily indicative of lodge problems. It would be more useful if combined with historical data as a possible indicator of developing trends. In fact, some of the point-in-time data provided in D.D.G.M.s reports is inconsistent with that in semiannual returns; the latter is assumed to be more accurate.

Recommendations

- 1) Assistance and training for succession planning must be provided to lodges.
- 2) The latest membership data from the semiannual returns ought to be available as a backdrop for the Condition of Masonry Committee to review point-in-time data from the D.D.G.M. reports and assemble a more accurate membership picture, as well as to identify developing trends.

Visitation and Special Events

The committee observed that, very simply, healthy lodges visit! The vibrancy of a lodge can also be reflected in its special events. Special events and visitations needing team commitment and involving a reasonable proportion of lodge membership are the ones that fuel the important 'sense of fraternity.' From the checklist of options available – birthdays, anniversaries, Masonic education and ladies' nights were the most common 'special' event responses. With only the information as prompted by the list, the committee found it impossible to determine how successful those events were in contributing to the 'sense of fraternity.'

Requests For Assistance

Very few lodges seek assistance, yet, in some instances, the responses to other questions indicated that the lodge could benefit from some form of counsel, advice or hands-on help. It is disturbing to note that, when assistance has been requested, the committee is unable to ascertain whether it was, in fact, provided, if the response was timely and whether, or not, it was beneficial. While remaining loyal to the principle of lodge 'autonomy,' District and Grand Lodge committees, which offer assistance, need to be more effective in communicating their service capabilities.

Recommendation

A formal process must ensure that when assistance is requested, it is provided in a timely manner, at the right level, in the right form and without infringing on lodge autonomy. The committee notes that an informal process has been implemented this year under the direction of the Deputy Grand Master.

Lodge and Banquet Room Facilities

Lodge rooms and banquet facilities reflect the pride that the brethren take in their meeting places. Although lodge and banquet facilities appear to be satisfactorily maintained, the cost of upkeep of lodge buildings remains a serious issue for some.

Summons

Generally speaking, most lodges conform to the technical requirements of the summons. The committee noted that only a very small number of responses indicate that the summons is not informative.

Grand Lodge Programmes

Again this year, the committee finds the effectiveness of many Grand Lodge programmes difficult to measure from the information provided. Large numbers of lodges report that they are 'using' the programmes, but positive responses do not provide a time frame for reference, or data on the actual applications. These programmes were created and delivered in direct response to identified needs. They often reflect the 'best practices' of highly successful lodges. As such, their contribution to the future of this jurisdiction is crucial. Effective communication of these programmes by the various Grand Lodge committees must continue, but the ultimate benefits of these programmes can only be obtained by conscious and concerted efforts on the part of individual lodge leaders to implement them appropriately in their lodges.

At the lodge level, there remains a perception of 'overlap' that is impeding the effectiveness of individual programmes.

Programmes are directed to certain target audiences, but the feedback mechanisms follow a much different path. Only the ultimate 'consumer' is truly capable of measuring the benefits. For example, to find out how effective the Mentor's programme is, we need to ask the candidate himself.

Recommendations

- 1) Efforts being made to address the issue of perception of programmes 'overlapping' must be continued.
- 2) A questionnaire be developed for distribution with the Grand Lodge Certificate in order to solicit feedback on specific programmes that have the new Mason as a target audience.

Maintenance of Lodge Records

The computerization of Secretary's records is on the rise, however, there is no corresponding trend for lodge financial records. The committee noted that, according to the reports, 100% of all lodge records are 'well-maintained' – and thus wonders about the definition of 'well-maintained.' Computerized minutes are not being archived according to the constitution (or even archived at all) and this must be corrected. Embracing technology in the maintenance of lodge records is a must. The critical and irreplaceable nature of computerized lodge records must be reflected in processes and procedures for the proper maintenance, archiving, backup and recovery of those records.

Recommendation

A set of "Guidelines" for the maintenance of computerized lodge records be established to address such issues as ownership of computers housing lodge records, backup and recovery, off-site storage, security, upward compatibility of software (ability to access 'old' records), durability of the ink and paper used for hard copy versions, etc.

Finances and Long Range Planning

Finances continue to be an issue in many lodges, as increasing costs are spread across a decreased membership base. Support of large, aging buildings continues to be a financial drain. As dues information is current only, the committee finds it difficult to report on trends. Many lodges are marginally overspending (e.g. cashing G.I.C.s into the general fund). There are still a large percentage of the lodges that operate without an annual budget. Long range planning, and the use of a 5-year plan, are processes still absent in the vast majority of lodges. One item for concern is the number of lodges that report having Life Members, yet have no Life Membership Account. Lodges seem to be offering an increasing variety of dues 'discounting' (early payment, over 55, over 65, etc.), but the data available does not enable the committee to determine either the reason for, or the result of, such activity. Most lodges are now including a financial statement for the D.D.G.M.s reports, but some do not reflect a 'fiscal' year. Many lodges are carrying members in arrears, some with large dollar amounts. The Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances continues to offer assistance, when called on, and lodges should make more use of these skilled resources.

Recommendations

- 1) Continuing emphasis must be placed on sound fiscal management.
- 2) The Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances should continue to develop, and make available, financial reporting and budgeting templates for use by lodges (especially the identification of a cost-per-member figure).
- 3) Budgeting must be strongly encouraged and budget information must be made available to all members of the lodge.
- 4) Lodge officers must be encouraged to take a more active interest in lodge finances and training in lodge finances should be an essential part of their leadership development.
- 5) The non-financial aspects of long range planning must be emphasized, even to the extent that long range planning is 'decoupled' completely from finances. Direction setting, with appropriate goals, objectives and plans is important to the future of a lodge and reference to the 'Brother-to-Brother' Toolkit, for suggestions in this area, should be encouraged.

Amalgamations

Amalgamations continue to be a reflection of the times. It is worthy of note, however, that lodges willing to accept amalgamation as a viable option are finding that skilled resources are available to assist with the process. Furthermore, although no one wants to give up their 'identity,' in those situations where egos are set aside, positive results, leading to a stronger overall Masonic 'community,' are being achieved.

Quality of Work and Protocol

Last year's report on the Condition of Masonry indicated that the quality of the Work and protocol ranged from excellent to weak and needed overall improvement. The D.D.G.M.s reports for 2000–2001 indicated similar findings. Protocol, especially at the banquet hour, is rapidly eroding such that proposing and responding to a simple toast now seems to be a major challenge. There is a big difference between being 'informal' and the complete lack of protocol. Lodges of Instruction are extremely valuable in helping to retain the 'edge,' but, unfortunately, they are poorly attended and do not always draw the intended audience. A correlation between the quality of the Work and visitations was noted again, as it was last year, with visitations providing both the impetus to 'do,' and the desire to 'see,' quality work.

Changes in the Work and protocol are always made for the betterment of the Craft. Past Masters and Grand Lodge Officers, as leaders in the Craft, must know, and show, the 'right' way – even if that is different from what it was 'way back when.' The 'neophyte mason' survey conducted some years ago indicated that our newer, and younger, brethren placed high value on attention to the quality of the Work and protocol.

Recommendations

- 1) Continued efforts must be made to restore the pride that comes with striving for quality in all aspects of our Work and proceedings.
- 2) District Deputy Grand Masters should be encouraged to provide opportunities for 'formality' as well as times to be informal.

Help-To-Hear Project

The ingenuity, determination, and hard work put forth by the brethren around the jurisdiction in supporting the Help-2-Hear project were exceptional. District Deputy Grand Masters reported that, in many cases, individual lodge and district projects provided the catalyst to unite the members in a drive towards a common goal.

Footnote: As an extension to its review and analysis of the reports, the committee has proposed that two new sessions be held during the Annual Convocation: one to review the summary reports with the District Deputy Grand Masters as an adjunct to the meetings of the Board of General Purposes on Monday afternoon and another to review the District Deputy Grand Masters' reporting forms with interested lodge secretaries – as part of the seminars and workshops held Tuesday afternoon. The objective is to provide an improved evaluation of the state of the Craft through the use of face-to-face sessions that allow this committee to augment the written reports with timelier and indepth information. The committee is enthusiastically preparing for these first-time sessions with much optimism.

The committee wishes to acknowledge the efforts of our lodge secretaries, district secretaries and D.D.G.M.s in the completion of the reports that are so valuable in helping to set the future direction of many Grand Lodge programmes. The committee is also grateful to the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, and his staff for their assistance during the year.

This report is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee members: R.W. Bros. D. E. F. (Gus) Gracey, Paul A. James, Robert Lancaster, Robert McKee, Edward (Ted) Rutter and Frankland M. Wilson, together with V.W. Bros. Ian B. Dale and Tom Lloyd.

REPORT OF THE COMPUTER RESOURCES COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. B. E. Bond, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bond, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Meetings

Committee meetings were held in Barrie, Nilestown and Toronto during the past year. The District Representatives were invited to attend and the minutes of these meetings were shared with them.

Other Members of Committee

Vice Chair, V.W. Bro. George Napper; Secretary, V.W. Bro. Peter Nuttall; Webmaster, W. Bro. James Kirk-White; R.W. Bro. Douglas Conway, R.W. Bro. Ronald Eveson, R.W. Bro. Robert Manz, W. Bro. Donald Reekie, W. Bro. Kris Nickerson and the District Representatives for the 46 Districts.

Communication

Due to many comments about the value of the information contained in our meeting minutes, it was decided to include the D.D.G.M. of each district as a recipient. This was instituted in April 2002.

Delivery of Summons via E-mail

By direction of the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, a test of one year, will be commenced in the Spring of 2002, for the delivery of summonses by the use of the internet. Each participating lodge will be trained in the use of the software which will allow the summons to be received in exactly the form in which it was created and protected via the use of a password so that any personal data, such as phone numbers, addresses and other personal information is secured and available only to the proper recipient. The three districts chosen for the test after consultation with the individual District Deputy Grand Masters are: Prince Edward District, Toronto District 4 and Waterloo District. Training sessions on the importance of security and the proper method of preparation for transmission and reception were held in all three districts on May 11 and 25, 2002.

It was made clear that only those three districts mentioned above were permitted to participate in the test and if another lodge of the district, not previously identified as one of the test lodges, wished to join the test, then they may start using this delivery system as soon as they had been instructed in the proper methods.

Book of the Work and Constitution

The planning for the creation of the CD containing the Book of the Work and Constitution, subject to approval of the proposed amendment to the Constitution to be presented by R.W. Bro. Runciman, is being undertaken by members of this committee and other Masons who have connection to the C.N.I.B. The C.N.I.B. has proven formats for the organization of electronic data so that we need not re-invent the wheel in the course of this project. This CD is available only to those members who are blind or near-blind and cannot read the Book of the Work or the Constitution. The lodge must apply on behalf of their member on lodge letterhead, signed by the Master and properly sealed, forwarded through the D.D.G.M. to Grand Lodge. It is expected that the product will be available before the end of November 2002, if the constitutional change is approved.

Seminars

The three Computer Resources seminars which were held this year at Nilestown, Toronto and Dryden were enhanced by the use of computer projectors and Microsoft PowerPoint Presentation software. The subjects of discussion included the keeping and preserving of computer-generated minutes, internet and the summons, lodge finance programming and templates available, database templates for membership records, printers: pitfalls and assets, scanners: care and feeding for graphics and text conversion, as well as other items introduced during the question and answer sessions following the presentations. On behalf of the committee, I wish to thank the responsible members of those temples where the seminars were held and all those that did the word-of-mouth advertising to make each presentation a success.

Lodge Programming

This year, the committee distributed a collection of lodge related programming and templates on CD, rather than the floppy disk set used in the past. This was prompted by the larger space available on a CD and the widely accepted use of this medium. The cost of producing a CD is less than that of the floppy set and allows for expansion for many years. A copy of the CD was delivered to each District Representative just after Grand Lodge in July 2001 and an update of the disk was sent in January 2002. Contained on the CD are:

- Acrobat Reader 5.0 – Full installation programme
- Lodge Finance Programmes – Microsoft Excel and Quicken files
- Helpful Utilities – Some DOS graphic conversion programmes
- Masonic Graphics – Square and Compasses files, etc.
- Microsoft Applications – Templates for dues card creation, summons, etc
- Microsoft Works – Some templates for database, summons, etc
- Zip Programs – PKZIP270 and WINZIP.
- Spygraphic A – Web site recorder for the concerned parent
- Pretty Good Privacy – Alternate security programme
- Web Browsers – Netscape 4.7, Netscape 6.2 and Microsoft Internet Explorer 6.0
- PC-FILE – Older DOS database application
- Plus some other useful programming.

Included in the disk which will be distributed in the latter part of 2002 is a collection of the pictures of all the Past Grand Masters, from 1855 to present, along with any available official Masonic biographies. Some of the biographies are missing or incomplete and I would like to receive any information on any of the PGMs from any lodge or member who has something of interest.

Web site

W. Bro. Jim Kirk-White, our Webmaster, has been exceptionally attentive and creative in the upkeep and maintenance of our Grand Lodge Web Site. This has resulted in a very interesting and professional display of Freemasonry in Ontario. The inclusion of the Ontario Mason magazine, the use of a new polling program, information from various Grand Lodge committees, the Traveller Series of interesting articles by V.W. Bro. Ted Morris and the manner in which our Lodge and District Web sites are presented to the public through the approval process, all contribute to making this site and this jurisdiction a model of Freemasonry. As of this writing, more than 302,000 visits have been made to the main Web site and the Ontario Mason page had received in excess of 2700 visitors.

Registration

Once again, our registration at Grand Lodge in July 2002, will be tabulated by the use of computers, operated by the staff of our Grand Lodge Office and volunteers. This process is possible only through the untiring effort and creativity of W. Bro. Kris Nickerson, whose programming skills allow for the creation of lists of properly accredited voters for the District Election Rooms after Registration and the creation of the sections of the Annual Proceedings to which this information pertains.

The members of the Computer Resources Committee and the District Representatives have contributed to making this a good year. I wish to thank all of them for their support and assistance. To the staff at Grand Lodge and the Grand Secretary, this committee could not have functioned effectively without your active input and the courtesies extended to us. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

REPORT OF THE GRAND CHAPLAIN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. Paul D. Kett, Grand Chaplain.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I thank the Grand Master and Grand Lodge for affording me the honour and privilege of serving as Grand Chaplain during the past year. It has been a very full and rewarding time, shared with many new friends and travelling companions. I also share this honour with Zeredatha Lodge No. 220, Uxbridge, Toronto District 3, and with Northern Light Lodge No. 266, my mother lodge, and Nitetis Lodge No. 444, where I served as Worshipful Master.

During my year as Grand Chaplain, I have been constantly reminded of the great devotion and service to Grand Lodge offered by so many Grand Lodge Officers, Members of the Board, and Past Grand Lodge Officers. I have also been led anew to appreciate and value the extension of our fraternal affections through visitation.

The office of Grand Chaplain, and, indeed, the office of Chaplain in every lodge, points to our spiritual nature as humans – our common belief in the existence of a Supreme Being, and to the Great Light in Masonry, where we find the revelation of God's will for us. I have had an opportunity this year to dedicate a Volume of the Sacred Law for the use of Colborne Lodge No. 91, and to present Masonic Bibles to newly-initiated candidates. I also was invited to speak about Freemasonry and spirituality at Georgina Lodge No. 343. I preached at the Sarnia District Divine Service in Wyoming, and conducted a Divine Service for Zeredatha Lodge No. 220, which was attended by numerous Grand Lodge Officers and Toronto District 3 brethren and their families.

A unique event for me this past year was participating in the rededication and laying of a cornerstone at St. Paul's Anglican Church in Renfrew, with the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, and other Grand Lodge Officers. Coupled with this was the dedication of a new Mosaic Pavement, a very beautiful hand-woven carpet, in Renfrew Lodge No. 122.

I have also been privileged to attend the Institution of New Light Lodge No. 744, Cambridge, and to have participated in the Constitution and Consecration of Royal City Lodge No. 742, and the dedication of new lodge facilities in Orillia, Watford, and Cochrane. Further, I participated in two Lodge Amalgamation Ceremonies.

I have been pleased and honoured to attend eight installation ceremonies, nine receptions for our Grand Master, and ten official visits in twenty-one of the districts of our Grand Jurisdiction. Each visit and event has added to a rich storehouse of memories that I shall not soon forget.

I thank the Assistant Grand Chaplains for their work this year, and I salute District and Lodge Chaplains for all that they do to bring honour and dignity to their office.

May the Most High continue to prosper and bless all that we do to better ourselves and the world in which we live.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

PAUL D. KETT, Grand Chaplain

REPORT OF THE LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. A. McLean, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. McLean, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege to present the report of the Long Range Planning Committee on behalf of its members: R.W. Bros. Jack Leitch, Douglas Swann, Rudolph Mulack, Frank Wilson, William Lidstone, John Hanna, W. Bro. John Mavrinac and R.W. Bro. Norman "Bud" Funnell, Secretary.

"Like a ship in a storm with a Compass" – The Compass is the Grand Lodge Five-Year Continuing Strategic Plan. The various committees of Grand lodge are focused and have aligned their major initiatives and resources to the plan. Agility, quality, a focus on the future, creativity, relentless execution and creating a stimulating environment are the plan's operating principles.

Now we move forward together, implementing the plan initiatives to focus on modern Freemasonry and to keep it a viable fraternity.

All current District Deputy Grand Masters received a copy of the Strategic Plan in February 2002 for sharing with their districts and individual lodges. The District Deputy Grand Masters of 2002–2003 will receive a copy in July. Our Grand Master encourages and supports Long Range Planning at the district and lodge levels. Your Long Range Planning Committee is equipped to assist district and individual lodges in this process as requested.

The documented Strategic Plan has the following components:

- The Vision: To be the world's foremost fraternal organization by re-affirming the traditional Masonic values with brethren acting on the Square.
- The Mission: Freemasonry in Ontario is a fraternal organization encouraging a way of life, promoting fellowship, leadership, universal benevolence, and the practice of one's faith for the 'Cause of Good.'
- The Commitment: Think Tanks held on February 7-8, 1997, January 29-30, 1999, and January 25-26, 2001, and the scheduled January 29-31, 2003, workshop have and will provided continuity and the strong likelihood of commitment to such an undertaking for at least the next five years and beyond.

- The Focus: The four key areas identified to concentrate resources on are: fraternal environment, leadership development, communications (internal) and communications (external). Projects have been identified and measures are in place.

In 2001–2002 the major WINS are as follows for:

1. Fraternal Environment: Offer of financial advice to 43 lodges and distribution of an excel financial record keeping package, additions of 37 District Field Reps to support the Ontario Mason magazine; Ontario Mason magazine on web page; successful 2001 International Plowing Match; Examination of Worshipful Master Elect document distributed to 46 D.D.G.M.s; ad hoc committee formed to review current amalgamation process; release of Freemasonry cassette audio tape; three Friend to Friend and Mentors district workshops held with improved presentation materials; 24 district Brother to Brother feedback sessions conducted; 150th Grand Lodge Anniversary Committee initial planning meetings underway.
2. Leadership Development: Five seminars and workshops return to Grand Lodge on Tuesday afternoon; promotion of correspondence courses, increased book sales at Lodges of Instruction; Officer Progression – 60 line officers trained at Niagara workshop; 52 Past Masters attended compulsory training for D.D.G.M.s and D.D.G.M. book sales increased by 268%; feedback sessions with P.D.D.G.M.s conducted; Lodge of Instruction workshops well attended.
3. Communications (Internal): Improved Masonic Education "Newsletter" and team experiencing increased readership and contributor base issued four times a year with Ontario content. Communicated and shared the Strategic Plan with all D.D.G.M.s and Board Members.
4. Communications (External): A new Five Year Public Relations plan approved; successful media campaigns at Renfrew cornerstone and on Help-2-Hear campaign; revised guidelines for information booths and open houses; display incentive programme introduced; Ontario Public Relations Committee composed of concordant bodies soon to release information booklet, and lodge summons to include sections on concordant bodies events per approved specifications.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. P. J. Mullen, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Mullen, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Benevolence Committee is pleased to report that during the year ending April 30, 2002, there was disbursed in the interest of Benevolence, 26 grants and Christmas gratuities from the Memorial Fund, totalling $69,995. In addition, $10,000 was paid for services provided by our Grand Lodge staff, and $7,901 was paid to the firm of Scotia Cassels Investment Counsel Limited for investment management fees. Total expenditures were $87,896. Income on investments was $18,381 and donations of $1,170 were received. Hence, resulting in a deficit of $68,345.

On April 5, 2002, the annual meeting of this committee was held in the Upper Board Room at the Grand Lodge Memorial Building, Hamilton, ON and 22 applications were reviewed.

The committee endorses the policy of the appointment of District and Lodge Chairmen of Benevolence and recommends that this practice be continued. This system was introduced a number of years ago by M.W. Bro. Nancekivell when he was chairman of this committee. The intent was, and is, to have in each district, a Chairman of Benevolence whose responsibility is to assist the lodges and the lodge Chairman of Benevolence in his district to properly complete applications for benevolence and to encourage benevolent activities in the lodges.

The assistance provided by the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District and Lodge Chairmen of Benevolence is to be commended. We express to them our deep appreciation for their help.

This committee is most pleased when District and Lodge Chairmen of Benevolence are reappointed to their respective offices. The continuity provides the experience and knowledge of the benevolent process and programme that is essential to fulfill their duties and responsibilities.

I encourage the brethren to complete applications with full and complete information. When information is lacking, it requires them to be returned for more information, which in turn causes a delay in the processing of them and unnecessary hardship to the applicant. It is the committee preference to process an application as quickly as possible. As a reminder brethren, all information and correspondence, (including a supporting letter), regarding an application must be forwarded to the lodge secretary, and he, after a discussion with the District Chairman and Lodge Chairman of Benevolence, will forward it to the office of the Grand Secretary.

May I, as chairman, commend very highly, the kindness and guidance of M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, Grand Secretary and acting Supervisor of Benevolence, the continued support and assistance of our Grand Lodge staff and the dedication and commitment of each committee member to the benevolent work of Masonry.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee: R.W. Bros. T. R. Davies, W. J. Matyczuk, G. W. Nelson, G. Brown, E. P. Finkbeiner, L. W. Hammell, C. A. Olender, J. W. Trousdale, R. G. Wands, K. L. Whiting; W. Bros. D. K. Bromley, R. C. James, and B. J. Penney.

PAUL J. MULLEN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. E. Lewis, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Lewis, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee on Audit and Finance of Grand Lodge are set forth in the Book of Constitution in subsection 136(a) and the committee now reports to Grand Lodge on the discharge of these several duties and responsibilities.

ACTIVITIES

Again, the Committee on Audit and Finance continues to review the monthly financial statements as prepared by the Grand Lodge office and compares the results of operations and financial position of Grand Lodge to budget. The results of operations and financial position compared favorably to the budget adopted last year for fiscal 2002 for the General Fund, save two areas. Our investment income was budgeted for $200,000 and due to the volatility experienced in the market place during the past year, we actually earned $39,105 net, i.e. investment income earned, gain on sale of investments net of losses on the sale of investments. Our portfolio investment managers decided that it was prudent to divest the portfolio of certain technology positions, which resulted in these losses.

Also, the annual session of Grand Lodge in Toronto cost approximately $17,000 over budget due to a number of unforeseen factors. The cost of the annual session was reviewed in detail by the committee for the 2002 session with a view to curtailing costs and budget overruns.

The committee has once again reviewed and considered the Annual Reports of the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer and the Auditors as referred to in these annual proceedings. These reports were found to be most informative and complete in all material respects. Accordingly, the committee recommends the adoption of these reports.

INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO

2001/2002 will be remembered for the tragic events of September 11th, which have changed the world profoundly and the way that we as investors look at the future. From an economic point of view, September 11th accelerated the sharp slowdown in the North America economies. According to the U. S. National Bureau of Economic Research, America has officially been in a recession since March 2001. This led to simultaneous recessions in Europe, Canada and the emerging markets.

The authorities in the major economies reacted by rapidly cutting interest rates in 2001/ 2002. This was not enough to offset the negative effects of high valuations and rapidly diminishing sales and earnings on stock markets. For example, the TSE300 Index fell 12.6%, its worse performance in 10 years and markets in the U. S., Europe, Japan and most of Asia and Latin America fell between 5% and 35%. Bonds and income generating investments, on the other hand enjoyed a relatively excellent year. The foregoing, together with the political unrest throughout the world, resulted in a negative effect upon the Grand Lodge investment portfolio and the income derived therefrom.

Throughout the year, the committee continues to meet on a regular basis with our investment portfolio managers Scotia Cassels Investment Counsel Limited to not only monitor the activities of the portfolio, but to review the overall investment strategy as required, given the ongoing changes in the business and investment climate. The committee likewise reviews our investment strategy in conjunction with the Grand Lodge Investment Plan adopted several years ago. We are pleased to report that the Investment Portfolio is in compliance with the plan as established. Despite a very difficult and turbulent year in the markets, the overall combined portfolio of Grand Lodge amounted to $4,528,265. We have been advised by the portfolio managers that, although the overall value of the portfolio is down from last year, they project that by the end of fiscal 2003, the portfolio will once again approximate the $5,000,000 mark.

They have also reported that we are positioned to enjoy a more positive economic climate in the foreseeable future.

We have also reviewed the charitable donations made on behalf of our Grand Lodge by the Grand Master. This donation aggregated $5,000 to the Grand Lodge of New York for charitable assistance following the World Trade Center disaster.

As such, we recommend the approval of the same.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The audited financial statements for Grand Lodge for the year ended April 30, 2002, were reviewed and discussed in detail with our auditors, Grant Thornton, Chartered Accountants. These audited financial statements can be found elsewhere in the Annual Proceedings. Over the past several years, your Grand Lodge has experienced significant annual surpluses, however this year we experienced a consolidated net loss of $254,602, which is due primarily to the losses sustained on the sale of securities. Nevertheless, your Grand Lodge remains in a financially strong financial position. We again congratulate the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Secretary, the Grand Master, the Chairman of the Management Committee and the members of the various Grand Lodge committees for the efficient manner in which they managed the financial resources of our Grand Lodge.

Accordingly, the committee recommends that the audited financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2002, be adopted as submitted.

A special thanks to our auditors, Grant Thornton, Chartered Accountants, and, in particular, Mr. George Benton, C.A., for their overall assistance and interest during the year.

BUDGET 2002-2003

The Audit and Finance Committee received from the Management Committee the budgetary requirements of all the Grand Lodge committees for the ensuing year, which were carefully considered in preparing the annual budget for our Grand Lodge for the year ended April 30, 2003. These amounts aggregated $14,500, together with allocations made from the Programme Fund.

The budget for the General Fund for the ensuing year is set out in the appendix to this report which reflects anticipated revenues of $630,000 and expenses of $657,000 resulting in a budget deficit of $27,000. However, given that included in the operational expenses is an amount of $10,000, which is merely a transfer to the 150th Anniversary Fund, we are in fact budgeting for an operational deficit of $17,000.

As in prior years, a budget for the Special Programme Fund has been prepared, which is set out in the appendix attached to this report and reflects budgeted expenses of $151,300.

The operational and Special Programme budgets were prepared on a line by line examination based on the actual results of the previous year and giving consideration to the needs of Grand Lodge to facilitate desirable and meaningful programmes.

In accordance with subsection 134 (c) of the Book of Constitution, your committee submits for consideration and approval, as set out below, an estimate of the revenues and expenses as they relate to the General Fund for the year ended April 30, 2003. Your committee believes that the budget set out in this report is realistic and provides for items which can be reasonably foreseen to meet the obligations, financial responsibilities and commitments of the General Fund of Grand Lodge for the current fiscal year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee on Audit and Finance reviews annually the insurance coverage maintained by our Grand Lodge and we believe that it is adequate in the circumstances. However, we understand that the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances is currently undertaking a review of insurance coverage needs for the constituent lodges. We would recommend that a member of the Audit and Finance Committee be involved in this project to co-ordinate the review.

The Committee on Audit and Finance also recommends that in the autumn of 2002 a review of our investment portfolio strategy be undertaken in conjunction with the Grand Lodge Investment Plan due to the changing investment climate. This would be done in conjunction with our portfolio managers Scotia Cassels Investment Counsel Limited.

GENERAL

In conclusion, as Chairman on Audit and Finance, I particularly want to express my thanks and appreciation to the Grand Treasurer, R.W. Bro. T. R. Davies, the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, and the Grand Lodge staff, for their guidance, outstanding contributions and assistance to this committee.

I also wish to express my appreciation to the members of the committee for their interest and involvement in the management of the financial affairs of this Grand Lodge, in the persons of M.W. Bro. T. Shand, M.W. Bro. D. Greenwood, R.W. Bro. D. Mumby, R.W. Bro. T. R. Davies, R.W. Bro. J. T. Cassie and R.W. Bro. R. G. Wands.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

THOMAS E. LEWIS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, this Report was presented by M.W. Bro. N. E. Byrne, seconded by M.W. Bro. R. E. Groshaw, and adopted.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren:

It is with pleasure that I present to you the report of the Committee on the Grand Master's Address, the committee being composed of all the Past Grand Masters.

Our Grand Master, in his usual courteous and friendly manner, welcomes the many distinguished guests and visitors from sister jurisdictions and associated bodies to our Annual 2002 Grand Lodge Communication.

The Grand Master expresses his gratitude to all the Masons of Ontario for the many courtesies extended to him and his wife in the course of his extensive travels throughout the Province.

Our Grand Master, on behalf of all Ontario Masons, expresses the sorrow that is felt in our jurisdiction on the deaths, within a few days, of three of our distinguished Past Grand Masters, two within a period of two days, in the persons of M.W. Bro. Eric W. Nancekivell, our senior Past Grand Master, M.W. Bro. William T. Anderson and M.W. Bro. T. John Arthur. In addition, he recognizes the deaths of three more distinguished Masons in Ontario, who served our Craft over many years, one of whom died in his 103rd year.

We agree with the Grand Master in granting past rank to four brethren who had served in the office of Worshipful Master in their respective Lodges, several of whom who died in office. We also concur in granting the rank of Past Grand Senior Warden to two brethren for their extra service beyond the call of duty in their respective capacities as Assistant Grand Directors of Ceremonies.

Once again, Craft Masons who have given of themselves extensively, without seeking or serving as line officers in their lodges, have been named as recipients of the William Mercer Wilson medal. We also salute these Masons and confirm the decision of the Special Committee implemented by our Grand Master to single them out for this special honour.

Last year, as a result of the combined efforts of many, the Millennium Project was an unqualified success, led and assisted by the collective efforts of several of our brethren. The Grand Master has seen fit to award them with the Certificate of Commendation. We are pleased to agree with his decision.

Masons in Ontario serve humanity, their community, the craft and other organizations as leaders in being "community-minded." It is something that being a Masons teaches us all. Two of our brethren were singled out for exemplary service over many years to receive the meritorious service award. They join a very small group of "world-class Masons," and we concur with the Grand Master in his selection.

We hasten to join our Grand Master and our Grand Lodge in sending congratulations to Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, on completing fifty years as a reigning Monarch, a notable achievement by any standard.

Grand Masters have a tremendously busy and active agenda, which takes them continually to the four corners of this vast Province. They may be assisted by a Grand Director of Ceremonies, who becomes a dedicated servant of the Grand Master. We join with our Grand Master in acknowledging the tireless efforts of the Grand Director of Ceremonies R.W. Bro. Terrence V. Horner, and his wife Lily, and extending his personal thanks for a job well done. We add our own congratulations.

We note, with great anticipation, evidence of Masonic growth in the granting of a warrant for the New Light Daylight Lodge in Waterloo District, furthered by granting a dispensation for Brock Daylight Lodge in St. Catharines. We congratulate the leaders of these new daylight lodges and wish them success in their respective efforts to afford an opportunity to Masons in these districts to meet during daylight hours, rather than at the traditional evening meetings. This action opens up the door for many who, for a myriad of reasons, find some difficulty in attending evening lodge meetings.

Our Grand Master has done much towards furthering the close Masonic ties with other Masonic organizations, thereby strengthening the Masonic Family. We congratulate our Grand Master's efforts, and hope that his leadership in their area will reap long-time benefits for Masonry in all its branches.

We note and approve of the Grand Master's leadership to implement new ideas and concepts, as he strives to promote the Masonic Family, in all its benefits into many communities in Ontario. His attendance at numerous functions will show to all that he and his wife, Lyn, are good examples of the Masonic Family in action.

We note and approve of his several attendances to consecrate a new lodge, and to dedicate three Masonic meeting places during this past year. Our Grand Master's untiring efforts confirm the wisdom of all Ontario Masons in electing him as Grand Master, to be an inspiring leader to us all. We trust that, notwithstanding his great energy and zeal, he will continue to enjoy good health and receive some "rest or leisure time," so he may continue to keep up his hectic pace. An examination of the itinerary of our Grand Master is clear and unequivocal proof that his responsibility, particularly with respect to travel, is varied and very demanding. We thank him and his wife Lyn for upholding the status as leaders of our great fraternity in this Province.

We note, with approval, his attendance at and leadership roles taken in several North American and Canadian Conferences of the leaders of our Craft, so ably assisted by our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, and his wife Marion.

Your committee approves of the Grand Master's action in connection with the appointments of Grand Representatives, both near our Grand Lodge and of our Grand Lodge.

We are most appreciative of his thanks extended to the Past Grand Masters of this jurisdiction. No specific thanks is necessary, for each Past Grand Master considers it an honour to serve our Grand Master as best he can.

As an example of his recognition of the current Grand Lodge Officers and others, he extends his warm, personal thanks to the many Grand Lodge Officers, the members of the Board of General Purposes and the several Masons with whom he has "laboured in the quarries" this past year. Your committee is pleased to add its own special thanks to those brethren noted in his address.

We applaud and approve his special suggestions to enable our Grand Lodge to materially and financially assist Masonic Youth Groups, who may well form the members of "new Masons of the future."

We also, individually and as members of this committee, recognize the untiring efforts of our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies, and add our personal thanks to him. We also approve of the Grand Master's recommendation that he be elected as Grand Secretary Emeritus of this Grand Lodge.

We approve of our Grand Master's actions in creating several ad hoc committees to specifically make enquiries and recommendations into various facets of our Grand Lodge, and its varied programmes. We wish these several committees well, and await the receipt of their deliberations.

We applaud his choice for the speaker at the Grand Master's Banquet, Dr. Robert V. Harrison, Senior Scientist, Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, and look forward to his comments, with particular reference to charitable efforts with respect to auditory hearing fields in which the Masonic Foundation of Ontario has played a big part.

We add the committee's thanks to the thanks he has expressed to several of our "experienced brethren" who have served our Grand Lodge well and faithfully for many years; to M.W. Bro. C. Edwin Drew, the Custodian of the Work; to the Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby and, particularly, to the Grand Master's wife Lyn, and his family. It is indeed fitting that the several combined efforts of each one, in their own capacities, should be highlighted for all Ontario Masons to understand and appreciate the many sacrifices of time and energy that they have all collectively made to benefit us all.

Our Grand Master has directed his theme, as Grand Master, to "Back to Basics." We concur with the concept of Masonry that he is trying to promote in his travels throughout Ontario to the various districts, and thank him for his foresight that Masonry seems to be on an upsurge. We, too, are confident that, under his very capable leadership, our Grand Lodge, in fact Masonry throughout Ontario, will continue to grow and prosper in the year ahead.

It is our fervent wish that he may continue to bring his individual energy and dedication to his task as Grand Master. We congratulate him on the continuing success of his tenure as our Masonic leader.

May the Great Architect of the Universe give him energy, zeal, leadership, a spirit of friendliness and the success that is surely to come to him in the year ahead. The continued good health and growth of our beloved fraternity is in his very capable hands. We collectively thank him for being "a Mason's Mason," and a Grand Master worthy of the honour he holds and so carefully maintains.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

NORMAN E. BYRNE, P.G.M.

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, Grand Historian, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. McLeod, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Once again, it is appropriate that the Grand Historian should express his gratitude to the Grand Master, for honouring him with this title. According to the book of Constitution, one of the duties assigned to this office is to record matters that are connected with the history of Grand Lodge. In this context, it seems appropriate for us to consider several of the earliest Masonic leaders in what is now Canada. But first, a bit of background.

In the Thirteen Colonies (now the U.S.A.), by 1772, there were about 100 Masonic lodges working. We have no accurate figures for the total number of Masons in the colonies, but one might guess that the membership in each lodge would run somewhere between 20 and 100. So that would mean that in the Thirteen Colonies, the total membership was somewhere between 2,000 and 10,000. The total population may have been in the vicinity of 2,000,000; so less than one-half of one percent of the people were Masons.

Now we must remember that the American Revolution was a civil war. At least one-third of the American colonists were opposed to the Declaration of Independence, including large numbers of the wealthy citizens and the professional classes. Called "Loyalists" or "Tories," they were regarded as traitors and treated accordingly. After the War, many of them left the United States. Some went back to England, others to the West Indies, and at least 42,000 came to Canada: about 35,000 to the Maritimes, 1000 to Lower Canada, and 6000 to Upper Canada. And some of them were Freemasons.

Nearly fifty years ago, the great Masonic historian A. J. B. Milborne wrote a paper in which he tracked down all the Loyalist Masons he could find who settled in the Maritimes. The total number of names in his lists is 236 – about .7% of the immigrants (almost the same as the proportion of Masons in the colonies when the Revolution began).

Now after the Revolution, on November 9, 1789, Lord Dorchester, the Governor of Canada, issued an Order-in-Council, which included the following words:

"Those Loyalists who have adhered to the Unity of the Empire and joined the Royal Standard before the Treaty of Separation in the year 1783 and all their Children and their Descendants by either sex are to be distinguished by the following Capitals affixed to their names, U. E., alluding to their great principle The Unity of the Empire."

So let us look at several of these United Empire Loyalists, who played a major part in organizing pioneer Freemasonry in our country.

Sir John Johnson

Sir John Johnson was born in 1742, at Johnstown, New York, the son of Sir William Johnson, who had come out from Ireland in 1737, and acquired a vast estate in the Mohawk Valley. At the age of thirteen, in 1755, John served as a volunteer under his father's command at the Battle of Lake George, when the French Army under Baron Dieskau was defeated and its General taken prisoner. (For this service his father was created a Baronet, and received the sum of £5000 Sterling). After the French and Indian War, young John proceeded to England to polish his manners and enlarge his circle of acquaintance. In 1765 he was himself knighted. On his father's death in 1774 he became the 2nd Baronet Johnson of New York.

When the Revolution began, he was unalterably loyal to the King. He escaped from his home with about 700 followers, and in 1776 succeeded in reaching Montreal. There he was granted a commission to raise a regiment from among his Tory friends, to be called the King's Royal Regiment of New York. Known as the Royal Yorkers, or the Royal Greens, it served throughout the war, particularly in upstate New York. After the war Sir John settled in Montreal; the government awarded him £45,000 Sterling in compensation for his losses. He was named Superintendent of Indian Affairs for British North America, and kept the office as long as he lived. The Iroquois called him "He who Made the House to Tremble," and said that he was a good father to the red children. He died January 4, 1830, in his 88th year.

About 1767, while he was in England, he was initiated into Masonry in Royal Lodge No. 313, English Register (Moderns), which met at The Thatched House, St

James' Street, London. The same year he was named Provincial Grand Master of New York by the Grand Master; he soon returned to America, and probably affiliated with the lodge that his father had founded a year earlier. He was not particularly active as Provincial Grand Master, but he or his deputy warranted three lodges between 1774 and 1776.

After the War, in 1788, he was named Provincial Grand Master for Canada. There was of course another Masonic Grand Lodge, the Ancients, violently opposed to the Grand Lodge represented by Johnson. In 1792 the Ancients named His Royal Highness, Prince Edward (Queen Victoria's father), as Provincial Grand Master for Lower Canada. The Prince's supporters were militant, and adopted some unbrotherly proceedings against their rivals. On one occasion a member of a Moderns lodge in Montreal presented himself as a visitor to an Ancients lodge in the City of Quebec. Not only was the visitor rejected, but his certificate was burnt in open lodge. When Sir John heard of this, he declared "that he would not continue to exercise any Masonic function which could possibly bring him into collision with the son of his Sovereign." In consequence, he never again convened his Provincial Grand Lodge, and his patent in fact became dormant. Most of his lodges died out, or went over to the Ancients.

Many years later, after the two rival Grand Lodges amalgamated, Sir John did lay the foundation stone for the Montreal General Hospital, with Masonic ceremony, in 1821. At his death in 1830 he was buried with military and Masonic honours. According to the report in the "Montreal Gazette" —

"The procession was led by the 24th Regiment, attended by their fine band, playing tunes most suited to the solemn occasion; then followed the hearse drawn by four black horses, in which rested the coffin, covered with the Military insignia of the departed Brigadier General. The relatives, and the numerous friends of the deceased, were next in the order of procession — the remainder of which consisted of the Provincial Grand Lodge for this District and the Officers of the Private Lodges of the city, over which Sir John Johnson had long presided as Provincial Grand Master, till his bodily infirmities required his retirement from his honorable station in the Craft. After the Freemasons, followed a body of Indians, about 300 in number, with about 100 females, from the Missions of Caughnawaga, St Regis, and the Lake of Two Mountains. The procession proceeded to the Episcopal Church of this city, where the funeral service was read."

Sir John was "regarded as the most outstanding of the United Empire Loyalists in Canada," and he was certainly the most distinguished Mason to come north after the Revolution.

William Jarvis

William Jarvis was born on September 11, 1756, in Stamford, Connecticut, from a family that had lived in Connecticut for several generations. His father was quite well-to-do, and a loyal British subject, and so he sent his son to England for his education. This training prepared William to enter either military or civil services. In the end he had careers in both.

At the outbreak of the American Revolution, Jarvis, nineteen years old, joined the Queen's Rangers (which was commanded by Colonel John Graves Simcoe), and was commissioned an Ensign or Cornet. In October 1781, he was wounded at the siege of Yorktown, and in 1782 he was promoted to Colonel in the same regiment.

When hostilities ceased in 1783, Jarvis resigned his commission and returned home to Stamford, Connecticut. As one might have expected, his former friends and neighbours were very hostile, and for his own survival he moved to safer surroundings. He made his way back to England, where he had received his education, and whose cause he had supported.

In 1789, the military beckoned again, and he joined the Western Regiment of Militia in Middlesex, England, as a Lieutenant, and was promoted to Captain in 1791. (We recall that he had served as a Colonel during the Revolution, but apparently that rank was valid only in America.)

On February 7, 1792, William Jarvis was made a Mason in the Grand Master's Lodge No. 1, English Register (Ancients), London. About the very time that he became a Mason, an opportunity arose for him to begin a new career, which took him back to America. Colonel John Graves Simcoe had just been appointed the first Lieutenant-Governor for Upper Canada, and to him fell the task of creating a government for that province. He remembered Jarvis as a loyal and capable officer who had shown some promise of business leadership, and so he appointed him as the Secretary and Registrar of Records of the Province of Upper Canada. Jarvis received notification of his appointment in March 1792.

And on March 7, one month after his initiation into Masonry, Jarvis was named Provincial Grand Master of Masons for Upper Canada. At that time, in 1792, there were already ten active lodges in Upper Canada – six Moderns and four Ancients. Of these, four joined the new Provincial Grand Lodge.

Jarvis sailed for Canada on April 13, 1792, arriving in Quebec on June 11. After a few days there he left for Kingston, where the new government was being organized. Three months later (on September 11, 1792), he moved again, to Newark (Niagara-on-the-Lake), where the provincial assembly was to sit until 1797. Actually the Legislature of Upper Canada held its first meeting on September 17, 1792, in the Freemasons' Hall in Newark. (Sad to relate, the building was destroyed when American forces burned the town in December 1813. The present lodge building there was built on the same site in 1816.)

In 1797, the Provincial Assembly and the government offices were moved across the lake to muddy York (now known as Toronto). And there Jarvis soon established himself as one of the leaders in the growing community. He had earlier secured a choice lot, and had erected what was then the best and largest building in town. As well as being a home for the Jarvis family, it also had room for the Provincial Secretary's office on the ground floor, and a large drawing room on the floor above where lavish entertainments could be held.

After a full and successful career as a civil servant, William Jarvis died at York on August 13, 1817. He was buried with full Masonic honours in the family plot of the churchyard attached to the Cathedral of St James.

Now, to return to the Masonic connection, Jarvis did attend the celebration of St John's Day on December 27, 1792, but he never got around to convening a meeting of his Provincial Grand Lodge until July 1795, more than three years after his appointment. He did enlist some efficient helpers, who carried out the administrative duties. In 1797, when he had to move to York, he took with him his patent of appointment as Provincial Grand Master, but left all the records and most of the regalia in Niagara. The workers there could get no response or cooperation from him. So finally in December 1802, they formed their own independent Grand Lodge, which worked until 1822 before coming back into the fold.

At first sight, Jarvis's appointment as Provincial Grand Master by the Ancient Grand Lodge seems hard to justify. After all, he had been a member of the Craft for only a month. But, he did have the two talents needed for the job: leadership, duly attested in his military career, and organizational ability which had gained him his position in the new provincial government.

Precisely why he failed to become the forceful leader of which he had given such promise is unclear. Certainly the pressures of his duties as Provincial Secretary for Upper Canada made heavy demands on his time. But, of course, one problem was that he had joined the Craft one month before being named to his high office. He knew virtually nothing about Freemasonry, or its ritual. According to the terms of his patent, he was not allowed to grant warrants to new lodges, but he did so nevertheless; and he never registered them in England. In fact he stopped holding meetings of his Provincial Grand Lodge in 1804, and let the lodges limp along on their own.

There may be one other explanation. Possibly he did not realize that there were two English grand lodges, hostile to each other. He came to Canada as Provincial Grand Master of the Ancients to find that most of the active lodges in his province were working under warrants from the Moderns. And he found that he could not even sit in lodge with his benefactor and former comrade-in-arms, for John Graves Simcoe had been initiated into Union Lodge No. 307, on the English Register (Moderns), in Exeter, England, in 1773. Who can guess the effect on a new Mason, particularly one who recollected what he had heard about brotherly love? It is at least conceivable that Jarvis was disillusioned; he may have felt that the so-called brotherly love was all a sham, and that Masonry had let him down.

But at all events, despite his negligence, his Provincial Grand Lodge warranted 38 lodges between 1792 and 1817; nine of them are still working.

Rev. John Beardsley

Let me cite a family named Vanderburgh, a Dutch family that had settled in New Amsterdam in 1653. About sixty years later they moved up the Hudson to Poughkeepsie. In 1776, there were two brothers. James was 47 at the outbreak of the great rebellion. A good man, he was Colonel of the 5th Regiment Dutchess County militia; and he served as a Deputy to the Third Provincial Congress in 1776. George Washington's diary mentions that he stayed at Colonel Vanderburgh's home twice in 1781. His gravestone carries the square and compasses. Here was a Mason who did his bit for the cause of justice.

His older Brother Henry was known as Judge Vanderburgh. He was a Justice of the Inferior Court and a Warden of Christ Church, Poughkeepsie. The minister of his church, the Rev. John Beardsley, was a native of Connecticut, educated at Yale and Columbia. The minutes of the Masonic lodge at Poughkeepsie record that he preached the St. John's Day Sermon in 1771, 1772, and 1774, and on one occasion the brethren formally passed a vote of thanks and presented him with a large folio Bible.

Rev. Mr Beardsley was opposed to the Revolution, and received "repeated insults" from those who supported it. His church services were suspended from July 13, 1776. When he persisted in his refusal to take the Oath of Allegiance to the State, he was confined to his farm, being permitted only "to go and Visit the sick & Baptize Infants where requested." In his troubles, Beardsley was associated with Judge Henry Vanderburgh, whom we mentioned a minute ago. Early in December 1777, the Commission for Detecting and Defeating Conspiracies in New York reported that the more radical revolutionaries might actually inflict physical harm on Mr. Beardsley and Mr. Vanderburgh, and they therefore requested permission to send them through the lines to New York, which was in British hands. Finally on December 13, the Governor of New York granted permission for the Reverend John Beardsley and his family, and Mr. Henry Vanderburgh and his family, "with their Wearing Apparel and necessary Bedding for the Family and Provision for their Passage," to go down the Hudson to the city in a sloop-of-war under a flag of truce. In June 1778, in New York, Beardsley became Chaplain of the newly organized Loyal American Regiment. Soon afterwards he was initiated into a Masonic lodge in New York. In 1781, when a new Provincial Grand Lodge was formed, Bro. Beardsley was unanimously chosen Junior Grand Warden, an office which he filled until the Loyalists left the city in 1783. Before the departure, he and seventeen other clergymen met together and signed a "Plan of Religious and Literary Institution for the Province of Nova Scotia." This eventually led to the foundation of the University of King's College, Halifax.

Together with many other Loyalists Rev. John Beardsley (aged 51) and Judge Henry Vanderburgh (aged 66) gave up everything; they lost their homes and property, and went into exile, settling in the unoccupied part of what is now New Brunswick. Beardsley was "the first clergyman of any denomination to minister to the spiritual needs of the exiles." On March 9, 1784, the Masons invited him to become the first Master of the earliest lodge formed under local authority in this part of the province.

He built the first church to be consecrated in the province. He continued active in Masonic affairs until as late as 1803, when he preached a St. John's Day sermon on the text Hebrews 13:1, "Let brotherly love continue." He died in 1809.

Beardsley is regarded as the Founder of Freemasonry in the Province of New Brunswick. In 1916 the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick unveiled a brass memorial tablet to his memory in the church where he is buried, and in 1968, it instituted the Rev. John Beardsley Medallion, awarded every year for outstanding contributions to the Grand Lodge and to the advancement of Freemasonry.

Three United Empire Loyalists and Freemasons: the founder of Masonry in New Brunswick, the last Provincial Grand Master of Canada, and the first Provincial Grand Master of Upper Canada.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted.

WALLACE McLEOD, Grand Historian

REPORT OF THE 150th ANNIVERSARY AD HOC COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. Terry A. McLean, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. McLean, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Tenth of October was a red-letter day in the Canadian Masonic calendar, for on that day, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, there came into being the first independent Grand Lodge in Canada.

When the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario meets at Toronto in July, 2005, it will be experiencing the 150th year of its existence. Imagine, 150 years.

A wonderful time to reflect, celebrate and be proud of our rich Masonic history in the Province of Ontario.

On behalf of the ad hoc 150th Anniversary Committee I am pleased to report that the initial planning is well underway for this Gala Celebration.

As the wrestler Billy Red Lyons used to say "Don't you dare miss it!" This is a party you won't want to miss. Mark your calendars, now!

The 150th Annual Communications will be held in this gracious hotel on July 22-23, 2005. That is on a Friday and Saturday. (Subject to a dispensation granted by the Grand Master.) The Board meeting will start on the Wednesday and we will conclude with a Divine Service on the Saturday afternoon and a spectacular special event on the Saturday evening.

In order to be successful and deliver a home run celebration we value your input. As a result, in all our planning endeavors, each event or idea presented has to pass the "six pack" test.

1. DOES IT FOCUS ON MAXIMIZING THE PARTICIPATION OF ALL THE BRETHREN OF ONTARIO?
2. IS IT SENSITIVE TO COSTS?
3. WILL IT GIVE THE BRETHREN AND THEIR FAMILIES SOMETHING TO REMEMBER?
4. HOW WILL IT DELIGHT OUR SPECIAL GUESTS?
5. HOW WILL IT ENGAGE DISTRICTS/LODGES IN THE CELEBRATIONS?
6. HOW CAN WE MAXIMIZE THE ROYAL YORK RESOURCES?

The ad hoc committee personally extends an invitation to attend the 150th Anniversary Booth and if you correctly answer a skill-testing historical question or ID a Past Grand Master you will be rewarded with a commemorative ribbon reminding you of the key dates in 2005.

To test your knowledge here's a couple of teasers at the booth. All Masons are eligible to participate.

1. Which Grand Master was an Archbishop in the Anglican Church of Canada?
2. Name the Mason who was responsible for the design of the Canadian Maple Leaf?
3. Which Grand Master issued your Master Mason's certificate? (We believe you with this one.)
4. Who was the first Prime Minister of Canada to become a Mason? In which lodge was he initiated?

As I mentioned before, we value your input. We also need your feedback on how your district or individual lodge is planning to celebrate the GL 150th Anniversary. Drop us a note at the booth in the Idea Jar.

It is recommended that in July, 2004, the District/Lodge activities will commence and conclude with the Grand Finale July, 2005, at the Annual Communications. We will keep you posted as to events planning.

As the ad hoc committee moves forward with planning we will be drawing on the expertise and talents of many of the brethren to assist as we move forward. From time to time we reflect on this simple but powerful message:

PEOPLE WILL FORGET WHAT YOU SAID . . .

PEOPLE WILL FORGET WHAT YOU DID . . .

BUT PEOPLE WILL NEVER FORGET HOW YOU MADE THEM FEEL.

REPORT OF THE AWARDS COMMITTEE (WILLIAM MERCER WILSON MEDAL)

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. H. O. Polk, Chairman, seconded by the Deputy Grand Master, and received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

For more than half a century the William Mercer Wilson Medal has been a crowning jewel in recognizing the services of worthy Master Masons of lodge members by Grand Lodge.

With dedication to understanding the need, we are pleased to present this report for the year April 1, 2001, to March last, 2002.

Two medals were awarded during the time period: to Bro. Lyle Franklin James of Liberty Lodge No. 419, and to Bro. Stewart Emerson Lumsden of Mimosa Lodge No. 576. Their names are listed in the Grand Master's Address for sanction. Our congratulations and best wishes are extended to the two so honoured. For good deeds freely given may the distinction of such an honour be an inspiration to continue leadership contributions to the welfare of their respective lodges.

From the diversity of talent existing in the rank and file of members of the various lodges there must surely be numerous individuals well qualified for this preferment. The committee would welcome more applications to be forthcoming. PLEASE NOTE: Petitioners would be well cautioned in preparing a petition to follow each article of the guidelines governing the award, in particular Item 5.

To the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, and the dedicated staff, the committee record and tender our thanks for services under their auspices of inter-communications with the committee members, lodge secretaries and suppliers of the medals with profound grace and promptness; a truly hallmark of the richness of our fraternity working together.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is an honour and a privilege to, once again, present the report or foreword to the Reviews of the Annual Proceedings of our sister Grand Lodges received during the past year. Sincere thanks and gratitude are again extended to R.W. Bro. Frederic R. Branscombe for his careful selection of items and many hours spent in preparing these Reviews for the interest of the brethren. A special thank you is directed to Mrs. Agnes Arts, Englehart, Ontario, for her kind assistance in translating the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of the Netherlands. These Reviews are intended to inform the membership of the conditions and activities throughout the Masonic world.

The brethren assigned the onerous tasks of proposing or responding to Masonic toasts, Masonic education, welcoming visitors, Masonic addresses, assisting with lodge summonses and newsletters will find these Reviews a useful source of information. The reader will note many similarities between our Grand Jurisdiction and the Masonic world.

Many Grand Lodges have addressed the need for new ideas and experiments in order for survival in the ever changing society. The Craft must change to be relevant. For example, lowering the age to 18 years for initiates has been undertaken in some cases. Some are of the belief that changes are not the correct path and to remain in the past is easier than making changes. M.W. Bro. Richard A. Porter, Grand Master, Manitoba, urged, "The older generation must allow the younger generation to take up the reins of leadership as their predecessors allowed them to do."

COMMUNITY VISIBILITY and PUBLIC RELATIONS are evident throughout many jurisdictions as a means of transmitting the Masonic message of who and what we are in an attempt to educate the public and attract new members. Press releases for Cornerstone Ceremonies, Grand Lodge and local lodge activities, scholarships, school monitoring programmes with Big Brothers and Sisters, Masonic Model Student Assistance Programmes, are on-going. Many lodges have become involved in parades, fairs, child I.D. programmes, festivals, and drug abuse programmes. M.W. Bro. W. Vernon Burke, Jr., Grand Master, Texas, spoke, "Masons are getting involved in their communities and the communities are getting involved in Masonry."

YOUTH ORGANIZATIONS such as DeMolay, Rainbow for Girls, and Job's Daughters have been viewed by many jurisdictions as a positive step for the young to become involved in society as well as the future for Freemasonry.

There seems to be the need for more lodges to sponsor youth groups and the Masons to be adult leaders. The Youth Organizations Committee of Ohio stated, "The future of our country and our fraternity is in the hands of these young people." The Grand Master of Vermont, M.W. Bro. Earl J. Washburn, described DeMolay as Masonry's minor league system where young men are cultivated into a life of moral values.

The INTERNET AGE has become a reality in many Grand Jurisdictions. Several Grand Lodges have seen the need to upgrade programmes, software, and technical equipment to keep current with the ever increasing electronic communicating systems. Increased visitations to Web sites and Home pages by Masons and non-Masons are steadily on the rise. Non-Masons are seeking more information about Freemasonry and how they might join our Order. The Grand Lodge of Ireland constituted the first Internet Lodge – LODGE IRELAND 2000.

Declining memberships, surrendering of charters, and merging of lodges has been addressed by many jurisdictions. Retention committees, family involvement, more meaningful and interesting meetings, leadership seminars, and educational committees, are but a few avenues that are being experimented with in order to stop or slow down the decline and stimulate interest. With reference to the increasing number of mergers of lodges, M.W. Bro. Gilbert L. Martin, Grand Master, South Carolina, observed that – “Declining membership, advancing age of our members, and more importantly, declining participation, is beginning to have serious effects on the ability of some lodges to remain viable.” While he longed for the day that the conditions causing these mergers would disappear, he expressed the hope, “that good Masons in lodges in trouble will face up to the times and take corrective action and consider merging together as an honourable course to consider.”

FRATERNAL RELATIONS between many jurisdictions and Prince Hall lodges are ongoing with a view of establishing full recognition and visitation.

The foregoing is a brief analysis of some of the topics contained in the following Reviews. It is the hope and wish of this committee that you read the Reviews in their entirety and inform the brethren of your respective lodges through SUMMONSES, NEWSLETTERS, and MASONIC EDUCATION, the contents therein contained. The Reviews are time consuming to produce, but time saving for resource.

Sincere thanks are also extended to the office of the Grand Secretary and others who have made this report possible.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

G. WAYNE NELSON, Chairman

In the matter of a request from a lodge for permission to hold a meeting off the coast of British Columbia during a holiday cruise, the Jurisprudence Committee reported that it had ruled that this would be legal if the ship were on the high seas at the time. It observed, however, that to avoid the possibility of ill will it would be prudent to inform the Grand Lodges of British Columbia and Alaska in advance. Another ruling reported by the committee was that a military man was eligible for membership in a lodge notwithstanding the fact that he did not reside in the jurisdiction "because he was ordinarily resident in the jurisdiction."

In his Address to Grand Lodge, M.W. Bro. Gerald Webber reminded his brethren that he had assumed the duties of Grand Master "with the mandate to revitalize Freemasonry and position it for growth in a competitive environment." He reported that "these objects are well on their way to being achieved", thanks to the enthusiastic acceptance of his challenge, "LET'S DO IT!" This theme, he felt, "provided inspiration and carried the message to the brethren that it was possible to expand our programmes in this exciting and dynamic period of history." The theme gave a realistic message to the brethren "that Freemasonry will reach to a bright future with prudent change. Working within the Freemasonry community and assessing the future will be a significant challenge for all levels of leadership." The Grand Master emphasized that there is no easy answer to the frequently asked question – "Where will we be in ten years?"

The Public Awareness and Strategic Communications Committee introduced its report with the statement that "After long years of deliberately keeping a low profile, Freemasonry is beginning to seek community awareness and visibility.....Those deliberate historical efforts to maintain a low profile have resulted in an almost complete lack of a foundation on which to build effective public awareness and internal communications programmes." The committee recommended several procedures to meet current needs while maintaining accepted processes. The Grand Lodge Web Site was reported to have forged links with Masons and non-Masons, not only in Alberta, but throughout the world. Several inquiries concerning membership resulted from the Grand Lodge Home Page and these were forwarded to lodges around the province. The Grand Secretary's office was reported to be about to introduce an e-mail Network that would greatly improve communications within the jurisdiction.

M.W. Bro. Dickey J. Fortner referred in his report to a letter which he had received from the Worshipful Master of a lodge asking for his comments on the practice in that lodge of allowing Entered Apprentices to hear announcements and schedules of future events. The Grand Master reported that he had informed the lodge that it could conduct no other business in either the Entered Apprentice Degree or the Fellow Craft Degree than the conferral of the appropriate Degree and the examination of candidates as to their proficiency in the Lecture of that Degree. In making this decision, he stated, "I relied on several factors, including the fact that it is an established Masonic custom to conduct our business in a lodge of Master Masons."

The Grand Master reported, also, on the case of a Master Mason (and a member of the Shrine) who was found guilty of the charge of operating a liquor store, which is prohibited by Arkansas Grand Lodge Law. He was expelled from the fraternity and notification was given to the Scottish Rite and the Shrine. The Scottish Rite followed suit and informed the Shrine accordingly. The Grand Master indicated that he had been informed that the Imperial Council of the Shrine of North America had informed the Master Mason in question that, subject to review by the Imperial Council, he was being reinstated to membership in the Shrine. The Imperial Council, at its session in Boston, Massachusetts, had confirmed the reinstatement.

M.W. Bro. Fortner stated that this action "creates a situation whereby the Shrine now has a non-Mason participating as a member of the Shrine in this Grand Jurisdiction. This is clearly inconsistent with past Masonic customs and changes the relationship between Grand Lodge and the Shrine, which no longer can be considered an appendant body of this Fraternity." The Grand Master announced that it was his order that "Master Masons within this Grand Jurisdiction shall not participate in any Shrine activity that in any way presents itself as being a part of the Masonic Fraternity." This order was expanded by a list of six specific actions which were required to implement it. "From this point forward," he concluded, "the Shrine is to be treated as any other non-Masonic organization functioning as a civic club, such as Rotary or Lions clubs. Nothing in this order is intended to require Master Masons to discontinue their membership in the Shrine."

The Grand Lodge Web Master was thanked for the continuing expansion and success of electronic communications within the Grand Jurisdiction and beyond. The brethren were reminded that the address of the Grand Lodge Website is WWW.ARKMASON.ORG.

M.W. Bro. John D. Harper reviewed the implementation of his theme, Building through Participation, based on the principles and purpose of the Craft and on knowledge of its history, including the effects of mutual support and a positive attitude towards meaningful change. As for growth in the lodges, the Grand Master stated that, although he approved of proper solicitation, it must be redefined. It was his view that "the days of men knocking on the doors of our lodges for entry are gone. We can satisfy the requirements of our ritual by learning how to plant the seeds of Freemasonry in the minds of worthy men, and by knowing what to say to prospective candidates. This must be every brother's responsibility."

The Masonic Commission, in its Annual Report, indicated that it had been established to conduct improvement workshops throughout the jurisdiction and to listen to the concerns and suggestions of the brethren, which it had done in the first phase of its agenda. The second phase was to review all the ideas and suggestions which it had received and to group them in the following categories:

- (i) Quick and Easy Items: Fourteen ideas which the commission considered could be implemented quickly and easily;
- (ii) High Priority Items: Six suggestions generally approved in the workshops and considered throughout the jurisdiction as ideas that should be adopted;
- (iii) Items of High Importance Deserving Further Review: Fourteen ideas that need more deliberation before being implemented.

The Committee on Education reported that its priorities have been to put Masonic Education within the reach of every lodge member and to support the use of a Mentor Programme. The Committee sent a detailed list of all Masonic Education Resources to every District Education Officer with a request that all lodges be encouraged to make Masonic Education a part of their Order of Business. In addition, every lodge was urged to appoint a Lodge Director of Education.

It was reported that during the year the Vancouver Lodge of Education and Research had presented several well researched papers. Most of these are available through the Grand Lodge Library. The Committee on Education expressed its appreciation to the Lodge of Education and Research for its part in "funding and presenting V.W. Bro. John Hamill, Director of Communications for the United Grand Lodge of England," who presented two excellent papers.

M.W. Bro. Roger W. Read told the Annual Communication that he had read an article written in 1778 which related the story of a dialogue between a Mason and a non-Mason in which the latter asks, "What is the secret of Masonry?" The Mason replies, "Only this much I dare tell you. Their real deeds are their secret." The Grand Master applied that bit of eighteenth century Masonic philosophy to the current condition of Masonry with this challenge: "My Brothers, the duty of any Master is to provide leadership and to set the Craft to work and give them good and wholesome instructions for their labours."

The Brotherhood-In-Action Committee stated in its report that its mandate is to bring to lodges the recognition that they deserve for their good work in their communities. In the committee's words, "It is Knights of Columbus, B'nai B'rith and Masons (including Prince Hall Masons) putting into practice the belief of the Brotherhood of Man under the Fatherhood of God. It gives the members of each fraternity the opportunity to work together for the benefit of their respective communities. In so doing, new friendships are made resulting in false myths and bigotry disappearing in the respective fraternities." The committee works with individual lodges, assisting them to formulate cooperative programmes in their communities. The committee reported that it had worked with other fraternities in a Golf Tournament, with the proceeds donated to The Children's Home.

The Committee on Masonic Youth Activities listed in its report several projects in which it cooperated with DeMolay and Rainbow Girls. These included a trip to see a semi-pro baseball game, sponsorship of a dance for Rainbow and DeMolay, a roller skating party, a Christmas Carol Sing-Along and a Sunday afternoon church service in which Grand Officers of Rainbow and DeMolay participated. A member of the committee collected material and applications for scholarships.

The Grand Secretary reported a decline in losses through nonpayment of dues. He felt that this was the result of cooperation of the lodges with the Grand Master in giving him the names of those in danger of being suspended. He worked with the Retention Committee in encouraging them to retain their membership. A progress report was given on changes in the Grand Secretary's Office. "Keeping pace with technology is not an easy task," he said and added that the Grand Lodge computer capabilities (both as to hardware and software) had been upgraded.

ENGLAND

*Quarterly Communications and Annual Investiture
London, England, March, April, June, September and December, 2001*

In his Address to the March Quarterly Communication the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. H. R. H. the Duke of Kent, referred to the progress being made in combating discrimination against the Craft. He believed that "by refusing to accept unjustified attacks and unfair discrimination, and by speaking more freely about the virtues and joys of the Craft," Masons can achieve considerable success in convincing the public that Freemasonry does not deserve the reputation that some of its critics have attempted to give it.

At the Annual Investiture in April the death of the Pro Grand Master, M.W. Bro. the Rt. Hon. Lord Farnham was reported. Members of Grand Lodge were reminded that since 1991 Lord Farnham had guided the Craft through some of the greatest changes that it had experienced in over a century. This was particularly true in the matter of the Craft moving to more openness in society. Reference was made, also, to an official act by Lord Farnham which related to Canada: "One of his proudest moments was when he consecrated the new Grand Lodge of Newfoundland and Labrador."

In addressing the Annual Investiture in April, the Pro Grand Master, M.W. Bro. the Most Hon. the Marquess of Northampton, said: "We have come a long way in the last ten years with our move away from unnecessary secrecy, but we still have some way to go. We need to challenge brethren to think more about their Masonry, the meaning and relevance of our ceremonies, and the beneficial effects it will have on them if they are guided by them in their everyday lives. The individual Mason must be encouraged positively to talk freely about Masonry in his own words and from his own experience of it." He gave notice that it was his intention to continue Lord Farnham's policies relative to openness and acceptance of change: "Our recent philosophy of responding to any unfair discrimination against our members is working to our advantage and will continue unabated. I wish we had taken a more pro-active stance many years ago."

At the December Quarterly Communication the Grand Secretary announced that the Government Council for Museums, Libraries and Archives had granted official recognition to the Grand Lodge Library and Museum, thereby certifying that it "meets approved standards in management, collection care, public service and accessibility." The Grand Secretary reported that as Freemason's Hall participated in the London Open House Programme there were 4,000 visitors to the library on one day in September. "In future," he added, "people will not have to come quite that far to see our building: the new Website goes on line on Monday, 17th December. It is called WWW.GRANDLODGE-ENGLAND.ORG."

In his Grand Master's Report, M.W. Bro. J. Garrie Burr reviewed the work of various Grand Lodge committees. He suggested that, as the mandate of these committees was to assist the subordinate lodges, success or failure depended largely on the cooperation that they receive from the lodges. The Membership Committee, he pointed out by way of example, had developed excellent techniques. Lodges which used these techniques saw tangible benefits in more programmes and activities, as well as improved officer participation, which resulted in improved membership development and retention.

The Grand Master reported that, with the assistance of the Senior Grand Warden, he had encouraged lodges to change the style of their meetings. He wanted them to make their meetings "more attractive to the average lodge member." For example, minutes could be preprinted thus eliminating the need to read them in open lodge and ordinary lodge bills could be handled by committee. This would leave more time on the agenda of regular lodge meetings for interesting informational segments. He stated that experiments had been undertaken, with positive results, in forming a committee to assist lodges along these lines.

The following statement concerning relations with clandestine bodies claiming to be Masonic was brought before Grand Lodge: "Any organization, association or person professing to have any authority, powers or privileges in Ancient Craft Masonry, within the State of Illinois, not derived from, or recognized by this Grand Lodge are declared to be clandestine, and all intercourse with or recognition of them or any of them, is prohibited."

The Committee on Correspondence reported that it had reviewed the proceedings of forty-one Grand Lodge in the United States and Canada. "Two main points," the committee observed, "are common in all the proceedings: (1) A loss of membership and (2) a struggle to keep up with increased costs."

In his Grand Master's Address, M.W. Bro. Gail N. Kemp gave his assessment of the Condition of the Craft. "There have been many positive developments in Indiana Freemasonry the past few years," he said, "and the fundamental tenets of our institution are as sound today as when they were originally developed. Yet Indiana Freemasonry, like the Fraternity everywhere, has serious challenges that must be confronted and addressed. We cannot afford to merely look back at a glorious past but must force ourselves to focus on the demands of the future. Our greatest challenge is developing effective leadership, especially at the local level." In his view, the increasing number of lodge closures and the steady reduction in membership "dramatically point out the crisis in our leadership." Our Worshipful Masters must feel empowered, even compelled, to enthusiastically promote Masonry at the lodge level."

Grand Lodge approved a recommendation that Entered Apprentices and Fellowcrafts be permitted to participate in a Masonic Memorial Service or a Masonic Funeral, although not as an officer. The Jurisprudence Committee cautioned that there could be a problem with Entered Apprentices wearing "their aprons in a manner different than the other participants and probably noticeable to the public." The committee feared that "such differences might detract from the solemnity of the occasion."

A resolution to lower the minimum age for Initiation to eighteen years was approved by Grand Lodge on the recommendation of the Jurisprudence Committee.

A Grand Master's Recommendation was adopted by Grand Lodge that "sufficient examination of a visiting Master Mason, unless vouched for, consists of the presentation of a valid dues card and taking the Test Oath found in the Indiana Monitor and Freemasons Guide."

The Executive Officer for Indiana, of DeMolay, reported on a successful year's operations. There had been a net growth in 2000.

The Study Committee appointed to examine alternate forms of conferring degrees reported that it had considered a number of proposals but it was not yet in a position to submit a specific recommendation. The G.L. Website is WWW.INDIANAMASON.ORG.

M.W. Bro. Lester C. Fleming announced at the outset of his Report as Grand Master that his major concern was the continued loss of membership and that his two principal hopes to alleviate the situation are involvement and pride. He explained his choices thus:

"Involvement in social activities including our ladies, whenever possible, in community activities and in charitable activities and Pride in our membership in the Masonic Fraternity, in the appearance of our temple and grounds and in our ritual. It is imperative that we be perceived as a Fraternity that is doing something and is proud of it."

With regard to the state of the Craft, the Grand Master identified two major concerns: the average age of members is getting higher and many lodges are amalgamating. Attracting more young men is the obvious solution to the first problem, but the solution of the second is more complicated. He agreed that two lodges located near each other that have attendance and membership problems may regard union as an easy way out of their difficulties. He stressed, however, that once a lodge goes from a community it becomes much more difficult to attract new members from that community. In this connection, he urged members of appendant and related Masonic bodies to give an equal amount of time, talent and leadership ability to their Masonic lodge for if Craft Masonry crumbles all of the other bodies will fall with it.

The Committee on Division and Reference, in reviewing the Grand Librarian's Report, observed that the Library had served hundreds of patrons, both Masons and non-Masons. The use of e-mail had enabled it to serve a much broader range of patrons: requests had been received by e-mail from as far away as Italy.

The Public Relations Committee reported that it continued the practice of issuing press releases for cornerstone ceremonies and other public events of Grand Lodge, which are usually covered by local print and broadcast media, making use of press releases issued by the committee. Assistance to subordinate lodges is given in the form of sample press releases for use locally. In addition, the committee is enthusiastic about the potential of electronic media in enlarging the scope of its work. It emphasized that "the internet provides tremendous opportunities for public relations. At this time, the Grand Lodge's Web Page and internet presence is co-ordinated by the Grand Secretary's office." The steps which have been taken to bring Grand Lodge into the internet age are recorded by the Committee on Division and Reference: "There has been a new website established at WWW.GL-IOWA.ORG which includes the Grand Master's programme and monthly calendar."

IRELAND

*Quarterly Communications and St. John's Day Communication
Belfast and Larne, Northern Ireland and Dublin and Limerick, Republic of Ireland
March, June, October and December, 2000*

On the occasion of the celebration of its 275th Anniversary at the June Communication, Grand Lodge received visitations from the Grand Masters (or representatives) of some thirty-seven Sister Jurisdictions, including the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario and six others from Canada. The climax of the celebration of the Anniversary was a Service of Thanksgiving for 275 years of continuous working. The Service was arranged in three parts, based on the Masonic concepts of Wisdom, Strength and Beauty, the universally recognized symbolic supports of all Masonic lodges.

At the October Quarterly Communication the Chairman of the Masonic Welfare Fund reported on the support given to research related to arthritis and Alzheimer's disease, as well as to the programme for cochlear implantation and the Royal National Lifeboat Institution. He commented on the lifting of the veil of secrecy that used to cover every aspect of Masonry, even its charities. "Now we are proud, or we should be proud," he stated, "to speak of the Order and particularly our charities." As an example of the change in attitude, he pointed out that the Welfare Fund gave its support recently to a weekend conference for young diabetics from all over Ireland between the ages of 18 and 24. Media reports of the Masonic participation gave the Fraternity "an outreach to society-at-large in line with the philosophy of Grand Lodge of being a part of society and not apart from society.”

In his speech on the occasion of St. John's Day in December, M.W. Bro. Darwin H. Templeton reported on the events of the Anniversary Celebration in June. He noted that the public was welcomed in many Masonic halls, where refreshments were provided as well as opportunities to ask questions about Masonry and to receive direct answers. The Grand Master regarded the occasion as a most successful exercise in public relations, which he hoped would be repeated in the future. M.W. Bro. Templeton made special mention of the fact that during the Celebration he had “the pleasure of constituting Lodge Ireland 2000, the first Internet Lodge in our Constitution.”

The Web Master gave a full report to the St. John's Day Communication on the continuing success of the Grand Lodge of Ireland Web Site: HTTP://WWW.IRISH-FREEMASONS.ORG. He stated that since its inauguration in 1998 the site had received over 42,000 visits, which came from 100 different countries or regions in all parts of the world, including 930 from Canada.

KANSAS

In commenting on the State of the Craft, M.W. Bro. Stanley Browning said in his Annual Address that the general decline in membership reflects a general feeling of apathy among the members. “Many of us,” he said, “are adverse to change. Brothers, the message is simple. Change or die. We cannot remain as we are. It is said that if we always do as we have always done, we will get the same as we have always gotten.” It was his belief that most lodges do things the same way over and over again because things are familiar that way and also because they believe that the old way is the best way. He drew attention to two needs that require serious rethinking: “We need to evaluate our use of time during a meeting. We need to elevate our standing and recognition in our community.” His message was that instead of asking Is everything OK in my Lodge? a Mason should ask himself What can I do to make things better? “We do not want things in our lodge to be just OK,” the Grand Master said in conclusion, “we want them to be the best they can be.”

The Church-Lodge Relations Committee reported that there had been no situations during the past year in which its assistance had been sought. Notwithstanding this period of calm, the committee sounded a note of caution: “It does, however, behoove all of us, either as lodges or as individual Masons, to be aware of what some would like others to believe. There are those who are actively working against what they believe to be harmful to society in our fraternity. If they would only open their hearts and minds to discover the truth! We need to be more knowledgeable so that we can, by word and by example, make known our gentle Craft.”

The Jurisprudence Committee recommended, and Grand Lodge approved, that the statement be deleted from its Constitution that Grand Lodge has exclusive jurisdiction over Ancient Free and Accepted Masonry in the State of Kansas. The Committee pointed out that the constitution had to be changed in this way to make it consistent with the action taken by Grand Lodge in 1999 relative to the recognition of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Kansas.

“We wanted to accomplish a sea change, because a sea change was necessary, not for change's sake but because we are fast being left behind by the rest of society,” said M.W.

Bro. Richard A. Porter in his Grand Master's Address. He warned his brethren that the Craft must change to be relevant, indeed even to survive. He predicted that when specific changes are voted on later in the Communication, some will object because of an honest belief that the changes are not the correct path: their opinion can be respected. Others may object because they want to remain in the past as it is easier than making changes: they will not survive. Others, even, may object for totally unworthy reasons that are not Masonic. In voting one must look past his own prejudices and see what is good for the Craft. "The older generation," he urged, "must allow the younger generation to take up the reins of leadership as their predecessors allowed them to do."

The Education and Training Committee reported that it had sponsored a Senior Wardens' Seminar which was designed to prepare the Senior Wardens to discharge their duties as Worshipful Masters. There are plans to have another seminar for Wardens as well as one for Wardens and Deacons. Additional seminars are being considered for Directors of Ceremonies and for Secretaries. At the request of the Grand Master, three publications were revised and updated and await publication. They are: (i) The Lodge Officers' Handbook, (ii) The Secretary's Handbook and (iii) The District Deputy Grand Master's Manual. Another project that the committee is working on is "to identify a focus for a series of leadership seminars designed to provide a clear vision of the importance, function and potential of the Craft in the 21st Century."

The Masonic Family Awareness Committee stated that its mandate is to provide information on all Masonic bodies operating in Manitoba. To this end it reported having participated in several events which the general public attended, including operation of an information table at the Shrine Circus and staffing at the Union Historic Lodge during the Thresherman's Reunion, as well as being in the Santa Claus parade.

Plans were announced for the current year's Annual Manitoba Masonic Retreat, to be held in September. In the words of the sponsoring committee, "It is a weekend for fellowship, camaraderie and fun with interesting speakers and topics to enhance your Masonic knowledge and provide you with additional skills you may find useful in your own lodges."

The title of the Grand Master's Address at the March Quarterly Communication was Freemasonry, a Link to the Twenty-first Century, in which he emphasized that "our way of life must reach out and touch the young, the old and everyone in between. Each Mason needs to become involved and share in the responsibility and challenge of bringing Masonry alive in his city or town, as well as where you work or at your place of worship."

As an example of reaching out into the community, M.W. Bro. Fred K. Bauer referred to the Masonic participation in the Child Identification Programme, which processed more than 53,000 children. A recent development in the programme was a joint venture with the Prince Hall Masons at the Boston Community Centres. Also, in co-operation with the Massachusetts Dental Society and the Massachusetts Crime Prevention Association, Masonic volunteers had "videotaped, fingerprinted and took 'Tooth prints' of 260 children," with ample TV and newspaper coverage.

The Committee for Masonic Education and Training reported at the December Quarterly Communication that it had conducted two successful training classes for prospective Lodge Masters. It was reported, also, that twenty lesson plans with a Masonic topic had been published and distributed for use by lodges in Masonic education activities.

MEXICO (YORK GRAND LODGE)138th Annual CommunicationMexico City, Mexico, March, 200014 Lodges*

The fact that lodges under the York Grand Lodge of Mexico work in more than one language (English 7, Spanish 6 and German 1) is reflected in M.W. Bro. Pablo Arturo Gomez Duran's Address, which was delivered partly in English and partly in Spanish.

The Grand Master expressed his pleasure that Grand Lodge is receiving increased international recognition. In addition to being a participant in the recent Conference of Grand Masters of North America in Atlanta, Georgia, the York Grand Lodge was invited to organize the next Southwestern Masonic Conference, which traditionally involved only Grand Lodges in the United States. It will be held in Guadalajara, Jalisco, which he described as "a beautiful city, full of splendour and tradition."

M.W. Bro. Duran commented on the role of the Internet in Masonic Education. Its usefulness in this role is unquestionable, he said, but due caution in its use is in order because "there are a lot of sites plagued with anti-masonic information." He reported, however, that there is a Web site in the United States that "aims to foster personal improvement of the people who visit it by offering, free of charge, some very interesting short courses and pertinent information. It is worth the time one spends there. The address is WWW.LEARN.COM."

The Grand Master reported on a recent decision of his with respect to the Internet. "In view of the fact," he said, "that young men surf the net most of the time, we thought that it would be appropriate to create our own Web Page with information about regular Masonry in Mexico and data to contact us." A Web Master was appointed who has contacts with those operating the official Web Pages of Grand Lodges in the United States and also York Rite Bodies. Arrangements have been made for the translation into Spanish and German of the material on the new Web Page. "The good news," M.W. Bro. Duran was proud to announce, "is that our page is already bearing some fruit. Our Grand Secretary has begun to receive calls from potential candidates. The page's address is WWW.YORKRITE.COM, once in it you select Mexico's Grand Lodge."

Notwithstanding the difficulties which the Fraternity is currently experiencing, M.W. Bro. Robert P. Conley concluded his Address to Grand Lodge with a statement of his confidence in its future. "The Craft," the Grand Master maintained, "is on an inexorable march forward. It needs, it demands strong leadership to keep its course true. We may stumble on the way, we may get off course, but know this: there is a bright day dawning when man will look upon man, not with hatred and jealousy, not with distrust and envy, but with love and hope, remembering in the words of the carpenter, 'that inasmuch as you have done these things for the least of these, my brethren, you have done them also unto me.'" When we can look at each other with this as our only thought that our dream has been fulfilled, then we can say our work is done."

In its report the Fraternal Relations Committee reviewed the discussions with the Prince Hall Grand Lodge concerning mutual recognition. In 1997 Grand Lodge recognized the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Michigan as "a legally constituted Grand Lodge of Masons, agreed to share concurrent jurisdiction with lodges of each Grand Lodge and authorized conversations on Masonry between members of each Grand Lodge." Since then there have been conversations between the principal officers of the two Grand Lodges on a number of related issues, including the rights and privileges that should accompany recognition. It was the committee's belief that the definition of recognition between the two Grand Lodges should be clarified.

The Michigan Masonic Juvenile Diabetes Committee reported that it had held 14 clinics and served 256 children through those clinics. The committee noted that "these are children who do not have access to a diabetes specialist. The families are very appreciative of the services offered to them." Also, the committee is involved with more than twenty School Districts in the School Based Test Programme and, through the Help a Child Programme, has assisted many children afflicted with Juvenile Diabetes.

The Computer Committee reported on the improvements in data processing service which Grand Lodge was enjoying from the purchase of current software and technical equipment. The connection of the Library to the network gave it secure access to the Web. The committee stated that it had been responsible for the selection of the Internet address for Grand Lodge: WWW.GRANDLODGEML.ORG.

Early in the proceedings of Grand Lodge there was a ceremony which is of considerable Masonic significance and may well be unique. The Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba brought back to Minnesota the International Brotherhood Friendship Gavel, which a year before had been placed in the care of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba. He presented it to the Grand Lodge of Minnesota for safekeeping for the following year. It was in 1979 that the Grand Lodge of Manitoba initiated the annual exchange of this gavel, which was made of Canadian maple by a craftsman in the United States and travels in a container that was made of black walnut from the United States by a craftsman in Canada.

M.W. Bro. Jeffrey N. Lewis introduced his Address with a very familiar quotation: "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for Brethren to dwell together in unity." He emphasized that his theme for the year, "Together we can build a Masonic Community," was in his view more than just a slick slogan. It was meant to be a programme for the entire Masonic Family. He noted that two Shrine Temples had made his theme part of their focus for the year. He acknowledged that the Shrine made effective use of public relations regarding their charitable activities and consequently it was by far the most recognized fraternal organization in the community. He wondered about the effect on the public recognition of Masonry if the Shrine hospital system were called the Masonic Shrine Hospital for Children.

As he was, in his words, "a firm believer that the more the public knows about us, the better off we are," M.W. Bro. Lewis was pleased to see that "many of the lodges got involved in their community by use of the Kids ID Programme that was started this year. The success of the programme far exceeded any of our expectations." He suggested that public awareness of current Masonic charitable activities could be increased and also that feelings of Masonic Family togetherness could be strengthened by giving ample publicity in the publications of Grand Lodge and of individual lodges to the work of the appendant bodies. "Wouldn't it be great," he mused, "to promote the charities and activities of the York Rite, Scottish Rite, Shrine, Eastern Star and Youth Groups to all the Masons of Minnesota?"

In its Annual Report the Minnesota Masonic Historical Society and Museum stated that it considered its mission to be "the collection, preservation and dissemination of knowledge about the history of Freemasonry and its concordant, antecedent, descendent or derivative organizations and activities and to relate that history to that of the State of Minnesota."

The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Rooduyzen, commented with pleasure on the explosion during the year of public relations activities by the constituent lodges. Among these there were the 225th year jubilee of Edelmoedigheid Lodge and the 200th year jubilee for Silentium Lodge, as well as several anniversaries of younger lodges. In addition, a new lodge was opened in Emmen.

For the benefit of those about to become Worshipful Masters, the Grand Executive authorized one-day training seminars to give practical assistance to help them to prepare themselves for leadership. These seminars have two training objectives: (i) to introduce future Masters to the various aspects of the position so that they will be better able to lead their lodges and (ii) to prepare them for the administrative side of governing the lodge. An interesting feature of this training programme was the effort to avoid a "school-like" environment, in which one is treated as if he knew nothing about the subjects under discussion. The course will be given in regional centres, so as to enable as many as possible to attend.

As a result of changes in society it was considered necessary to rewrite the Constitution of Grand Lodge. This was done after lengthy discussions with the lodges. A warning was given, however, that as fundamental changes in society undoubtedly will continue to occur, it will probably become necessary in the future to consider additional changes in the Constitution.

The Grand Master reported on his recent trip to Eastern Europe. He found that interest in Masonry in the former Communist countries is enormous. He attended the 10th Anniversary of the Grand Lodge of Poland, but he was told that Masonry had been active underground even while the Communists were in power. The Grand Executive strongly recommended that Dutch Freemasons join those of Germany and Switzerland in supporting the new Grand Lodges.

M.W. Bro. Roodhayzen announced that a professor had been appointed by the University of Leiden for the recently established Chair in Freemasonry as Spirituality and a Social Cultural Phenomenon. The first college course had already been given.

Until lately the Grand Lodge Web site had been administered by two Brothers who had the interest and qualifications to do so. The Grand Master stated, however, that because of the increase in the use of the Internet the Grand Executive decided to establish a committee to take over that responsibility. The address of the Grand Lodge Website is WWW.VRIJMETSELARIJ.NL.

Speaking of the condition of Masonry in Nevada, the Grand Master reported that he was pleased with the health of the subordinate lodges generally. In some lodges in small centres, however, M.W. Bro. George P. Williams found potential problems, but he was able to suggest ways to correct them. On the other hand, most of the lodges in larger communities are enjoying considerable success, with increases in petitions and participation. In this connection he reminded members of Grand Lodge that he had endorsed the "Friend to Friend" tapes and also the Masonic Renewal Programme.

A Resolution was introduced to remove a provision in the Nevada Masonic Code which prevented the Master of a lodge from holding a Masonic Funeral Service for a deceased Entered Apprentice or Fellowcraft, even though a service had been requested by the family. The following amendment to the Code was approved by Grand Lodge: "The Master of a constituent lodge, in his sole discretion, may authorize and direct that a funeral service be conducted for a deceased Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft who has received the Entered Apprentice Degree in the constituent lodge over which that Master presides."

The Nevada Masonic Library reported that all the books on the shelves had been inventoried in preparation for being entered in the library's new computer. It noted that plans had been formulated to use the computer to locate books in the library and scan them for specific articles upon request by users. A recent innovation that is likely to be popular is a collection of Masonic video cassettes which are located near a television set.

The Report of the Internet Committee was presented by the Grand Webmason. He reported that the committee serves Grand Lodge by preparing new content pages for the Grand Lodge Web site and by maintaining existing pages. "A completely new look for the Web site is in the works," he indicated, "and should be implemented soon." The Grand Webmason requested that every Worshipful Master make certain that his lodge has an e-mail contact person appointed and that copies of all Trestle Boards are sent to the committee. If the lodges cooperate by sending information about upcoming events, as well as reports (and photographs, if available) after the event, the Grand Webmason promised to "turn the Grand Lodge Website into a Nevada Masonic Newsletter, at no or minimal cost to Grand Lodge." The committee announced that the address of the Grand Lodge Web Site is WWW.NVMASONS.ORG.

In his Annual Report the Grand Secretary referred to the fact that some clergy are still completely ignorant concerning the nature of Freemasonry. "Lodges in some areas," he reported, "are still being bothered by well meaning, misinformed Clergy. The Grand Lodge Office has pamphlets available explaining our point of view to the general public and are available upon request." They include, (i) A Response to Critics of Freemasonry, (ii) Who Are the Masons? and (iii) There is No Sin in Symbols. He stated that a complete list of all materials available from his office had been sent to each lodge.

M.W. Bro. James H. Pike, in his Grand Master's Address, stated that work had been completed regarding "the re-writing and condensing of the Mentor programme, making it more understandable for all concerned. It was accepted by the Board of General Purposes for the use of all Craft lodges in this jurisdiction."

The Grand Master noted that notwithstanding the many efforts to explain the Masonic Renewal Programme and promote its use, it still creates much confusion as to its content and intent. "The intent," M.W. Bro. Pike explained, "is to create lodges that provide an atmosphere to their members that the members find satisfying and rewarding. The research that has been done shows that there are certain things that men look for in a Fraternal Organization, and these are: Friendship; Fellowship; A chance to perform community service; A chance to socialize with friends; A chance to involve their families; An opportunity to make contacts; An opportunity to learn to lead; An opportunity to lead."

The New Brunswick Masonic Charities and Housing Company Ltd. reported that the N. B. Masons Camp Goodtime (with 52 campers and counsellors in attendance) held an eight-day camp for children ages 7 to 13 with a history of cancer. A cheque for $24,000 was given to the Canadian Cancer Society, N. B. Division, to fund the N. B. Masons Camp Goodtime for 2000. Another children's charity supported by New Brunswick Masons is the Deaf Blind Rubella Summer Camp, where four children who have been afflicted with deafness and/or blindness since birth, are funded annually for a one-week camp.

The Masonic Renewal Committee found that a more successful way than District Seminars to develop interest in the Renewal Programme was private visits to lodges to discuss the specific problems of a lodge with an eye to what Renewal might have for solutions. It was the committee's experience that "these private sessions tend to be very effective. The lodge officers can open up and state their own problems without feeling embarrassed because 'outsiders' are listening." The committee suggested that in future more emphasis should be placed on these private sessions.

The Grand Master's Commission on Masonic Preservation, Advancement, Structure, Symbolism, Education and Strength (commonly referred to as COMPASSES) reported to the Semi-Annual Communication that it had reviewed and studied various topics which had been suggested by New Hampshire Masons of all ranks from the Grand Master to a recently raised Master Mason. One of these suggestions, which the committee recommended, was that the minimum age for initiation be lowered from twenty-one to eighteen years. Another proposal was that the Stated Meeting of a lodge could be opened and business conducted in any Degree, not in a lodge of Master Masons only as currently required. It was pointed out that this practice, which is widely followed throughout the world, has been adopted by fourteen Grand Lodges in the United States. The committee recommended it because "this would allow Entered Apprentices and Fellowcrafts the opportunity to attend meetings and listen and learn how the lodge is run." In response to the objection that this would give them the right to vote, it was pointed out that only members of the lodge can vote and that one is not a member of the lodge until he is raised to the Degree of Master Mason. Both of these committee recommendations were referred to the Annual Communication, where they were approved by Grand Lodge.

M.W. Bro. Jeremy L. Sawyer reminded Grand Lodge, in his Address at the Annual Communication, that he had written to all lodges suggesting ways in which they could help strengthen the Craft in today's society. "I want to express my appreciation," the Grand Master said, "to the many lodges that took heed by promoting Masonic Awareness in their respective communities." He identified a number of ways in which this had been done: Friendship or Enlightenment Nights, Community Builders Programmes, participation in Church and Civic activities, Old Homes Days, Parades, the Matching Funds Programme and public dedications, together with support of other worthwhile causes in the community. All such activities, in M.W. Bro. Sawyer's opinion, "collectively help to make Freemasonry visible to those like-minded and would-be Masons who witness your good works."

The Data Processing Committee reported that it is continuing to improve the data processing capabilities and information services of Grand Lodge. With the expansion of the use of e-mail and Web pages at the lodge level, the committee stressed that the lodge is responsible for the information about the lodge or any of its members which it disseminates in this way. In particular, "a candidate's name or a distressed Brother's name must NEVER be used in this medium."

Regarding the State of the Craft, M.W. Bro. Mark V. Vander Vere went straight to the point when he said some lodges "have become so comfortable with themselves that they have left little room for new members and/or new ideas. I wish for them to gain the ability to see into the future and to change direction and attitude." On the other hand, he referred to some lodges "that involve themselves in community activity are gaining ground at a pace that all should envy. I would wish that the brethren leave this session with a resolve to go back to their communities, involve themselves in some sort of programme within their towns and reap the harvest that always comes."

One District Deputy Grand Master gave an interesting account of his investigation of what he called a Maverick Lodge in his district. It is, he said, a lodge that "does things that some lodges have never done and lodges have done, but don't do anymore." Actually it was his own lodge that he was talking about and he confessed that his examination of it made him see it in a different light and made him question things that he had always taken for granted. In short, his lodge can be considered different because it had a net gain in membership of 18 during the previous year. This was no Flash in the Pan for "after ten years of losing membership, in 1995 we had a gain of 9, and in the years 1995 through 2000 (six years) we have had a gain of 45 from 104 to 149 members. That is a gain of 43 percent in six years." He gave some of the credit for the unusually large gain in membership to the ALL THE WAY IN A DAY ceremonies. It was his conviction, however, that the main reason for its success is that the members of the lodge are finding that going there is fun and not a boring chore. After identifying various ways in which this sense of having fun has been developed, he told his brethren that if conditions and results are satisfactory in a lodge, nothing needs to be changed, but if they are unsatisfactory changes probably should be made. "To put it in simple terms," he concluded, "if you keep doing what you have been doing, you'll keep getting what you've got."

The Masonic Foundation of Nova Scotia reported that it had awarded 121 scholarships (with a total value of $75,350) to secondary school students planning to attend either a university in Atlantic Canada or a community college in Nova Scotia. Also, the Foundation co-operates with the Big Brothers and Sisters of Nova Scotia in the School Monitoring Programme. Its goal is "to establish a one-to-one relationship between a mentor and a needy student to improve the confidence, self-esteem and school interest of those children identified by school personnel as not reaching their full potential but with the ability to do so, given a little help." There were 43 participating schools in 2000, with 200 child-mentor matches. The Foundation contributed $20,000 in support of this undertaking and in return Masonry received favourable recognition in extensive newspaper, radio and television coverage.

In his Address as Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Arthur Stanley Brown spoke of his theme:

IN UNITY WE SUCCEED. He pointed out that this will require unity in recognizing that change will occur, indeed it must occur. "Change," he said, "is not cheap in monetary terms but neither is the path of erosion that we have been on and that many appear to be oblivious to. There have always been and always will be those who argue against change for one reason or another but offer no solutions. That is the attitude that got us here and it is surely the attitude that will keep us here. Reject it!"

The Grand Secretary's Report recorded that three Lodges had "retired their charters, along with all books of accounts, membership registers and all other records and lodge seals." The reasons for these surrenders were given as "lack of member participation, declining membership and increasing economic pressures." The Grand Secretary reported that the Aldrich Atlantic Conference, at its recent meeting in Winnipeg, Manitoba, had examined the viability of this Conference and "after much discussion and soul searching it was unanimously decided to terminate this annual event. The feeling was that the Aldrich Atlantic Conference was redundant since it was so similar in nature to the All Canada Conference."

In submitting the Report of the Board of General Purposes, the Deputy Grand Master spoke of the need for the members to be told of actions of the Board in a timely fashion so that they would be advised of the discussions of the Board as they occurred. He announced that the minutes of meetings were "mailed to each Lodge Secretary and, with the use of current computer technology, placed on the Grand Lodge Web Site. Also, the Policies and Procedures of the Board of General Purposes have been distributed to all lodges and placed on the Web site as well."

As the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Ronald R. Rogers, had passed away on September 8, 2000, this Communication of Grand Lodge was presided over by R.W. Bro. Jack L. Allen, Deputy Grand Master. There was a Memorial Service for M.W. Bro. Rogers prior to the formal opening of Grand Lodge.

Before his death M.W. Bro. Rogers had prepared his Address, which was read to Grand Lodge. In it he stated his belief in the principles of Freemasonry and in the Craft's future. He said, "My theme, Freemasonry – A Pathway To The New Millennium, exemplifies my belief that Masonry will endure the changes in our society and the world. Our Masonic values, thoughts and rituals will give us a good foundation as we usher in the new millennium and the unknown future." These words from a workman whose example to his fellows was outstanding and who had laid down the tools of this life not only renewed the purpose and resolve of the Ohio Masons to whom they were first directed, but still can inspire Masons everywhere.

The Director of Programme Development reported on the participation by Grand Lodge in the Masonic Model Student Assistance Programme, which seeks to help train teachers and other "the early and effective intervention with students who are demonstrating patterns of behaviour that could threaten their success at school." Increased grants from Grand Lodge made it possible to double the number of training seminars for those working in the schools.

Of the more than 300 "visits" to the Grand Lodge Internet site some 125, as reported by the Director of Programme Development, "were from non Masons specifically indicating an interest in joining the Fraternity. Each of these was forwarded to a local lodge contact for follow-up and we now have more than 20 new Masons in Ohio, who made their initial contact via our Web page."

The Youth Organizations Committee reported that DeMolay, Job's Daughters and Rainbow for Girls are enjoying marked success. All three groups are present on the Internet, with Web pages with information about their activities. The committee reminded Grand Lodge that youth groups are dependent on Adult Leaders for success and that Masonic lodges have the principal responsibility for providing that leadership. In order to develop more awareness of the youth groups, the committee suggested that lodges invite them to come to lodge and exemplify their degrees or, alternatively, a lodge could go and visit one of the groups at its meeting. The committee's message was, "The future of our Country and our Fraternity is in the hands of these young people."

In speaking of the state of the Craft, M.W. Bro. Lanny R. Sander spoke plainly of both the bright side and the dark side of things. On the bright side of the picture, he was encouraged by the positive attitude of those whom he met at meetings. The unity of the Masonic Family within the State and the willingness to work together for the benefit of all Masonic Bodies was outstanding. Many lodges have been receiving petitions and conferring degrees for the first time in years. He commented on the fact that more lodges are participating in Grand Lodge programmes and are active in community service projects than has been the case for some time. On the dark side, however, he observed that "some lodges are not sharing in this renewal spirit. They are sitting inside the four walls of the lodge waiting for some one to magically bring new members and life to their lodge." Renewal must come from within the lodge, he said, it cannot come from the outside. His warning was unequivocal: "If the brethren are unwilling to work to make it happen, they are going to lose their lodges and Masonry will die in the community."

The traditional support of Grand Lodge to the Public School system was reflected in an amended statement of the duties of the Grand Lodge Committee on Public Schools: "The committee shall be responsible to develop and maintain a Grand Lodge Public School programme to (1) advance the awareness of lodge brethren in the role that Freemasonry had in the origins of the Public School System; (2) champion the continuing support Freemasonry provides in Public Education; and (3) reinforce the credibility of the Masonic belief in the value of Public Education as a system to educate its citizenry." This amendment was approved by Grand Lodge.

Another amendment was approved by Grand Lodge to establish concurrent jurisdiction within the State by individual lodges over candidates. It was recognized that territorial jurisdiction can create situations that inhibit applicants from joining.

A report was received from the Salvation Army Partnership Committee indicating that there had been an increase in the number of lodges and individual Masons participating in such activities as bell ringing, toy collection and Home Energy Aid Day since the programme was instituted a couple years ago. Several lodges are having independent fund raising projects on behalf of the Salvation Army, which indicated that "in the time the Masonic Fraternity has been assisting revenues have just about tripled." The committee made this observation: "Being able to partner with the nation's top-rated charity can only help us in our quest for better relations and respect within our individual communities."

The Committee on Membership Retention and Development gave a preliminary report to the March Communication. The committee which had been appointed in December, 1999, stated that its mandate is "to conduct a searching investigation into four basic questions regarding membership retention and development, viz., Where were we? Where are we? Where do we want to be? How do we expect to get there?"

The Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Robert L. Dluge, Jr., said in his report at the December Communication that during the past year he had sought to return to some of the basics of the Fraternity, such as Truth, Relief and Brotherly Love. He identified policies and actions by which he tried to exemplify those principles.

In its report to the December Communication, the Committee on Internet Services stated that the Internet is "the perfect medium for building Freemasonry in Pennsylvania. It is both a business tool and an educational resource. In our first two years, we focussed on educational materials to share with our members and the general public. This year we have begun the long process of providing tools for improving what we do and how we do it."

The Grand Lodge Web Site has had its most successful year to date, "with over 100,000 visits to the site via the home page, countless other visitors going directly from search engines to the information they wanted and over 1,000,000 pages of information about Freemasonry." Besides the Grand Master's module and the Grand Secretary's module, the following are offered to visitors: a Guest Book (with 537 messages from around the world), the Masonic Homes module, the How to Join page, the Online Gift Shop, the Online Circulating Library, the Online Speakers Guide and, new this year, the Online Employment Centre.

The creation of the Online Employment Centre was proposed by the Grand Master to give Pennsylvania Masons the "exclusive opportunity to post resumes and job opportunities for Brother Masons. In this age of equal opportunity employment, this may seem to be anachronistic, but these are not employer postings – this is a private system of networking where Masons share opportunities with their Brothers, with the choice of initial anonymity allowing for discreet inquiry. We do not charge a fee nor do we know if anyone is hired or rejected."

The Committee on Internet Services has a privacy policy to assure members and visitors that information is not being misused. "We respect the privacy of all who come freely to our Grand Lodge Website." Its address is WWW.PAGRANLodge.ORG.

In his Grand Master's Report M.W. Bro. Franklin J. Demonteverde reviewed some aspects of the work of Grand Lodge which he set out a year previously to improve. The Masonic Education Programme was one of these. He indicated that he had established the Institute of Masonic Education and Studies, to be a guide in the development of a structured and progressive Masonic education programme for the Jurisdiction. Another was the Youth Programme. He reported that he had had some success in his efforts to encourage lodges to sponsor the establishment of local bodies of DeMolay, Job's Daughters or Rainbow for Girls, since two DeMolay Chapters had been sponsored by lodges during the year. Also, he had arranged needed financial assistance to two Assemblies of Rainbow for Girls for local projects which they had undertaken.

M.W. Bro. Demonteverde said perhaps the most significant action which had been taken with respect to the revitalization of the Craft in the jurisdiction was an increase in the assimilation of families into the Masonic way of life. It was his belief that Masons should stop hiding their Masonic identities and charities, but must involve themselves publicly in community programmes. He said that Masons should educate their families with regard to the tenets of Freemasonry and encourage them to join the corresponding affiliated organizations. "In this way," he observed, "they will be our very effective propagandists, if we ever need any."

With reference to the Institute of Masonic Education and Studies, which M.W. Bro. Demonteverde mentioned in his report, the Grand Master's Edict establishing it and setting forth the details concerning its organization, administrative procedures, methods of instruction and curriculum was presented to Grand Lodge and approved. The authorized Syllabus of the Institute included the following:

I Masonic History

Origins of Freemasonry; Transition from Operative to Speculative Masonry (Prior to and After 1717); Development of Speculative Masonry and its relevance to Society; Masonry in the Philippines.

II Masonic Jurisprudence, Laws and Regulations

Ancient Landmarks; General Regulations; Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the Philippines; Lodge By-Laws.

III Masonic Philosophy

Definition of Masonry, Its Purposes and Goals; The Craft's Doctrines and Principles; Its role in Society.

IV Masonic Symbolism and Liturgy (or Ritual)

The Lessons, Philosophy and Symbolism of each Degree; Organizational Structure of the Craft in the Philippines, York Rite Masonry and Scottish Rite Masonry.

Although there were no new projects initiated during the past year, M.W. Bro. W. Leigh Newcombe announced that three of the Millennium Projects undertaken during the previous year were being carried over. One of these is locating primary source materials relating to the early history of Masonry in Prince Edward Island which would be of value to the Grand Lodge Library and Museum. He expressed the hope that these materials might be donated to the library. Another project that is progressing well is the erection of a Masonic Family Cairn in recognition of all the Masonic Bodies in the Jurisdiction. The final Millennium Project is the publication of a history of all the Masonic Bodies of the Jurisdiction. The Grand Master indicated that the history, consisting of approximately 1,000 pages in two volumes, is something that every P.E.I. Mason should have (price: $27.50).

The Committee on Membership observed that social changes might be a factor in the decline in membership in recent years. For example, where both partners in a marriage are working the resulting pressures on the use of time may be one reason why some younger members find it difficult to make a serious commitment to the Craft. Although the committee recognized that "We cannot compromise our principles simply to attract membership," it pointed out some ways in which a lodge can improve its position. These included (1) Open House (at least annually); (2) Open Installation; (3) Games Night; (4) Members recognition (birthday, anniversary); (5) Float in local parade; (6) Ladies Night; (7) Supper meeting.

A Resolution was proposed by the Committee on the Condition of the Order (and approved by Grand Lodge) that communication be established with the Prince Hall Grand Lodges of Massachusetts and Connecticut "with the objective of achieving with each a state of full mutual recognition and exchange of Grand Representatives."

The Internet Committee reminded Grand Lodge that the Web site for the P.E.I. Grand Masonic Family, which was founded in 2000, is intended for all Masonic Bodies in the Jurisdiction, as its name implies. Local bodies in P.E.I. of the following branches of Masonry have become involved: Royal Arch Masonry, Cryptic Rite, Chivalric Rite and Constantinian Masonry. The committee stated that "the Grand Lodge Constitution, scholarship application forms and the complete Proceedings of the 2000 Annual Communication are just a few of the electronic documents we are now maintaining in an ever-growing online library." During its year of operation, the Web site had over 800 visitors. The committee recommended that each lodge appoint a Webmaster. It advised that "the website for the Grand Masonic Family can be found by pointing an internet browser to HTTP://WWW.MASTERMASON.COM/PEI/."

In his Address to Grand Lodge M.W. Bro. John J. McNamee spoke of the need for the Fraternity to be more widely and more favourably known in the community. He was, therefore, recommending that the Board of General Purposes take under consideration the need for a Public Relations programme "aimed at enhancing our image in our communities with the emphasis on attracting new members." He recognized that this would probably be costly, but he considered that it was a necessary expense. "I believe that we have been selling ourselves short for too long," he said, "and it is time that we followed the lead of those jurisdictions that are solving their problems."

The Lodge Development and Renewal Committee, in considering the Condition of Masonry, examined the reasons for the differences in attendance at Lodge Meetings, which ranged from poor to good. It found that among the causes of poor attendance were lack of interest, employment, seasonal and community activities. It found, however, that "where a lodge had planned activities, attendance was reported to be good. Planned activities are supported as they stimulate the members' interest and encourage their lodge attendance." It was the considered opinion of the committee, therefore, that "Lodge activities are important for the continued existence of our Fraternity, as they generate internal enthusiasm and afford external visibility."

Regarding the Order of DeMolay and the International Order of Job's Daughters the Youth Programmes Committee reported on their continued success. The committee recommended that because the Masonic Youth Leadership Camp had been so successful in 2000, it should be offered again to any young person entering Grades 10, 11 or 12 in September, 2001. Another recommendation of the committee was that DeMolay and Job's Daughters should continue to receive financial and physical support from Grand Lodge and constituent lodges, as well as from individual members.

The Grand Secretary reported that extensive changes had been made during the past year in the operational procedures in the Grand Lodge Office. In particular, a new database system of the membership of the jurisdiction had been installed. "The new computer system," the Grand Secretary reported, "has been successfully integrated and has given us the expected capacity and capability of faster response and closer liaison with constituent lodges." In addition, improved liaison with non-Masons in the community, whether local, throughout the province or the world, is possible by way of the Grand Lodge Website: WWW.MASONS.SK.CA.

M.W. Bro. Gilbert L. Martin gave a favourable assessment of the current condition of Masonry in the jurisdiction. "While there remain many areas that can be improved upon and much work remains to be done," he said, "the state of the Craft in South Carolina is good."

The Grand Master stated that he had been pleased to continue the tradition established by his predecessors of writing a letter of welcome to every newly raised Master Mason. He said that he had used "these letters to provide information about the Masonic Light, some of the appendant bodies of Masonry and, until I ran out, to send a Grand Master's lapel pin to each brother whose name and address was provided to me by their lodge. I urge my successor in this office to do the same."

With reference to the increasing number of mergers of lodges, M.W. Bro. Martin observed that "declining membership, advancing age of our members and, more importantly, declining participation is beginning to have serious effects on the ability of some lodges" to remain viable. While he longed for the day that the conditions causing these mergers would disappear, he expressed the hope "that good Masons in lodges in trouble will face up to the times and take corrective action and consider merging together as an honourable course to consider."

A Resolution was adopted to change the Code of the Grand Lodge of South Carolina relative to the qualifications for membership so as to lower the minimum age of an applicant. The clause was amended to read as follows:

"Section 99: QUALIFICATIONS – GENERAL: An applicant for the degrees of Freemasonry must believe in a Supreme Being, must be eighteen years of age, under the tongue of good report, having resided in this State for twelve consecutive months immediately preceding his application and must be able to read and write English."

In his Annual Report M.W. Bro. W. Vernon Burke, Jr., spoke of his encouragement in seeing in every lodge and in every region of Texas evidence that "Masons are getting involved in their communities and the communities are getting involved in Masonry." In his view, this will attract new members. "People want to help each other," he pointed out, "but some people don't know how. We can show them how. Get more involved in your community and then your community will get more involved with you. In a lot of cases, very successful projects are the end result of the efforts of just a few people, sometimes no more than two people, who cared."

The Committee on Youth Activities thanked Grand Lodge for the financial support extended to DeMolay, Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters: a cheque for $1,000 was given to each organization. The committee stated that its duty is to advise and assist the leadership of each organization, to be a liaison between each and the Grand Master and to submit pictures and information about youth activities to the Grand Lodge Webmaster. There is a need for more lodges to sponsor youth groups, and for Masons to be Adult Leaders.

The TOGETHER AGAINST DRUG ABUSE programme, with the help of thirty-nine lodges (as reported by the Committee on Special Assignments) was presented in thirty-nine schools to over 3,600 fifth graders. The programme is intended to give children reliable information on alcohol, tobacco and drugs and to have someone to help them to build good self-esteem and self-worth.

As its guiding principle the Committee on Public Relations stated its belief that Masonry needs "all of the positive exposure that can be had." The "Ask a Mason" programme is broadcast all over Texas, resulting in over 350 calls to the Masonic Hot Line.

Another responsibility of the Committee on Public Relations is the maintenance of the Grand Lodge Web Pages. Their purpose is "to provide information to Texas Masons, Masons around the world and non Masons who are curious or are interested in becoming a member of our Fraternity." Included in the Web pages is a listing of all Masonic lodges in Texas, with their addresses, meeting dates and times. There is other information of interest to Masons and non Masons alike, as well as links to the Web pages of other Grand Lodges in the United States and around the world. "Well over 500 non Masons viewing our web pages," the Committee reported, "have asked for more information about Masonry, and how to become a member of the Fraternity, during the past year. Information has been sent to them and their enquiries have been sent to the lodges. The Grand Lodge Web Pages can be found at the following URL address (note that all characters are lower case): www.gltexas.org."

"DeMolay in Vermont is thriving," M.W. Bro. Earl J. Washburn told Grand Lodge. He described DeMolay as Masonry's minor league system, where young men are cultivated into a life of moral values. In urging lodges to consider sponsoring a DeMolay Chapter, he told them that "It would be a great way to rejuvenate a lodge."

The Grand Master spoke of a new format for presenting Masonic learning seminars. A seminar was held in March, 2000, where those in attendance met in television studios located in different parts of the State. With the facilities of the Vermont Interactive Television System these studios had two-way closed circuit visual and audio links with a central studio. In this way, Masons in widely separated parts of Vermont not only could experience an audio-visual presentation made by a man who was regarded as well informed, but also could ask questions and express their agreement or disagreement with the speaker. Although this experimental use of technology experienced some difficulties, M.W. Bro. Washburn stated that they were problems that could be eliminated easily in future sessions. It was his recommendation that continued use be made of this communications format for training and leadership purposes because, in his words, "As Grand Lodge officers, we could not travel this great State seven or eight different times during the winter with the success that the VIT Seminar had."

A more detailed account of the Interactive Television Seminar was given by R.W. Bro. Robert Fuller, D.D.G.M., who introduced his account of the event with these words: "The Year 2000 A.D. witnessed a quantum leap by the Grand Lodge of Vermont in its approach to Masonic education for Vermont brethren." Six local television studios were selected and the total seating capacity of these studios determined the maximum possible attendance. Those invited to attend the introductory seminar were, for the most part, Masters and Secretaries of lodges. In attendance were 146 members from 70 of the 89 lodges in Vermont (78%). Four topics formed the agenda: (1) Duties and Responsibilities of Lodge Secretaries; (2) Masonic Protocol and Etiquette; (3) Rejuvenation of Subordinate Lodges; (4) Masonic Assistance and Relief. For each topic there was a presentation, followed by an interactive forum for exchanges between speakers and members of studio audiences, with a five minute recess between topics. Evaluations contained praise, ideas for improvement and requests for its repetition annually.

The Grand Secretary commented in his report on the number of requests for admission into Vermont lodges from residents in New Hampshire, New York and Massachusetts, which are border States. To facilitate communication, he reminded his hearers, "Grand Lodge has a Web page and the address is: WWW.VTFREEMASONS.ORG".

In his Address following his Installation as Grand Master at the March Quarterly Communication, M.W. Bro. C. B. Stewart announced that "A major change in direction this year is a closer involvement of partners and families in the activities of the Craft. The historical acceptance of the family being excluded while the man went out and enjoyed his Freemasonry is gradually fading and today there is much greater openness. Tonight is only the second occasion that persons who are not Freemasons have been invited to attend our Grand Installation."

The Grand Master spoke of the decline in membership caused by the demise of so many ex-servicemen from the Second World War. In these circumstances each subordinate lodge has a responsibility and must play its part faithfully for the Craft to survive. "The task of the lodges is to think ahead," he stated, "predict what the future will be, determine how to go about replacing those who will not be there in the future, plan for the retention of membership and decide what role the lodge will play in the community."

At the June Quarterly Communication, M.W. Bro. Stewart further outlined his thoughts concerning the role of individual Masons and of the subordinate lodges regarding the survival of the Craft: "If we are attempting to attract men into Freemasonry, we are only half doing the job. It should not only be our intention to attract them to join, but to enjoy it, contribute to it, gain something from it and remain as members. I have said it before and will continue to say it again — we (you and I) must make our lodges a place where men want to be."

The Board of General Purposes in its report at the September Quarterly Communication announced that it had endorsed the recently published book, A Concord of Sweet Sounds, a new book of music and odes to accompany the ritual. It is to be the only approved compilation of music for use in the Jurisdiction.

The Quarterly Report of the Board of General Purposes to the December Communication reviewed the publications of Grand Lodge. With reference to the brochure entitled Freemasonry and Christianity, the President of the Board indicated that "it was felt by several Board members that the focus could be widened to include coverage of other religions."

M.W. Bro. William L. Holliday announced that his theme would be MOVING FREEMASONRY FORWARD. Although he realized that everything could not be achieved in one year, he believed that with the help of his brethren he could build on what had been accomplished in recent years. He pointed out, however, that "This does not mean that the survival of Freemasonry lies in trying new things. Survival lies in a renewed commitment, in excitement, in men being passionate about this great Fraternity." It was his conviction that, if men from every walk of life brought their talents and creativity to Freemasonry, and worked together as a team, they could succeed in Moving Freemasonry Forward into the 21st Century.

The Grand Master thanked members of Grand Lodge who were active with DeMolay, Job's Daughters and Rainbow for Girls as advisors and in providing transportation, as well as in other ways. "I firmly believe," he said, "that the future of Freemasonry depends on our Masonic youth. The DeMolays and the boyfriends of the girls will be the Master Masons of the future and the girls will be the future of our women's organizations."

Supplementing the Grand Master's remarks on Masonic youth, the report of the Grand Lodge Committee on Youth suggested some ways that districts and lodges can assist the youth organizations. These included: (1) Have a planned presence for youth at Grand Master's visits and Area Conferences; (2) Visit meetings and installations of the youth organizations; (3) Encourage Masons to act as advisors; (4) Give the youth leaders the names and addresses of good prospects; (5) Sponsor a scholarship for a training event related to DeMolay, Job's Daughters or Rainbow for Girls, on the understanding that the attendee will later come to a district/lodge meeting and report on the experience.

The Committee on History reported that it is "considering implementing an oral history programme where some of our older Masons can be interviewed and give their memories and thoughts on their life as a Mason." The committee is encouraging every lodge to submit a short history to Grand Lodge so that the information can be incorporated in a database that is being developed.

The Grand Master's optimism concerning the future of Freemasonry was reflected in his Annual Address when he stated, "I think the state of the Craft is improving." As evidence of this improvement he observed that "59 lodges had all three of their stationed officers at a school of instruction" which had been held recently. He did comment, however, that because the ritual and the laws of Masonry go hand in hand, "I would like to see our laws studied in our lodges."

With reference to correspondence from the Prince Hall Grand Lodge, the committee on Foreign Correspondence noted in its report that in some cases "requests for recognition were proposed in the form of a Compact complete with rules under which this recognition would be implemented." The committee drew attention to the fact that in one case there was a rule which specified that visits could take place only upon the invitation of the Grand Master or of the Master of the lodge to be visited.

The Committee on Internet/Web site reported that a few lodges had used the internet during the year to announce lodge events, and to give notification of special communications of the lodge. There were, also, a small number of requests from people seeking information about their family genealogy.

In his Grand Master's Report, M.W. Bro. Stephen D. Willett observed that the fraternity had had an enthusiastic and motivated year with Masonic activities in all regions of the State, notwithstanding the fact that some lodges were experiencing serious difficulties. He concluded his report by reminding Grand Lodge that "The challenge that remains for the lodges is to continue to develop successors to each part and make sure that the progressive line is continually refreshed with new Brothers."

The Fraternal Relations With Prince Hall Committee reported that the committee was continuing to meet "in peace and harmony" with the corresponding Committee of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge. It noted that, although visitations between lodges of the two jurisdictions were taking place, these were occurring on a more limited scale than had been hoped for. In stressing the need for more interjurisdictional participation in community events, the committee made this observation: "We should attempt to become seen as a unified body rather than two separate organizations, if our practices and beliefs are the same."

The Executive Officer of DeMolay in Wisconsin, who is a Past Grand Master, emphasized in his report that the support of Grand Lodge is vital to DeMolay and also that the success of DeMolay is vital to the future of Masonry. This is so, he said, because "DeMolay is still the highest possible source for Master Masons, those who learned our principles and philosophy at an early age."

The Computer Usage Committee announced in its report that reviewing and improving the existing database structure of the membership system is progressing in a satisfactory manner. This entails the integration of data concerning membership, as well as lodge and other information. When completed, the system will greatly facilitate the exchange of information between the Grand Lodge Office and officers of the subordinate lodges. Grand Lodge was informed, also, that the member of the Computer Usage Committee who is responsible for improving the membership database and for keeping it accurate has accepted the additional responsibility for the "day to day updating of our Web site to keep the information current and accurate. If you have the capability to visit it, the address is: WWW.WISC-FREEMASONRY.ORG."

INTRODUCTION OF GUEST SPEAKER
BY M.W. BRO. TERENCE SHAND

Brethren,

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I introduce our guest speaker this evening, Robert V. Harrison, Ph.D., D.Sc., internationally renowned Scientist, Director of the Auditory Science Laboratory, Department of Otolaryngology, The Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto and teaching Professor in several Departments of the University of Toronto.

I can attest that this highly distinguished scientist has a curriculum vitae 15 pages long. The font size is so small that it would require 45 minutes to read and that is no exaggeration. However, I must caution our guest speaker, as a previous editor of the Ontario Mason magazine, I was known as the "Cut & Slash person" and so Bob I will attempt to do just that, at the same time hoping to leave your audience with a full appreciation of your richly deserved acclaim and of the honour you pay us with your presence here this evening.

Dr. Harrison presently holds seven academic hospital and university positions and has accredited service on 57 committees and academic activities, complimented by several honours, fellowships, scholarships and professional affiliations, locally, nationally, and internationally.

In the area of research and scholarly publications this distinguished gentleman has amassed 120 refereed papers, 10 text book chapters, 116 published abstracts, 145 significant research presentations throughout the world, and a 432 page book entitled "The biology of hearing and deafness."

As Masons we have enjoyed a longstanding association with him, through our Masonic Foundation of Ontario and the Hospital for Sick Children, in the area of Auditory research.

I can pay no greater tribute than to state, here is a citizen who exemplifies in his everyday life, what we in Masonic terms characterize as 'the ideals of a Freemason' in his service to humanity.

Please welcome this outstanding scientist and friend, Dr. Robert V. Harrison.

Thank you for that very generous introduction. It sounded far too exciting a career.

The fact is that research can be routine and tedious, many hours spent in the lab looking down a microscope or more likely nowadays a computer screen. Things are punctuated by "Eureka" experiences (as Archimedes would put it) – new exciting discoveries, important new knowledge.

Also interspersed along the way are what could be called "heart warming moments." These are times when one really feels warm inside and rewarded for one's efforts. I will talk about some of these heart-warming moments when I finish.

My task here this evening is a problem because I have so little time. I want to explain to you about some of the problems with hearing loss in children, and how we are helping to resolve these problems. In other words, I want to summarize what we are achieving with your generous support. Along the way, I want to give you my impressions of the Masonic Foundation and about you the members that support it. I know that there are over 60,000 members in over 600 lodges in Ontario. I hope that you, the leaders here this evening, can take back some of my comments to the rank and file.

For more than a quarter of a century the Masonic Foundation has been supporting causes relating to hearing loss, particularly in children. What have we achieved? Let me start by explaining to you your own support strategy. The wise heads of the Foundation (and there have been many of them) recognized the value in supporting two types of activity. On the one hand doing things that would have an impact now, helping children with hearing problems now. On the other hand supporting activities that, in the longer term, would have influential effects on our understanding of hearing and hearing loss.

Your first type of support is for applied research, the application of present technology or of current knowledge to address problems of hearing loss in children. Our achievements, and I mean yours and mine, are easy to relate to you. You will all know that your support for cochlear implant research, one of the initial thrusts of the Foundation, led directly to the establishment of Cochlear Implant Programs in Ontario both for adults and later for children. When I initiated the Pediatric Cochlear Implant Program at The Hospital for Sick Children I use the Masonic Funds to buy devices that we could not then afford. But your support went way beyond helping individual children, your funding allowed us to establish what we could call an academic Cochlear Implant Centre that is second to none worldwide. We go way beyond just implanting electrodes into ears that don't work. With your support we have been able to follow our implanted children, test them in many new ways so as to understand more exactly how the cochlear implant devices are working. With this new knowledge we can change and improve our programme and other programmes worldwide.

Another important area of applied research that you have supported relates to the testing of hearing in babies. For many years we have been experimenting with a method for hearing testing called oto-acoustic emissions. In fact, I think that in 1985 or 1986 I used Masonic Funds to purchase a prototype oto-acoustic emissions recording device. Over the years we have done numerous studies in adults and children and experimental animals and also tested various members of the Masonic Foundation in Ontario when they have visited the laboratories in The Hospital for Sick Children. I have to report that most of these gentlemen had a significant hearing loss, which may explain why sometimes they seem not to listen to you. Ten years later this type of testing is now standard for infant hearing screening. You may know that, today, in Ontario, we are starting to test hearing in all babies; we call this Universal Hearing Screening.

You should know the Masons of Ontario, through your Foundation, played an important role in the establishment of this Hearing Screening Programme. You had a Millennium Campaign called "Help-2-Hear" which was all about starting up hearing testing in babies. This "Help-2-Hear" Campaign became known to the healthcare policy makers in the Ontario Government and seriously influenced their decision to implement this screening province wide. In a sense the Government usurped us, and we are happy about that. I think it is true to say that we helped to kick-start hearing screening in babies just as you kick-started cochlear implant programmes in Ontario.

So you might ask, if the Healthcare system is now supporting the hearing testing what is the Masonic Foundation Funding being used for? Well, of course, the next phase; the next frontier. Nothing in this world stands still especially in health science initiatives. The wise heads of the Foundation have put the funding into the hands of three, world-class scientists: one in London, Ontario, one in Ottawa and one in Toronto.

In Ottawa, Dr. Andre Duneux-Smyth, in the faculty of Health Sciences and Head of Audiology at the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario, is looking at various training and educational techniques that can help infants who are found to have a hearing loss. In London, at the University of Western Ontario, Dr. Richard Seewald, recently awarded the Hearing Research Chair by CIHR, Professor in the Department of Communication Disorders, is looking at how we can best fit hearing aids onto small babies. The third scientist in this programme is myself and at The Hospital for Sick Children we are looking into some very new ways of imaging the brains of children with hearing loss to see whether new imaging techniques can be used for both detection of hearing problems and diagnoses.

I want now to discuss that second type of research supported historically by the Masonic Foundation of Ontario. Basic research – increasing our general understanding of how we hear and what can go wrong. As you may have noticed I am not accustomed to giving after-dinner speeches but I am a professor at the University of Toronto and I can lecture for hours, so I am going to give you a Neuroscience 101 lecture. This is how I often start some of my university courses.

"You think that you all see me here and that you hear me speaking but in fact it is all an illusion created within your brain. What you experience – the visual world, the sounds, even the feeling of backside on the seat – is all the result of a pattern of neural activity in your brain. Essentially, you live in your head, your consciousness, your existence is within your brain. Even the friend that is sitting next to you is actually in your head. So how come we can so easily believe an outside world exists?" It is because we have developed in our brains a model, a representation, of the outside world. The model is refreshed, similar to the image on a computer screen, by ongoing sensory input. This ongoing input serves to reinforce and modify and improve on that model of the outside world we have developed. For a long time scientists have been mostly concerned with this ongoing sensory input, that is, what the brain experiences when sound activates the ears and the auditory parts of the brain that connect to the ears. Recently, however, many research scientists, myself included, have been asking more and more about the developmental aspects of brain function. In essence, how that model of the outside world is put together during early development.

Much of the research funding that you have supported has shown the auditory parts of the brain develop as a result of sound input during early postnatal periods. In humans, this early postnatal period might be in the age range of up to five years. During these early years, important foundations or building blocks are laid down. Our increased knowledge about these early developmental periods had led to our growing concerns about detecting any hearing loss in an infant as soon as possible and trying to do something about it as soon as possible.

This process of laying down a foundation during early years of growing development is similar to what one may call a "Masonic Principle" in the sense of constructing a building with a solid foundation on which one can build higher and stronger later.

This basic research that you have supported has added to our understanding of how the auditory brain develops and also brings us back full circle to the "Help-2-Hear" campaign of the Foundation. The basic science has told us we must detect hearing problems early, and then in those infants with hearing loss we must do something for that problem.

Before I finish I want to provide you with one more important concept. It has to do with this notion that the brain function is all about building blocks, laying a solid foundation in early development to build on later, this "Masonic Principle." Here in my hand is a book that I can read and understand and that you can also read and understand. The book is in English. Statistics Canada tells us however that 15 to 20 percent of English speaking Canadians have a problem reading this book. The fact is that literacy, reading and writing, is a problem in Canada. Back a century or even 50 years ago in rural, agricultural Canada many could not read and write but it did not matter too much. Nowadays to have a problem in reading and writing is a major impediment to a good quality of life. Not only will you earn little income but you will have little access to the world of literature, you will be unable to understand the manual to program your VCR, you will have limited use of the Internet.

Children with hearing impairment that goes undetected or uncorrected often have a problem with reading. In other words, hearing loss, perhaps even a mild hearing loss, can ultimately lead to a reading and writing problem. So how, you may ask, is reading and writing related to hearing loss? Well, it is quite simple. In order to read and write you must understand language and various grammatical rules associated with that language. In order to develop language you need to understand speech, in order to understand speech you have to have an auditory brain that can code speech signals and represent them within the brain. The basic building blocks for the representation of sound are established at an early age and if there is a hearing loss during this important developmental period the foundation for language development and literacy is not properly made. So now knowing this, I want to add a whole new dimension to the issue of hearing loss in children. We are not now concerned with just helping them to hear things. We are not just concerned with them having to understand speech. We are aiming to help them so that they can do all these things but then also develop language and then develop literacy, proficient reading and writing and this will lead to an improved quality of life.

So for a child, "Help-2-Hear" is really "help to get a better quality of life."

Well, I have taken up too much of your time, but allow me now to finish where I said I would with the "heart warming experiences" that I have felt during my activities as a research scientist.

In our cochlear implant programme I have been able, on occasion, to witness the activation of a cochlear implant. A little girl or boy is about to experience for the first time new sensations of sound. The electrical pulses sent to the implanted electrodes are producing new and strange sounds in the brain of the child. The look on the face of the child tells all. Most often it is not a happy look but rather a surprised or a puzzled, sometimes a frightened, look. The faces of the parents are also telling, at first anxious and then, when their child hears – happy, overjoyed. What really matters is that this child can hear something. Then it is a matter of time, training and experience that will build on those basic sounds to a recognition of complex signals such as speech. Then moving forward, building on these blocks using speech communication and developing language and literacy, and ultimately having a better life.

Finally, another heart-warming experience that I have had is here and now. For almost twenty years I have personally had a close relationship with you, the Masons of Ontario. Through your Foundation I have made many friends and feel a warmth in my heart to be invited here amongst you all this evening.

You have been so very benevolent.

I hope that you all now recognize the achievements that you have made possible. There are so many little girls and boys with hearing problems that you have helped already, or that you will help in the future.

On behalf of them all, I thank you.

DEPUTY GRAND MASTER'S THANKS TO Dr. ROBERT V. HARRISON

Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Doctor Harrison, Distinguished Head Table Guests and Brethren.

At the outset, may I say how surprised I am to see how young our distinguished speaker is. When I was first given a copy of his Curriculum Vitae to read and noted that it took some 15 pages to record his achievements, I assumed that Doctor Harrison would be an aged and white haired man, not the youthful and exuberant person he has proven himself to be.

Dr. Harrison, on behalf of all Masons present this evening, I wish to thank you for your thought provoking and stimulating address. At the commencement you challenged us to take your message back to our lodges and discuss its contents with our members. I am absolutely certain this will be done; indeed, as you spoke I noted that everyone had their attention riveted upon your every word. Thus, I am certain your message will be carried back and discussed thoroughly with everyone.

You started out by giving us some background into applied research and how it relates to hearing loss in children. In describing the Cochlear Implant programme you referred to the importance of the funding you received from the Masonic Foundation of Ontario and how it was used initially, to purchase devices that were, hitherto, not affordable. You went on to say how, with the aid of our funding, you were able to establish a Cochlear Implant Centre that is second to none in the world.

While still centring on applied research, you addressed the testing of hearing in babies and how the monies raised from our Help-to-Hear campaign played a vital role in the establishment of a Hearing Screening Programme.

You then went on to relate how Help-to-Hear monies are being directed into applied research in London, Toronto and Ottawa, and you gave us a brief description of the work that is being done by Researchers who have received our funding in these three centres.

Continuing on, you gave us a brief lecture on neural activity and while none of us will qualify as rocket scientists or brain surgeons following this discourse, you have made us aware of the depth of hearing loss and some of the factors that cause it. You did make reference to there being a correlation between hearing loss and illiteracy and how the latter has such an impact upon living. You pointed out that it can make programming a VCR very difficult. Well, I would like to tell you that all of the members here this evening are literate, indeed most are well read, but pretty well all of us still have to call in our grandchildren to show us how to programme the VCR.

You told us you had experienced many heart warming experiences and in concluding, you told us about some of them. Well, Dr. Harrison, I would like to add one more – by telling us about your endeavors and highlighting the manner in which we, the Masons of Ontario, have been able to assist you. You have made each of us feel so humble and proud. Indeed, you have warmed our hearts like no one else.

On behalf of all Masons in Ontario – not just those who have been here this evening to benefit from your address, but those also who will hear it from us – I thank you for being with us this evening, for sharing your experiences and for working so hard to ensure that everyone has an opportunity to share in the wonders of hearing. You have made us all proud to be a part of it and we thank you very much.

SUMMARY REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS 2001 – 2002

Algoma District [11 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. James D. Kingston

Masonry is well in Algoma District. We have many lodges who maintain enjoyable programs and have good turn-outs of happy members at their meetings. There is excellent work being done, and there is pride in maintaining high standards. Our Past Masters are vigilant in most lodges. However we have two lodges that lack new members, and Past Masters occupy too many chairs. We have a couple of lodges that are well into revival and have a lot of new members in the Chairs. Most are doing a fine job, although a few are not yet comfortable with their work, but we are pleased to report that the lodges are on positive programs. Financial concerns are a factor in a few Lodges also, but they are planning the return to stability, and we are working with them to assist.

Algoma District continues its excellent support of the Blood Donors program. We report a 32% increase in donations for this year, from 2,450 in 2000/01 to 3,231 in 2001/02. We also stressed support for the Masonic Foundation, this year, and were pleased to present a bursary at our Confederation College on their behalf.

Most of our lodges are actively involved in community-based events, and Masonry, particularly in our smaller communities, is seen as a caring and responsive organization. Funding support to worthy causes, attendance and participation at their campaigns and events, visits to Hospitals, Nursing and Seniors Homes, Open Houses for support of charities, are regular undertakings of our lodges.

We had a very successful Lodge of Instruction this year, under the direction of M.W. Bro. Edwin Drew and his team, and its impact is apparent in the lodges. The Deputy, R.W. Bro. Donald Mumby, also visited us at that time and we are most appreciative of the attention and assistance they provided. We are scheduled to receive a visit by the Grand Master once every two years, we hope that in the off years that the Deputy can schedule a visit, on a regular basis. We think it is important that our members have at least that opportunity to meet our leaders.

Algoma East District [8 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Nelson R. Ingram

Membership is generally in good condition. The decline seems to have decreased this year, but several lodges are situated in communities with declining population. The Work in this district is done very well. New members are very dedicated and the Work done is of high calibre. All lodges are aware of the proper protocol during banquets, introducing visitors etc. With minor exceptions, these are followed very accurately at all meetings. With two exceptions, lodges appear to be in sound financial positions. The two most northern lodges of the district continue to have some problems with declining membership and with a large amount of non-resident members who pay dues but are not available to assist in the daily functioning of the lodge.

The district is very fortunate to have a good group of brethren who promote the Brother to Brother programme in this district. Positive, supportive, and encouraging workshops were held in conjunction with the brethren of Sudbury-Manitoulin District. The Blood Donor programme of this district has become very high profile.

The brethren are very involved in community activities, such as sponsoring student Bursaries, Masonic Golf Tournaments, Volunteering in the Community, and Masonic Blood Donor Clinics.

Unfortunately, Long Range Planning Committees exist in only a few lodges. The main concern is the future of Lorne Lodge No. 622, in Chapleau. The W.M. and his officers are trying very hard to make their situation better. Amalgamation of Lorne Lodge No. 622, in Chapleau, and Woodland Lodge No. 680, in Wawa, is not really a good solution to the difficulties they are having. The two communities are simply too far apart to be joined in any meaningful way in Northern Ontario.

Brant District [13 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Fred J. Kalliokoski

The Masonic Lodges of Brant District generally are being operated within the guidelines of "Grand Lodge" with respect to Ritual, with a few lodges that require improvement in presentation. Almost all lodges operate informally during the banquet portion of the evening. This is difficult to change. A few lodges are having difficulty gaining membership. This may, in part, be attributed to the lodge not utilizing all the programmes available. There appears to be a lack of enthusiasm by the members. They give the impression that they are caretakers only. Some internal conflicts have been resolved.

The financial status of most lodges appears sound although few are involved in long range planning. The two lodges in Brantford currently are maintaining their building but may eventually have some difficulty with rising costs.

I suggest a review of policy regarding the condition of lodge buildings, particularly when it is obvious the building does not meet fire code and could become a death trap. Liabilities can be spread quite wide and Grand Lodge may inadvertently be a party to any action.

We have corrected several lodges that have been using older versions of the Memorial Services and the Installation and Investiture Ritual.

There was no specific Masonic project for this term but at each official visit, we stressed the theme communicate, activate, and motivate. The talk at each lodge was tailored to a specific need or problem and pointed at suggested approaches to solve them.

On a positive note, we initiated the Visitation Committee to attend all initiations in the district. It has been met with some success, and will continue. We issued an official personalized letter on behalf of the Grand Master to the families of all Masons who passed to the Grand Lodge above during 2001/2002 whether there was a Masonic Service or not. This letter detailed the Masonic and community involvement of the deceased brother.

A large number of brethren attended the District Divine Service held on the May long week end and a non-Mason minister prepared a well directed sermon using the "rough" and "finished ashlar" as a basis.

Masonry is moving forward in Brant District as is noted by the upswing in initiations in lodges that seemed dormant for years. The more active lodges continue to prosper.

Bruce District [12 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Ronald R. Faulkner

A reflection of the year as District Deputy Grand Master of Bruce District is indeed a difficult, yet fulfilling task. A Long Range Planning Committee was established, consisting of five past Grand Lodge Officers, with the current District Deputy. They have met on three occasions and have established a constitution and a District Charity, in the name of "The Institution of Outdoor Education and Environmental Studies," located near Wiarton. An Entered Apprentice Welcome Team was established, chaired by W. Bro. Garry McGregor. An entered Apprentice Degree was conducted shortly after its inception and 60 members and visitors welcomed the new apprentice.

Various events summarize the efforts of all the lodges in Bruce District, to not only support their lodges, but their communities as well. Participating in Automotive Flea Markets, Garden Tour, Fish Fry, Breakfasts, Poor Men's Lunches, Golf Tournaments and Curling Bonspiels, not only encourage participation and interaction, but lends to visibility as well.

A couple of the smaller lodges remain a concern. However, one has to be impressed with 16 first degrees, 14 second degrees, and 17 third degrees performed in excellent fashion. Degrees were performed in eleven of the twelve lodges; a positive indicator for the Craft.

The support of the Masters was incredible, and visitations by the brethren in Bruce District was exemplary, both inside and outside the district. On two different occasions, bus loads were organized. The senior members are so appreciated by their loyalty to Bruce District and the Craft.

In Bruce District, there is a genuine bond among the lodges to look out for each other. To have served as their District Deputy has not only been an honour, but to recognize the bond and the growth has been exhilarating to say the least.

Chatham District [13 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Bradley L. Gosnell

Masonry in the Chatham District is in good to fair condition.

There was an amalgamation this year and one is in the works for next year, which is in itself troubling. We don't like to see our lodge numbers dwindle but sometimes it is the only way around the problem of reduced membership. There are two other lodges in the district that are probably looking at either amalgamation or possibly going into darkness. All of the lodges in the Chatham District have been trying to up the membership but in some cases have been unsuccessful.

While some of the lodges have had trouble there are some that have had a very good year, with new members and an active community spirit to spur them on. Let's hope that it can sustain itself in the new year.

The CK Bears programme has been very well received and all of the hospitals, police cruisers and fire units have them now.

The Bruce B. Foster Foundation has been able to increase the number of bursaries to four from three at $1,000 each. It is very difficult to just hand out four when there are so many deserving students who could use the money and it is to be hoped that with good management the number can be increased again in the future.

Last year's Mason of the Year Award winner was Frank Gross and in the past year has shown why he had that honour bestowed on him. He is still doing a very fine job of visiting the sick and shut in brethren and has been at nearly all of the Official Visits and other important lodge functions in the past year. It is a very tall order to fill his shoes but the pick for this year will be worthy of the award and do a fine job.

One of the added features of the Masonic year coming up is the International Ploughing Match to be held in Glencoe. Our Grand Master will attend to help man the Masonic Booth and it will give the members of the Chatham District and surrounding area lodges the opportunity to meet M.W. Bro. Shand and get to know him a little better. Hope to see as many as possible attend.

Eastern District [19 Lodges]R.W. Bro. Brian G. Clifford

Eastern District has 19 lodges spread over some 590 kilometres meeting in 12 different communities. The majority of lodges are doing well in both finances and membership; however, there are three lodges which require assistance and are of a major concern.

Cornwall 125 has a solid membership, but very little interest in attendance and are currently looking at amalgamation; Martintown 596 is in dire need of more active members and a better programme, and are realistically looking at giving up their charter in future years unless we can revitalize them; and Excelsior 142 is slowly becoming financially strapped with no growth whatsoever and the long term outlook is dismal at best. We have attempted to provide assistance to all three of these Lodges by having our District Officers visit and do various presentations, as well as consult Grand Lodge on the amalgamation situation. Hopefully the information we have provided to these lodges will enable them to retain their Charters and obtain new membership through the Grand Lodge programmes available to them. We will remain resolve in our efforts to sustain these lodges.

Eastern District would like to thank the Grand Lodge for all the guidance and assistance you have provided to us over the past year. It has been our pleasure to represent the Grand Master and Grand Lodge in Eastern District, and we look forward to a continued good relationship.

Erie District [8 Lodges]R.W. Bro. Ray H. Crowder

The condition of Masonry in Erie District is firm in its lodges. It has been a relatively good year for Erie District, with no major problems in any of the nine lodges.

St. George's Lodge No. 41, in Kingsville, celebrated their 150th Anniversary, which was attended by the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, and his wife, as that function included a banquet honouring the Grand Master. It appears that all present did enjoy themselves at that occasion and very much enjoyed meeting and greeting Bro. Shand, and the message he left with us.

There is confidence that all lodges in Erie District will continue to maintain their membership and perhaps expand to some degree.

Frontenac District [18 Lodges]R.W. Bro. Clifford Farber

Over the past year we have tried to stress two fundamentals: first, the importance of the values of Freemasonry and, second, the importance of demonstrating our pride In the Fraternity. Both messages were well received and hopefully will be acted upon.

Regarding the health of Masonry in the district, it is still good overall, but there are several lodges with declining memberships, which, unfortunately, are not attracting new candidates. Unless there is a dramatic turnaround, two or three of these lodges will soon be forced to reconsider their prospects for long-term viability.

With the sale of the Kingston Temple, the five Kingston Lodges found themselves moving to temporary locations until new, permanent premises could be secured. This move proved to be difficult for several of the lodges, especially for the more elderly members, but progress is being made and hopefully the situation will soon be resolved.

Special events held in the district, this year, included a Past DDGM Degree Team, a District Junior Warden Degree Team headed by the Grand Junior Warden, a District Senior Warden Degree Team under the direction of the Grand Senior Warden, a Lodge of Instruction on ritual and protocol and a Friend-2-Friend presentation conducted by Grand Lodge. These special events were well supported and sparked a renewed enthusiasm by many Masons.

The Official Visits were well attended and the inter-Lodge planned visitations were again a success. We also conducted year-long challenges in the hope of increasing lodge visitation and blood donations.

It was a pleasure handing out over $10,000 in bursaries on behalf of the Masonic Foundation, as well as presenting a worthy Brother with his certificate designating him as a Fellow of the College of Freemasonry.

Georgian North District [12 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. James H. Parker

The lodges in Georgian North District are performing the Ritual in accordance with the 1999 version of the Book of the Work. They are using the 2001 Book of Constitution and Ceremony of Investiture and Installation book.

The membership is slightly declining, this seems to be due to an aging membership as most lodges are initiating a number of candidates. One lodge has a Life Membership programme but is not complying with the Book of Constitution, Section 188 (a).

There are two new lodge buildings now in use in Orillia and Collingwood.

There are two lodges that have shown a slight weakness over the years. One of which appears to have overcome many of its problems and is well on its way to recovery. The other is having some problems but is slowly working through them. It is suspected that they will return to full health in the near future.

Grand Lodge programmes are in full use in most of the lodges. The district is in the process of formulating a Five-Year Plan. There is strong support for this initiative throughout the district.

Georgian North District is extremely strong in community involvement; they have supported many projects, and are quite visible in the community.

This district is healthy; when the minor problems in a couple of lodges are resolved, it could be one of the strongest in the jurisdiction.

Georgian South District [10 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. James G. Ospreay

It is pleasing to report on the very high quality of lodge degree work found in Georgian South District, with the new candidates, and the overall floor work performed by the officers of the lodges on Official Visits. Protocol and etiquette at banquets and in the lodge was, in most cases, excellent. While membership is a have or have-not situation, many Masons are bringing new candidates into the Craft. Financially speaking, the lodges appear stable.

Grand Lodge programmes have been implemented and are showing results. Open House programmes in three cases have brought in lodge affiliations, with a good number of probable new candidates. Our "Cloverleaf Visits" has been outstanding. Visits from the Scottish Rite and the Sheba Colour Party Degree teams brought out many more Masons to witness the degree work.

Ladies' and Widows' Nights, Parade Floats, Christmas programmes, Father and Son Open Houses, our own Tent with the Masonic Kiosk, plus ongoing family barbecues, have given Masonry a lot of public exposure.

There seems a lack of uniformity in the goals and direction setting of the district 5-year programme.

Grey District [12 Lodges]R.W. Bro. James M. Oliver

The condition of Masonry in Grey District is generally above average. Attendance at meetings is very good, averaging from one quarter to one third of total membership. Support at district functions is outstanding. The ritual has in most cases been well performed. However, rearranging the ritual and substituting words is becoming a problem. Attendance at Lodges of Instruction plus the intervention of knowledgeable Past Masters could improve the delivery of ritual and protocol. Membership is neutral or steady, with some lodges increasing and some decreasing. Most lodges are in a sound financial situation. Every lodge has members in arrears! The Friend-2-Friend programme has been well received. This programme, if presented properly, reaps positive results. The mentor programme is in fact not being utilized in its intended form. Sponsors and friends tutor new members in the old accustomed manner. Lodge driven programmes such as the Brother-2-Brother initiative require willing members to implement and encourage them. Most of the lodges support some form of community programmes and the District Divine Service was a great evening for Masonry in the community (large turnout). Immediate and long range planning is a desired focus for Grey District. Implementation of relevant workshops and seminars, invitation of guest speakers, opportunities for collegial planning and informative videotapes that deal with grass root planning or forecasting should be considered.

General recommendations for Grey District would include: implementation of organized phone committees, consideration of knowledgeable Past Masters in ritual coaching, creation of a team leadership concept, development of budgets, preparation of short term and long range plans and improvement of communication skills. Committees should be in place to deal with members in arrears, as lodge secretaries are unable to deal with this problem on their own. Furthermore, thought should be given to restructuring such as amalgamations in order to create effective, efficient and vibrant lodges. Finally, the Past Masters', Wardens' and Deacons' Association should be acting as the executive branch of Grey District, not simply the group that plans district events. The Association should become active in mentoring aspiring DDGMs to become competent, effective and knowledgeable in their leadership responsibilities. Consideration should be given to a two-year term for the office of DDGM in order to assess and take responsibility for implementation of goals. Finally, the office of DDGM should be a two-year term, concurrent with the Grand Master.

Hamilton District A [14 Lodges]R.W. Bro. William A. Cowell

Based on the number of brethren attending Official Visits and Installations, this past year was a great success with few concerns.

Throughout the district there is still inconsistency in the Work, as many brethren are still using copies of the older Books of the Work while some are using the latest edition [1999], or "we always did it this way or its traditional to do it this way or that way." Those brethren who visit lodges learn a great deal about our ritual, and in turn can apply this learning to their lodges. Visitation is a wonderful tool for learning the Work and should be encouraged by the Masters and the D.D.G.Ms.

Protocol is one of the greatest tools which when applied brings Freemasonry together, and should be followed to the letter by all lodges. Most lodges practice the ritual to increase proficiency; this promotes better degree work which encourages members to attend and bring in candidates. Lodges of Instruction should be attended by all officers, particularly the Deacons; knowing the words by rote is only one part, if

There are many happy lodges attracting a number of candidates, good social activities, dedicated officers and members who attend lodge to enjoy themselves.

Hamilton District B [14 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Lanny R. Salmon

The quality of work, with few exceptions, is excellent. Protocol is excellent both in the lodge room and banquet room. Membership is decreasing, however; during the past Masonic year there were 21 initiations.

All lodges are in sound financial condition and in most cases current revenues exceed expenses. No amalgamations are anticipated

The Mentor's, Brother to Brother and Friend to Friend programmes are in use in just over half of the lodges. Unfortunately, there are mixed feelings within the lodges about the effectiveness of the latter two programmes in their present design.

Every lodge within this district sponsored at least one Blood Donors' Clinic resulting in 2,042 units of blood being donated. During the Masonic year two Divine Church Services were held, combining the three Hamilton Masonic Districts, with donations being raised to support the Hamilton Board of Relief. Every one of the lodges within this district has an active Benevolence programme. Many of the lodges are now announcing their presence and meeting locations on the entrance signs to their community. Ten lodges actively support community projects outside their lodges and 11 lodges have special events within their lodges.

There are no major concerns relating to Long Range Planning within the district: Arising out of a concern with declining membership, it has been recommended to the lodges that they keep in touch with their brethren who cannot or are not making it out to lodge. It is very important to let them know they are missed by their brethren. Actively pursuing outstanding dues will help, not only with lodge finances, but will bring brethren who might be feeling a bit awkward back into fellowship. Older and shut-in brethren often have sons and grandsons who are potential Masons.

Hamilton District C [15 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Arthur F. Adams

Attendance on official visits has been from good to excellent in all lodges. The membership is very upbeat in all lodges where the work has been very good. The district has had forty plus initiations. Financially, all lodges appear to be doing well.

The District Educational Meeting more than tripled the attendance of the previous year to approximately 109 participants.

70 years a Mason and 60 years a Past Master pins were presented to W. Bro. John Miles, a member of Ionic Lodge, who is in his 97th year.

Operation "PAPERBACK" was and is still an ongoing project of collecting paperback books, decks of cards, writing paper, as well as letters from school children, for our troops in Afghanistan. The district, to date, has sent over one thousand books etc., through the Canadian Forces Base in Trenton. In return, we have had e-mails and letters of thanks from the troops. Support for the programme has been overwhelming.

It appears that the Masters' and Wardens' Association has experienced a "revival," but hopes to increase its membership.

A bursary was presented to a very deserving McMaster University student.

A new initiative has resulted in the formation of a planning committee of P.D. D.G.M.s to aid in the development of those persons seeking to aspire to serve in Grand Lodge activities.

London East District [14 Lodges]R.W. Bro. Anthony Ellison

The 14 lodges in London are varied in their membership and operations. The older lodges have a lot of tradition and programmes that are well established while the younger lodges cater more to a specific membership, i.e. Daylight Lodge.

Membership is on the decline and some of the lodges have not initiated a candidate in a long while, (one in particular, nine years), and the age of our membership is going up. Maintaining good fiscal policies is becoming more difficult especially for those lodges who own their buildings. Our lodges have been designed, in the past, to accommodate Masonry and were not built as general purpose buildings that can be rented out for other uses. The design of our lodge buildings makes it difficult for older brethren to negotiate the steep stairs and so they do not attend lodge; also, I doubt if proper building codes are still met.

The quality of work, together with the protocol and etiquette, while generally good, could be improved in some cases. Although the Friend to Friend, B2B and Mentors programmes are acknowledged to be in use in lodges the resultant overall improvements are not evident.

Masonic visibility in London East is apparent by booths in the Western Fair, Thorndale Fair, The Donnybrook Fair in Dorchester, and the Fall Fair in Ilderton. The construction of Mount Moriah Lodge in the Fanshawe Pioneer Village will add to the mix when it opens this year. Masonry needs a shot in the arm and more of our charitable works needs to be acknowledged to the general public and maybe this will stimulate more applicants.

London West District [14 Lodges]R.W. Bro. Douglas C. V. Tucker

A challenge was issued to the brethren of London West District to "rekindle the Masonic flame" by fostering enthusiasm in the inactive brethren in an attempt to have them return to lodge. This concept has begun to show results as several lodges report that brethren who have not been active for some time are not only returning, but are participating in the affairs and operation of the lodge.

The EAM Welcome Team has continued and has enjoyed much success. Through the untiring efforts of the District Education Chairman this programme has now spread to twelve other districts in our Ontario jurisdiction. It is encouraging that the team has visited for the initiation of eighteen new brethren with an average of eighteen visitors per initiation. This concept tends to enhance fraternal relationships and creates a bond within the Masonic Family, not only in the London West District but between all of the districts who have adopted the programme. This programme has also significantly increased inter-lodge visiting beyond visiting on initiations.

Four of the rural lodges have maintained their community involvement through such programmes as Adopt-a-Highway, Cub Scouts sponsorship, community BBQs, Blood Donor clinics and Remembrance Day parades and services.

The Help-2-Hear campaign has officially ended; however, donations do continue. A highlight of this campaign was the recent presentation by M.W. Bro. Robert McKibbin of a $35,000 cheque to the University Hospital for research in hearing difficulties.

The Medical Outreach programme has continued unabated. It has evolved from a three-year pilot project to a full fledged programme that encompasses all the Ontario jurisdictions. Indeed, word has even spread to the provinces of Manitoba and Nova Scotia. Although the programme has not been actively promoted in these provinces, the Medical Outreach visiting team will honour all requests regardless of their origin.

There have not been any requests from C.O.M.E.L.Y to assist in making contact with Masons who have relocated from other provinces to Ontario.

R.W. Bro. Gordon Williams

While far from a highlight, the sudden demise of V.W. Bro. Joe Stocking had a huge impact on the morale of the district, occurring on the eve of our Divine Service, in Magnetawan. Under the leadership of R.W. Bro. Eric Sisel, Past Grand Chaplain, it required a complete about face from the upbeat programme that was planned. Light on his feet and using quick thinking, Eric Sisel changed the service to a celebration of the district and the contributions of Joe Stocking. A Memorial Service was convened, not all Masonic. The church in Huntsville was filled to capacity with many people left outside. Among his many services to Masonry, Joe was editor of the District Newsletter and his absence will be strongly felt.

The celebration of Corona No. 454's 100th birthday and the dedication of the regalia was indeed a special event.

R.W. Bro. Floyd G. Brooks

Masonry in Niagara "A" is holding its own. Some lodges are showing signs of the time with decreasing membership, while others are very busy with new members. Those increasing are with vibrant young men with a keen interest in the Craft.

In the fall, Niagara "A" held a successful G.L.O.N.D.A. (Grand Lodge Officers Niagara District "A") dinner with R.W. Bro. Gary Atkinson as guest speaker.

Mountain Lodge No. 221 of Niagara "A" is working VERY hard with brethren from all lodges of the district to sponsor a new Daylight Lodge. Thirty-four brethren signed at present and many additional brethren working shifts and older brethren who do not drive at night but drive during daylight hours also ready and waiting to participate. We are now awaiting final approval from the Grand Master.

The Masters of the district are maintaining a very high standard of Masonry. The officers are keen to follow suit. Protocol both at receiving and banquet hall is much better this year. Niagara "A" put in place the "Accompanying Lodge" for all Official Visits and this has swelled the number of brethren at these functions. This works great – others should try it.

The District Divine Service, held at Knox Presbyterian Church in St. Catharines, had a larger turn out this year (178) to hear Rev. Dr. John Johnston from Hamilton as guest speaker, and the Niagara Regional Police Choir was also in attendance.

Masonry in Niagara is moving ahead; we are proud of the effort of all brethren who are showing a great love of the Craft.

Niagara District B (11 Lodges)

R.W. Bro. Joseph M. Fazekas

Eight lodges were pleased to perform degrees on official visits during the year. The work was performed, in most cases, in a very proficient manner. The brethren of the district made a great effort to visit the various lodges on respected nights. It is indeed gratifying to see the junior officers, and those who do not hold office, taking such active roles in the work. The calibre of the candidates being received into Masonry was most impressive. Their contribution in years to come will amply justify the trust we have placed in them.

The records of all the Lodge Secretaries are in excellent condition and all Lodges seem to be in fair to good financial condition.

The care and protection which the brethren are continuing to give to their Masonic Temples, Lodge Rooms and furnishings, clearly reflect their great pride for Masonry. During the past year a couple of lodges have made commendable improvements to their premises and are planning more during the upcoming year. A few lodges in the district rent out space to help offset operating costs in the lodge.

The Installation Ceremonies of the lodges were observed with competence and dignity. In every lodge there was an air of confidence among the members that the right brother had been chosen to fill his respective office. The officers were facing the coming year with confidence and willingness to do their best.

In the district we have a number of lodges involved in charities and community functions. In time this will spread throughout the district to other lodges. The lodges that are active in the community are the one's with growth. This is one sure way of having our fraternity grow strong in the future to come.

Masonry in Niagara District "B" is in good hands. Ritualistic Work in all lodges is excellent and the support given by the Past Masters deserves mention. Members are eager to participate and their contribution is outstanding.

Nipissing East District [8 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Roderick B. Matthews

Masonry in Nipissing East is strong and active with a core group of members in each of the district lodges.

As a whole, the quality of work, protocol and finances are good in each of the lodges. Our district has a population base which is declining and aging, which is reflected in the negative growth of membership in area lodges.

The Grand Lodge programmes, such as Brother to Brother, Friend to Friend, and Mentors, are effective for the lodges which have implemented them. Each of the lodges has tailored the programmes to meet their unique requirements.

In order for Masonry to grow in the district, we need to continue to promote our Order by increasing our profile in the district. Such activities as the Adopt A Highway Programme, Open Houses, Friendship Nights, Community Picnics etc., are increasing our recognition, and will help to promote membership.

The major concerns of our district are the polarization of lodges within the district and the financial burden of the respective building corporations.

Recommendations for the district would be the full implementation of the Travelling Gavel, which has been dedicated to the memory of W. Bro. Jack Williams, to foster and promote unity and fellowship among the lodges of Nipissing East. Each of the Building Corporations develop long range plans to secure their financial viability.

North Huron District [12 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Jeffrey R. Dickson

Masonry in North Huron, for all intents and purposes, is alive and well. As in any district there are strong and vibrant lodges and a few that are not. All are financially secure and to date no amalgamations. The distinction between lodges becomes evident when comparing quality of work, protocol, membership, and community involvement.

Two things were evident from reviewing the completed forms and from travelling. The lodges that are doing well have key members or officers that are either enthusiastic individuals, who lead by example, and who have contagious results or strong leaders with the natural skill and ability to generate followers. These brethren do not simply recognize the Brother to Brother, Friend to Friend, and Mentors

The lodges that are not doing as well lack vibrancy because most of the enthusiasm the key members once possessed has departed; these brethren are repeatedly called into action and are simply becoming tired. They still faithfully support their lodge; however, they have become satisfied with the status quo. Although membership in Masonry is cyclic, it is decreasing in these weaker lodges.

Increasing membership, well-performed ritual, and interlodge visitation are key to an active, healthy, and vibrant lodge. The lodges that practice these tenets and principles are doing well and will continue to, even during the cyclic lows. However, lodges that do not try something new or try to implement some of the ideas and tools from the Grand Lodge programmes, although they may continue to exist, will do so with a steady decline in membership and enthusiasm.

In conclusion, it is recommended that either a district level or lodge level 5-Year Plan be implemented. Also, by seriously adopting the theme of M.W. Bro. Terence Shand – "Let's Get Back to Basics" – it is hoped that the strong lodges will continue to remain so and the one's that are not as strong, through the 3 R's of Masonry, Retain, Revitalize, and Renew, will experience a much needed resurgence.

Ontario District [15 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Ronald K. Wallace

The lodges of Ontario District are united and supportive to maintain individuality, while striving for the common cause. Ranging from smaller country to large city lodges, a diverse palate of brethren and views have been welded together to produce harmony.

There is a sense of renewal and enthusiasm, which bodes well for the future. The mechanics and ritual work are displayed with sincerity and accuracy. Membership although decreasing, has received numerous new candidates that are young and keen to be involved in their lodges. There are no signs of any amalgamation in the near future.

The charity of the brethren has been amply displayed by the donations for the District Fund "Heroes of Hope Campaign." We have to date exceeded our stated goal by 250%.

We were honoured to receive the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, Grand Lodge Officers and visitors as St. John's Lodge No. 17, Cobourg, celebrated two hundred years of Masonry and also at the Grand Master's Reception in Port Hope.

Mount Zion Lodge No. 39, Brooklin, celebrated one hundred and fifty years as a lodge, and the District Divine Service was held in Brooklin United Church, both of which the Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, and his wife Marion, attended.

Ottawa District 1 [16 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Bryan L. Dorling

The general condition of the 15 lodges in Ottawa District 1 is good and in the main Masonry is alive and well in the district. Needless to say there are some lodges in need of help. The quality of the work is good, with a few exceptions. The district seems to have embraced the "Back to Basics" and there has been an improvement in using the correct Book of the Work.

Again, with a few exceptions, the protocol in the district is very good; there seems to be a genuine desire to do things right and many lodges and individuals are asking the correct protocol on various situations. Finances throughout the district are good with no lodge asking for any assistance. No lodges are at this time talking of amalgamation or closure.

We are sorry to report that the lodges are not using the Grand Lodge programmes to the fullest. That is not to say they are not being used at all. The Mentors Programme is working well in most lodges and this is apparent by the well-prepared candidates. The Brother to Brother is beginning to show some results.

Nearly all the lodges have a programme of involvement in the community; however this is somewhat easier for the lodges out of the city core. The district as a whole is rapidly getting an excellent profile in the community by participating in some major fund raising events, namely: involvement in the annual Heart and Stroke Telethon with on-camera time and supplying both teams and volunteers for the annual Relay for Life which is a fundraiser for cancer research.

The major concern relating to Long Range Planning is the problem of convincing lodges of the need for a plan.

Recommendations are, as follows: a) to continue to assist the two weakest lodges, and b) more promotion of Grand Lodge programmes, especially Mentors and Brother to Brother.

Ottawa District 2 [16 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Dale Atkinson

Some of the highlights of Ottawa District 2: R.W. Bro. Donald Mumby was elected Deputy Grand Master. Then we had the pleasure of having M.W. Bro. Terence Shand visit our district and take part in Luxor Daylight Lodge's tenth anniversary celebrations, as well as the International Plowing Match.

The Meet and Greet Night was held at the Greely Legion Hall and many of the brethren and their families had a chance to share in the fun and fellowship with our Grand Master and his wife.

On Friday, September 21, 2001, the Grand Master and a number of present and past Grand Lodge officers and members of Renfrew Lodge took part in relaying the cornerstone at St. Paul's Anglican Church and joining the members of the congregation for refreshments. Later in the evening, Renfrew Lodge was opened to the public and the Grand and District Chaplains took part in dedicating the new Mosaic Pavement – as well as congratulate the brethren of Renfrew Lodge for the fine job they did remodelling the Lodge Room.

Six bursary cheques from The Masonic Foundation of Ontario were presented to students at Algonquin College.

Peterborough District [12 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Brian M. Wilkes

The District Divine Service was a resounding success, as was the Grand Master's banquet.

The quality of the ritual work in most of the lodges is satisfactory. The Worshipful Masters and Officers were dedicated and the candidates well prepared. There are a few lodges that have a number of Past Masters sitting in chairs, but this should decline with new membership. It was noticed that not all lodges observe the proper protocol during the lodge meetings and/or at the banquet hour. The various lodges should be reminded to uphold these basic traditions, as they are the basis of what Masonry is all about.

It was most heart-warming to see the Masons of this district in regalia at Remembrance Services in Peterborough and Lakefield. The Calendar Fundraiser project, headed by Bro. Cody Wheeler, produced over $3,000 for the New Hospital Campaign. The District Newsletter is proving to be an excellent communication tool.

A number of benevolent causes were also gratified this past year. Numerous bursaries were presented to worthy students at Trent University, as part of the ongoing programmes of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario.

Generally, there seems to be harmony among the brethren, but then we only get to see those that attend lodge. Membership is declining, but with the aid of Grand Lodge programmes, such as the Friend to Friend and our very active Brother to Brother programme, Masonry in this district will do quite well.

To sum up, I believe that communication and visitation to be the best method of improving Masonry in the district. Communication is the best method of raising awareness of district activities, and visitation increases attendance and improves the fellowship and personal bond of this brotherhood.

Prince Edward District [17 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Stuart W. Taylor

The Ritual and floor work of most lodges is satisfactory. The ritual work in several lodges who have a corps of dynamic officers, who have regular practices and committee meetings and conduct excellent, interesting meetings is extremely good. They are the ones who attend District Lodges of Instruction and Information Nights. However, there are too many lodges with poor attendance, low membership and who have lodge offices filled by brethren coaxed to accept the position just to keep the lodge together. Tragically, we no longer have members "competing" to fill lodge positions.

This district has had one lodge go into Darkness and three lodges who have amalgamated. The amalgamation has been, to date, a resounding success. The members of all three lodges have united and become a well blended and cohesive group. Four other lodges are of concern and are being given every consideration, encouragement and assistance whenever possible. The District Long Range Planning Chairman, utilizing the Strategic Plan 2001-2006, is planning a District Workshop. Several district lodges are strong and the leadership tend to come from "Masonic" backgrounds. These lodges are attracting new candidates who are staying active.

The protocol of the lodges is good and their financial affairs are sound. Grand Lodge programmes are often of limited success at best because members do not (will not?) avail themselves of programmes offered. With no candidates on the horizon, in spite of the Friend to Friend Programme, together with the aging membership, there is an air of lethargy among many lodges and the brethren.

The district very actively promotes and sponsors the Blood Services Programme, Pancake Breakfasts, Open Coffee Clubs and community awareness of Masonic meetings at a nursing home, highlighting Masonry in the community. There are also barbecues held at shopping malls and Temple parking lots.

It continues to be difficult to have lodges actively support or implement a Long Range Plan (beyond the current year). Highly motivated Grand Lodge representatives hold meetings and information sessions for the district with marginal attendance by those most in need. The events have been well publicized and very well presented.

A unique (first) lodge meeting was held at a local nursing home where brethren throughout the district, unable to attend their lodge due to infirmities, once again (for the first time in years) donned their apron and sat with their brethren in lodge. A moving experience for all.

It is recommended that Grand Lodge consider implementing an Organ Donor Programme to supplement the Blood Donor Programme to which an increasing number of the ageing brethren are unable to support.

Sarnia District [21 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Allan Muxlow

Lodges in the Sarnia District are doing well. Finances are okay, but dues could be raised in some lodges. Lodge ceremonial work is staying closer to the book. Some lodges are poor visitors and don't think they need the help of Grand Lodge. Some lodges have plenty of new candidates while others have none. Two DDGM Correspondence Certificates were presented this year. Lodges did well this year with a dozen or more new candidates.

District newsletter is very informative. Most lodges now look forward to it, as it is read out in all lodges as correspondence.

Regarding benevolence, financial support is down with only one or two requests processed.

Chaplain worked hard to have a good turnout for the District Church Service, where the Grand Chaplain spoke.

Friend to Friend Chairman has worked hard. Some lodges have accepted the programme, while others have not.

Education programmes were presented on three nights at different locations in the district. Blood donations increased in the district. Masonic Foundation Chairman did regular good work.

Computer Resources Chairman has started the implementation of computer software in the district and it seems to be readily accepted. Brother to Brother Chairman kept this programme in very high profile in the district. Entered Apprentice programme is also working well.

This has been a very good year for Sarnia District with increased attendance and a very strong year of visitation by the brethren as a group.

R.W. Bro. Kenneth E. Baker

The year saw some improvement in the state of Masonry in the district. Change does not come to some very easily; however, some opposition is good as it keeps us on our toes. Many initiatives, some from Grand Lodge, have been tried this year. All have not taken off yet.

Five-year planning is only used in four lodges. The District Long Range Planning Committee has been revived and is coming up with many good initiatives. Long range initiatives are ongoing.

Job descriptions will be written or revised for the Masonic Association District Committee Chairmen. The District Deputy Grand Master and other assistants have been stressing to the Masters the value of these committees and the programmes they promote. Numerous lodges are now using this talent for Masonic Education and feedback has been excellent. They have a twofold effect, the lodge members learn the proper and consistent way to do things, and the instructors gain insight that will be of great value as they progress in our fine Craft. We must continue and improve in this initiative.

Two lodges that were to amalgamate in 2001 did not. Unfortunately, there seems to be a few people who manage to control these lodges, as indicated in previous years' reports. Note: Osiris has once more applied to amalgamate with St Francis; however, to date nothing has officially happened.

Membership in almost 50% of the lodges remain constant, while four or five have increased. Most have gained new members. The greatest problem for most lodges is to get members to come out and take an office.

Mentors programme is reportedly used in some form by most. Friend to Friend: must be pushed more aggressively. Average dues are approximately $50.00, and do not cover expenses per the Constitution in at least 95% of the lodges. It is very difficult to get a good understanding from many of the reports. This subject has been discussed on several occasions, however, it is difficult to convince members there is a problem. The new programmes from Grand Lodge should help. Life Member programmes are used by 15 of 18 lodges. Three of these 15 do not keep an account per Section 188. Long range planning is used in only three lodges.

There are many optimists working hard with the assistance of Grand Lodge Programmes and Leadership, to see that the district not only survives but leads the way into the next millennium. The recovery has started and will only pick up speed. This district will be progressive.

St. Thomas District [11 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Garry G. Dennis

Membership in this district appears to be quite stable. While some lodges are down slightly and some slightly higher, the change from last year is minuscule. The financial stability of the district appears to be very good. It appears that the amalgamation of McColl Lodge No. 386 and Rodney Lodge No. 411 is imminent and will probably occur in the near future.

The quality of the work ranges from satisfactory to very good. Protocol is also satisfactory to very good. The lodges which appear to be more active in terms of degree work and interlodge visitation seem to have a much better understanding of requirements.

Grand Lodge programmes in this district have mixed reviews. Although much of the material provided by Grand Lodge has proved to be of a great asset, such as the tape "What is Freemasonry" and the pamphlets and brochures advising of the Lodges of Instruction and special events, a few committee chairmen feel that Grand Lodge can do much more to support this district. Specifically, refer to the reports of the District Chairman of Mentor Programme, Chairman of Friend to Friend Programme and the Chairman of Masonic Education.

This district is involved in many events which tends to give a high Masonic profile to the community. The St. Thomas District Masonic float appeared in several Santa Claus parades in this district. Masons participate in the Remembrance Day Parade at the cenotaph where the District Deputy lays a Masonic wreath on behalf of the district. The district holds several golf tournaments during the year, two of which are open to family members and friends. Many lodges hold annual Ladies' Nights, summer barbecues, theatre nights and fish fry and card nights.

I would recommend that Grand Lodge request all lodges to include a statement of their investments in the Audit Report in order to make it easier for the District Deputy to ascertain financial stability.

South Huron District [15 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Pirie Mitchell

The broad picture of Masonry in South Huron is encouraging. Although there are a few weak lodges, the strength of the others offset this. In all but two of the lodges, the work was done well, and in two exemplary. Regrettably the district is not enjoying a large membership increase, but is attracting some young men to the Craft who have taken to the work. Finances are holding their own. There are no amalgamations at present, however there may well be in the future.

Grand Lodge programmes are often cumbersome. In the area of recruitment, for example, the various programmes often seem more work than necessary. Doric Lodge (233) a few years ago held a meeting with some of the officers of the lodge and made a list of men in the community who they felt would make good Masons. Then a one-to-one approach was made by the brother who knew him best. The lodge enjoyed that year a jump in applications. It was simple and it worked.

Grand Lodge protocol, as it pertains to administration, should be reviewed.

The district conducted an excellent "Coats For Kids" programme this year and provided hundreds of new and reused coats for less fortunate children in the community and the London Boys' and Girls' Club. Many of the lodges have programmes for their own community. Some lodges are tied well to the community, especially through the use of their banquet hall.

Two lodges need to seriously discuss their future . . . [one lodge] is in an area which suffers from a declining population . . . [the other one] faces a future which is not too promising. Perhaps it is time that the brethren consider amalgamation . . .

The district needs to address the quality of the ritual within some lodges. Books are appearing now as a regular occurrence with two. This year, the district offered a ritual team staffed by Past Grand Lodge officers. Only one call for assistance was received. Next year it is recommended that this team be used more vigorously.

Sudbury-Manitoulin District [9 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. David A. Salter

With the adoption of a set of by-laws introduced by the previous DDGM, the district has reinforced its motto of "Masonry in Motion." While the goal of maintaining and increasing membership continues to be an issue that needs to be addressed, lodges are continually planning events that will move Masonry forward in the district. Many of these programmes fall in the parameters of the Brother to Brother programme and include initiatives to revive Masonic fellowship. These are highlighted by a "Java Guild" held each Tuesday at the lodge building in Sudbury, the opening of the District Library at scheduled time, and the provision of a Masonic Information Display at the Manitoulin Trade Fair. The latter was attended by about 11,000 people and 345 signed as visitors at the display. The Masonic profile in the communities in the district is also being enhanced through lodge bursary programmes, yard sales, involvement in the Cancer Society's Relay For Life, etc.

Some lodges are having difficulty retaining and finding new officers and it is hoped that the new Officer Progression initiative of Grand Lodge will be useful in addressing this concern.

Most lodges have developed initial Long Range Plans and are now ready to move on to refining the plan and making it a living, working document. They will be looking to Grand Lodge for assistance in this exercise.

Masonry in this district is truly in motion and not just spinning its wheels. The brethren can be proud of their efforts.

Temiskaming District [9 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. W. Denis Amendola

Economic conditions of the north have not remained stable and contribute to lodges having difficulty in attracting new members as industry shuffles to maintain a profitable operating norm. Membership has increased in some lodges, declined in others, while remaining steady with the majority.

Active members whom have set roots in the towns and cities, provide the backbone of their lodge, share the workload as repeating officers in attempts to assemble a line of progression to the East. Travel distances, though great, lodge inter-visitation has increased.

Grand Lodge programmes are used by lodges. Others consist of Saturday morning breakfasts where brethren meet for fellowship with their families, then practice ritual, floor work and lodge officer memory work within the lodge room. A lodge spent several meetings exploring the first degree in an open, time limited forum; each brother in attendance had an opportunity to field his interpretation of the ritual, both as a member and as a candidate.

This district adopted London West District's Welcome Team approach. After a slow start, it attended for three candidates being initiated into Masonry. The Team was well received and acknowledged as a worthwhile component of the first degree, both by the brethren and the candidates. Many hope that the Welcome Team will continue in the upcoming years.

It is recommended that use of the free community channels, cable TV, newspapers and radio, more community involvement and participation in Community Fairs, be encouraged to promote the visibility of our Fraternity.

Toronto District 1 [22 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Douglas E. Roberts

The focus in the district this year has been "Back to Basics." Highlights of the year were a District Lodge of Instruction, with over 85 members present. The District Project, "Food for the Hungry," was a great success with over 1,450 nonperishable items given to various Women's Shelters in Peel Region and Toronto, which was very much appreciated and warmly received. The Long Range Planning Committee has created guidelines to assist future D.D.G.Ms. The Blood Donor Chairman has worked hard this past year and has increased the donations by three-fold.

Eight Masonic Foundation bursaries were presented to students who are finishing their studies. Over 80 Masons and family members attended the Divine Service. The on going maintenance of every Temple in Toronto District 1 was most pleasing to observe. It sends a positive message to the community. The Wardens' Association is working hard to improve the knowledge of officers, to be better prepared for when they become Masters. In partnership with Grand Lodge, using Grand Lodge programmes, the Wardens' Association, and the Association of Installed Masters, will ensure that Toronto District 1 will continue to grow and maintain its status as the largest district in Ontario.

Toronto District 2 [19 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Errol A. Stewart

Toronto District 2 has welcomed 37 new Masons into the Craft. Only two of the nineteen lodges did not have a new candidate. Average attendance at visitations has increased to just less than 50. The work is of an extremely high quality with the exception of a few very weak lodges. Most adhere to the required protocol during the meetings and in the banquet room. Seventeen of the nineteen lodges are in good financial condition. Overall membership has declined although some lodges are reporting positive growth.

[One] lodge is prime for amalgamation and [another] should be placed on a 2-year watch.

The use of the B2B programme has been disappointing; however, the LRPC has been busy. R.W. Bro. Terry McLean made a presentation on a LRP to the district as to what is working and what is not.

Humber Lodge No. 305 holds a Christmas Party each year for single mothers and children but apart from that there is no community involvement. We are just getting involved with the Blood Donors clinics.

I would strongly recommend the members of [one lodge] look at some drastic solution to their problems, its just not working. Grand Lodge should look closely and observe [the other lodge] for the next 2 years. The District Project Chairman should be given a receipt book for donations made to the project; this would result in more donations made. The district should get more involved in the community.

R.W. Bro. George McCowan

The attendance at Official Visits and Installations has, on the whole, shown an increase. The number of Masons in the district has dropped over last year. The main reason for the drop in numbers was the amalgamation of Stevenson Lodge No. 218 with Caledonia Lodge No. 637. Before amalgamation the lodges had a combined membership of 251 while after amalgamation the membership of Caledonia is 216. It is hoped that other districts picked up the missing brethren.

A review of the strength of each lodge (attendance, growth in membership, quality of work) can be tied directly to the participation of a lodge in the Grand Lodge programmes. A lodge that actively participates is a strong lodge.

The district has been promoting "Getting the Masonic Light into the Community." Attendance at our Annual Divine Service was greater than last year. Two lodges held their own Divine Services, which were well attended. One lodge held a Table Lodge when they honoured three citizens for their work within the community. Non-masonic guests were invited to attend.

On the negative side there are two lodges . . . struggling to survive. The lack of candidates, Past Masters filling the chairs and low attendance is a cause of concern. The Worshipful Master of one of these lodges, however, is making a valiant effort to instil enthusiasm.

The level of proficiency in the district is, on the whole, good. Lodges being encouraged to ensure the attendance of Junior Officers to the Lodge of Instructions.

The number of new candidates, the participation in Grand Lodge programmes, indicates a growth in membership over the next two years.

R.W. Bro. Rolando M. Castaneda

It has been a very challenging but rewarding year for Toronto 4 District as it has made progress in some areas of concern, specifically – community involvement, long range planning and, to some degree, the membership resources. The district saw a very committed effort in promoting the Blood Donor programme and this is the first time in years that we, as a district, were able to provide 220 units of blood donations. Plans are in the works to conduct more community oriented events with the main purpose of re-establishing the image of Freemasonry as a major partner in community development.

Most lodges in Toronto 4 District do not have a formal Long Range Plan and it is now taking its toll for not having this. Reaction time to a difficult situation is often slow and by the time we realize it, a Charter is already in jeopardy. One lodge in the district has started the procedures to surrender its Charter and would most likely happen within the next few months.

While most lodges in the district are financially stable, membership and attendance is still a major concern. The district is, however, fortunate to have a very strong base of Past Masters and Past Grand Lodge Officers that sustain the activities within the district. Interlodge visitations have been the constant source of strength and inspiration of lodges in the district such that, during official visits, there were an average of ten out of fifteen Worshipful Masters present.

Overall, Toronto 4 District has done well.

R.W. Bro. Ian A. Sinclair

Overall, the quality of ritual varies from fair to excellent. Leading the district through degree rehearsals, attendance at Lodges of Instruction and officer development are Tuscan, Rehoboam, Harcourt, St. Clair and Richmond. Proper protocol is generally observed in the district; an attempt has been made this year to bring the protocol of official visits in line with Grand Lodge expectations.

Initiations appear to be increased slightly across the district. Harmony Lodge has considered amalgamation in the past, and this remains very likely in the near future. Four others are struggling. Grenville Lodge and Simcoe Lodge have experienced noted revivals of attendance and membership, the former as a result of a substantial influx of Filipino members, the latter, excellent leadership. There are no lodges in financial difficulty.

Grand Lodge programmes meet with varied success. The degree to which each is put into practice varies from enthusiastically to lip-service only.

Assisted by the District Public Relations Coordinator, one Open House, and several Information Booths were sponsored. A successful Blood Donor Clinic, lodge bursaries and charity projects, participation in Remembrance Day Services and the District Divine Service have increased community awareness.

There are some major concerns regarding Long Range Planning: a) The uncertainty of a viable membership for the short-term in several lodges, and a need for those available to focus on the immediate problems; b) The tendency to deal with each year as it comes and to leave the decision-making to that year's leadership, rather than think ahead; c) Since only four lodges report having a 5-year plan and five, a LRP Committee, it would seem that lack of will, as well as manpower, is also a concern.

Recommendations: a) increased use of Mentor and B-to-B programmes to assist in developing quality members and leaders; b) continued promotion of community profile through booths, public events and charities; c) continued emphasis on Officer Development through District and Grand Lodge Lodges of Instruction and within individual lodges; d) greater use of district committees by individual lodges.

Toronto District 6 [14 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Kevin J.P. Linegar

The time is now right to set a new pace in Freemasonry. This is the time when more than anything else for Masonry to face reality and to be certain that many changes are forthcoming. The good old days are long gone.

Today, many lodges can't find new candidates. Today, you have to have a good reason to become a Mason. Education and leadership play an important part, especially when explaining the reasons for becoming a Mason. We are not communicating these great reasons in plain and simple language because many of the brethren think it's still a secret fraternity and can't be talked about. When you have members say we are too old and don't have any new friends or know anyone – what can we do? When you have Worshipful Masters sitting as Worshipful Masters for several years along with their secretaries who have been secretaries for many, many years, you have no idea what damage this can do. How can you stimulate enthusiasm and promote this great fraternity when the desire has failed? Sure, we give thanks to these Masters and Secretaries for their support and dedication but the question still remains, where are the candidates?

Many Masons should deplore the small groups who turn out for Masonic funerals. A more important approach of communication to the members has to be addressed. This can also be related to the sick and shut-ins. We must endeavour to utilize the creativity that is found around Masons, don't hold them back, give the new Mason an opportunity to grow and then we will be giving one of the basic needs, the need to be wanted. If vibrant men are entering the fraternity it has to grow, only obstructive leadership will hold it back. Constructive leadership will succeed in making it carry on.

Lack of communication or the wrong kind of communication will do no good in exemplifying leadership skills needed to improve this great fraternity. The simple planning, the setting of goals, the organizing, staffing and communicating without these qualities of communicating no goal will be reached. Let's bring back some of the prestige and respect with dignity that we once had. Masonry is as strong today as it has ever been, it still works and Masonry still has a powerful role in our society, in our community and in our lives. Maybe a little house cleaning and a more serious approach to the basic essentials such as the family, hard work, honour and integrity. Make Masonry more visible in our society with new visions for our fraternity. Sure, we will have some lodges disappear in the near future and our memberships are decreasing yet the population of young men are increasing. We have the resources to elevate Masonry and make good men better men. In conclusion, we must support the ways and means provided by the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

R.W. Bro. David C. Mead

Generally speaking, our profile in the community is slowly on the rise. The use of the Mall displays alone not only generated new candidates but also contributions to the district project which was The Foundation For Visually Impaired Children and many of the lodges also supported small community projects of their own.

From a Long Range Planning perspective, it appears the district will undergo more contraction. A lack of members in attendance was evident at official visits. In too many of the lodges, visitors had to fill in for missing officers and the degree team.

The Grand Lodge programmes were highlighted at every opportunity, from the work in lodge, the books and information used in lodge on through the programmes provided. The main idea was to get everyone to sing from the same page.

In general, the work in the lodges is very good with many lodges moving to the excellent end of the scale. There are some, which are identified in the reports, which would have a difficult time completing a degree with the assembled brethren. These lodges have poor attendance of officers and the brethren as a general rule.

The Grand Lodge programmes are slowly moving ahead with a few lodges pushing them hard under the leadership of the Master of the lodge. In all cases these lodges were held up as an example of success in the district, with the Masters of the other lodges encouraged to call the Masters of these lodges and learn first hand how the programmes are working and why.

Victoria District [14 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. John G. Appleby

Masonry is thriving in Victoria District and while, perhaps, our numbers have not increased, the enthusiasm of the younger members has. Several of the lodges are strong and very active, while several are struggling, but most lie somewhere in between and seem to be thriving. All the brethren seem to be sincere, dedicated and very friendly. Most of our lodges operate in a small town atmosphere that is so much a part of Masonry in Canada. Most lodges have a positive attitude towards their future and the future of Masonry in Canada.

One Hundred year celebrations were winding down in Somerville Lodge in Kinmount this year, while Brock Lodge in Cannington is celebrating its 125th Anniversary.

The district hosted a Grand Lodge Workshop in October, which was well received and well attended. The District Divine Service was well attended at St. Andrew's United Church in Beaverton, with over one hundred guests returning to Murray Lodge for refreshments.

We are initiating an Entered Apprentice Mason Welcome Team programme starting in the fall and plans are under way for a charitable drive.

Waterloo District [16 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Charles E. Hollett

Waterloo District is on relatively stable ground with a few exceptions. The quality of work is very good. All lodges are adhering to the changes in the Book of Work. Proper dress and protocol have been stressed and complied with. Informal banquet hours have not been good for protocol. Membership is waning somewhat in several of the lodges while picking up greatly in two or three lodges. One lodge has been speaking of amalgamation although nothing formal has been undertaken.

All of the lodges in the district have contributed to the District Charity, Lisaard House, a Waterloo Region Hospice for adult cancer patients who have a limited life expectancy. Several of the lodges also undertake community projects such as Adopt-a-Road and financial assistance to hospitals in the area.

Grand Lodge programmes are fairly well attended by Masons within the district, but as in most cases, the lodges who could most use the advice and assistance rarely participate. Three District Lodges of Instruction were fairly well attended and certificates were presented to those who attended all three.

Only one or two lodges held an open house/wine and cheese evening with great success. The other lodges have to be convinced of how appropriate it is to show the public and prospective applicants what Masonry is all about.

Highlights of the year include the institution of a Daylight Lodge, "New Light Lodge U.D.," an excellent success story to date, the Reception for the Grand Master which was very well attended and successful, the Annual District Curling Bonspiel, the Annual Dart Tournament, the Annual Fish Fry, the newly organized District Golf Tournament and the visit to the Drayton Festival and Dinner.

The Masters', Past Masters' and Wardens' Association have to be given credit for their organizational skills and assistance in many of these events. Visitation by some lodges is not given a thought. Many visitors are always the same brethren. A Lodge Visitors Trophy was instituted this year and has endeavoured to get the lodges visiting within the district as a group. So far, reaction is positive.

A bursary cheque was presented on behalf of the Masonic Foundation to a University of Waterloo student.

It is recommended that the lodges in our jurisdiction not be inundated with letters explaining the various committees of Grand Lodge as these letters are read and filed on most occasions. More personal input by committee members throughout the jurisdiction may be more beneficial for the fraternity.

Wellington District [12 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Alistair C. Irving

Wellington District, as in the past, had a very successful year financially in all lodges. Membership, with the exception of two or three lodges, continues to be a problem. We have an aging membership, and for reasons unconfirmed, younger men are not joining our ranks. We must gather a consensus of opinion from our younger members, as to why this is happening. We must be prepared to allow them more latitude in the operation of lodges but still remain within Masonic guidelines.

This district is fortunate to have a number of young Masters and officers, but they feel constrained and even intimidated by senior members. The past year has seen more visitations by mainly the Masters, but the other officers and members were noticeable by their absence.

The district has had such fundraisers as Chicken BBQs, Dinner and Theatre Nights, a Curling Bonspiel, a Golf Tournament, and although we did not have a District Charity to donate to, donations from lodges to local charities were most notable.

Our prime resource is youth and it should be recognized.

Western District [10 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Jeff Gould

Masonry in Western District is for the most part healthy and flourishing with some bright areas and others that are in survival mode. The level of the quality of lodge work continues to remain at a good level. Membership is steady with flow of new candidates replacing the numbers that we are losing. In some areas the general economy of the towns is resulting in diminishing populations that are having a negative effect on the membership of any organization. Finances do not play a negative role in the district. Two lodges that recognized future problems are implementing corrective actions that will ensure their viability.

During official visits, the importance of programmes such as "Brother to Brother" was stressed and we see that the lodges that are using this tool are reaping the benefits. As with any new programme, once the initial reluctance to "try something new" is gone, progress is made. Our lodges continue to be visible in the communities and are organizing successful Blood Donor clinics and other worthwhile projects. A district display tent was purchased and has been used by a number of lodges at public functions.

Long range planning is only actively being done by a few lodges. This task seems insurmountable for some lodges and a great level of assistance will have to be provided. To mandate lodges to prepare a long-term plan, when they do not prepare an annual financial budget will require continued persistence.

I recommend that we continue to promote the implementation of Grand Lodge programmes actively and at a minimum have each lodge prepare a financial forecast for the ensuing year.

Wilson North District [12 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. Thomas A. Siemiernik

Of the twelve lodges, seven of the Masters are Past Masters. Ages range from forty-five to sixty-five. Observation of the seven men is that they were needed to fill a void. However, during several conversations, it is safe to say that most are enjoying their chair more than the first time. The knowledge they have gained has made them better leaders. The fear of governing their lodge does not seem to be evident.

Of the five Masters, in the age bracket of thirty years, it is a different story. These young men find that they have to juggle several things at one time: lodge, young families, careers, personal hobbies, etc. This may be somewhat of a tense situation. To reduce the pressure it may be suggested that some of the duties be shared with the two Wardens, e.g. distributing parts for the degree work. Knowing the several parts that can be broken into smaller parts and who will do each part. The Junior Warden would have the most to gain. The leadership roles of this district are not always that of the Worshipful Master alone.

With the several lodges located in the country, attracting new members is somewhat difficult. Many of the small farmers are being bought out by large operators; where we had ten families in an area we now may only have perhaps just one. With our aging population, amalgamation seems inevitable.

It is my opinion that the Masons are working close together within their respective lodges and the district.

Wilson South District [12 Lodges]

R.W. Bro. T. Roy Davies

The district is experiencing general decline in membership but several lodges have taken some positive steps to rectify it. Some of the Grand Lodge programmes are being applied, especially Friend to Friend and Open House.

More lodges are concerned about lack of community involvement and are studying ways to improve it and raise public awareness. One lodge publicised their involvement in supporting a local Girl Guide group in the local press. Several lodges are actively involved in the local blood donor clinics and the results are rewarding.

After ensuring that updated books for ritual and installation were given out, a marked improvement was noticed, generally. In several cases there needs to be more practice, including the junior officers.

This year the candidates were given several past copies of the Newsletter and the lodge itself was given a bound copy and the latest copy (March), which included an article by our District Chairman of Education. More Masonic education would be beneficial in all lodges in the district.

Lodges were encouraged to present widow's pins and those who had not done it before were pleasantly surprised by the positive response.

Unfortunately, two lodges are looking at the prospects of moving. One received Grand Lodge assistance last June and the other will be seeking assistance in September.

Windsor District [10 Lodges, now 9]

R.W. Bro. John W. (Jack) Murphy

Freemasonry is alive and well in the Windsor District. The loss of Garden Lodge No. 641, who surrendered their charter on April 19, 2002, was an unfortunate but predictable event. The passing of such staunch members as R.W. Bros. John Middleton, Harold Carter and James Lappage, whose personal efforts kept the lodge running proved to be the undoing of this old historic organization.

However, this gave a wake up call to the remaining nine lodges, and it is apparent they are actively seeking new members.

The lodge social activities such as Ladies' Nights, Family Picnics, Kids Christmas Party and Canada Day Parade, all appeared to be successful ventures. The highlight of the year was the Canada Day Parade on July 1st and the Laying of the new Cornerstone at City Hall in Windsor. The original Cornerstone of the first City Hall was laid in 1856 by the Masons of Michigan, and we were pleased to have them in attendance.

In conclusion, the Masons of Windsor District were quite visible to the general public with their participation in charitable events. Canada Day Parade and the Laying of the new Cornerstone at Windsor City Hall, proving that "Masons Care" in the Windsor District.
